QUESTION 11 a-c

The above referenced plan is not subject to the Form M-1 filing requirement for the Plan Year.

Although the Plan is a multiple-employer plan, all of the Plan's reported Schedules fall under the Excepted Benefits provision of the Form M-1.

According to the M-1 filing instructions, "Excepted Benefits" Part 7 of Subtitle B of Title I (Part 7) of ERISA does not apply to any group health plan or group health insurance issuer in relation to its provision of excepted benefits. Certain benefits that are generally not health coverage are excepted in all circumstances. These benefits are: coverage only for accident (including accidental death and dismemberment), disability income insurance, liability insurance (including general liability insurance and automobile liability insurance), coverage issued as a supplement to liability insurance, workers' compensation or similar insurance, automobile medical payment insurance, credit-only insurance (for example, mortgage insurance), and coverage for on-site medical clinics. Other benefits that generally are health coverage are excepted if certain conditions are met. Specifically, limited scope dental benefits, limited scope vision benefits, and long-term care benefits are excepted if they are provided under a separate policy, certificate, or contract of insurance, or are otherwise not an integral part of the group health plan." Department of Labor's regulations at 29 CFR 2590.732(c)(3).

All of the reported Schedules meet the Excepted Benefits provisions and hence are not required to complete the M-1 filing requirements.
