Re Acct No. 1104332

Termination Date: December 31, 2024

We thank you for allowing Principal the opportunity to assist with your insurance needs.

As you are likely aware, most insured welfare benefit plans that are subject to the Employee Retirement Income Security Act (ERISA), and that cover 100 or more employee plan participants at the beginning of their plan year, are required to file Form 5500 with the Employee Benefits Security Administration of the U.S. Department of Labor. The Schedule A must be attached to the Form 5500 filing if any of the benefits under the plan are provided by an insurance company.

We've enclosed your Schedule A Insurance Information worksheet for the period January 1, 2024 through December 31, 2024 to assist you with your filing of the Schedule A (Form 5500). The paid premium reported on the Schedule A worksheet represents premium received and applied to your account during the reported period and may include adjustments made after the termination date. This information will need to be transferred to a Schedule A template.

If you have questions about the applicability of these requirements to your plan, please consult with your legal or tax advisor. For filing assistance and additional information:

Contact the Employee Benefits Security Administration, an agency within the U.S. Department of Labor, at 1-866-444-3272 or www.dol.gov/ebsa.

The Department of Labor requires filings to be submitted electronically at www.efast.dol.gov.

Additional help with EFAST can be obtained by calling 1-866-GO-EFAST (1-866-463-3278).

If you have questions about the enclosed information, please contact me at the email address at the top of this letter.

Re: Compensation Disclosure Statement

Metropolitan Life Insurance Company ("MetLife") recognizes the relationship you have with your broker and the important role your broker plays in helping you select the insurance carrier, policy, and level of coverage that is appropriate for your needs. MetLife is committed to disclosing to each of its group customers information about MetLife's compensation plans. The enclosed statement lists the types of compensation MetLife paid during the last plan year to your broker and/or certain service providers in relation to your company's group insurance plan.

- Base commissions. Base commissions are payable as a percentage of paid premium or a fixed dollar amount for as long as the broker is recognized by the customer and MetLife as the broker of record for your policy.
- Supplemental compensation. If your broker is eligible for supplemental compensation, these payments may range from 0% to 8% of premium. The actual percentage of supplemental compensation is determined each year and is based on: (1) the number of MetLife products sold or inforce through your broker during the previous year; (2) the amount of premium or fees with respect to MetLife products sold or inforce through your broker during the previous year; (3) the persistency percentage of products inforce through your broker during the previous year; (4) premium growth during the previous year; and/or (5) a fixed percentage of the premium for products as set by MetLife. The cost of supplemental compensation is not directly charged to the price of MetLife products, except as an allocation of overhead expense, which is applied to all eligible group insurance products. As a result, a customer's rates are unaffected whether or not the customer's broker receives supplemental compensation.
- Service fees. Service fees include payments made to a broker for services such as administration, communications, enrollment, billing, recordkeeping, printing, and mailing.
- Additional compensation. MetLife may pay your broker additional compensation based on the sale of multiple products. The cost of additional compensation is not directly charged to the price of MetLife products, except as an allocation of overhead expense, which is applied to all eligible group insurance products. As a result, a customer's rates are unaffected whether or not the customer's broker receives the additional compensation.
- Other compensation authorized by you. You may have authorized MetLife to pay compensation to a broker or other service provider and such compensation is reflected on the compensation statement.

Note, the non-monetary compensation amount included in the Fees Paid section of the enclosed Compensation Statement is based on the calendar year tracking of all individual gifts or items of non-monetary compensation such as dinners, tickets for shows or other entertainment events, membership dues, hotels, equal to or greater than $10, that are given to or provided directly or indirectly to brokers, producers, and other insurance intermediaries and/or their spouses, companions or family members. This information is tracked and aggregated at the brokerage firm or company level. The total value is divided by the total number of active contracts or policies in place with that firm for that year except for items relating directly to a specific customer or customers (which are reported to the specific customer(s)). This allocation is reported on the Compensation Disclosure Statement reports for all customers who are part of a given broker firm's book of business.

More information about MetLife's compensation plans can be found on www.metlife.com/brokercompensation. Questions regarding broker compensation can be directed to ask4met@metlifeservice.com, or you may call (800) ASK 4MET.

Thank you for doing business with MetLife.
