To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing regarding my company's final Form 5500 SF for the terminated 401(k) plan. This plan was closed on November 6, 2023. It had been in place since January 1, 2014.

While the plan was active all filings for Form 5500 were handled through our payroll service, Paychex. Once the plan was closed the option to administer the 401(k) program was removed from our Paychex website, and I was not aware that a final Form 5500 was necessary for the terminated 401(k) plan.

I recently received a letter from the IRS regarding the need to file Form 5500 for the period 12-31-2023, which alerted me to the fact that this filing was missing. I contacted Paychex and had them send me the final Form 5500 so that I could submit it using the www.efast.dol.gov website. This is a new process for me, since all previous 5500 forms were submitted through Paychex.

Please keep in mind that during the entire time that the 401(k) plan was active the assets were extremely small. The total assets never exceeded $4,300. The cost of the administration for the plan was likely higher than any gain in interest that the plan generated. Also, I was the only participant in the plan because the company is just me and my wife and my children (part-time).

I hope that you will take the above into consideration while assessing any penalty for this late filing.

Sincerely yours,
