Plan Administrator and Board of Directors
LivHOME, Inc. 401(k) Plan
Durham, North Carolina

In planning and performing our audit of the financial statements of LivHOME, Inc. 401(k) Plan (the Plan) as of December 31, 2024, and for the year then ended, in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America, we considered relevant plan provisions and the Plan's internal control over financial reporting (internal control) as a basis for designing audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the financial statements, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the Plan's compliance with those provisions or on the effectiveness of the Plan's internal control. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion on the Plan's compliance with plan provisions or on the effectiveness of the Plan's internal control.

Our consideration of relevant plan provisions and internal control was for the limited purpose described in the preceding paragraph and was not designed to identify all instances that the Plan is not operating in accordance with the Plan's provisions or deficiencies in internal control that might be material weaknesses or significant deficiencies. Therefore, instances that the Plan is not operating in accordance with plan provisions or deficiencies in internal control, including material weaknesses or significant deficiencies, may exist that were not identified.

Instances where the Plan is not operating in accordance with plan provisions may be indicative of a deficiency in internal control. A deficiency in internal control exists when the design or operation of a control does not allow management or employees, in the normal course of performing their assigned functions, to prevent, or detect and correct, misstatements on a timely basis. A deficiency in design exists when (a) a control necessary to meet the control objective is missing, or (b) an existing control is not properly designed so that, even if the control operates as designed, the control objective would not be met. A deficiency in operation exists when a properly designed control does not operate as designed or when the person performing the control does not possess the necessary authority or competence to perform the control effectively.

A material weakness is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control, such that there is a reasonable possibility that a material misstatement of the entity's financial statements will not be prevented, or detected and corrected, on a timely basis.

A significant deficiency is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control that is less severe than a material weakness, yet important enough to merit attention by those charged with governance. We consider the following deficiency in the Plan's internal control to be a significant deficiency:

Fiduciary Responsibilities – Plan Committee

The Plan doesn't have a governing body to oversee the Plan's operation and reporting. A Plan committee would be in charge of ensuring that the Plan operates within the regulations of ERISA and the Internal Revenue Service code as well as management is operating the Plan in accordance with the Plan document. Due to the significant number of investment failures with benefit plans, the complexity of investment alternatives, and the complexity of the tax laws covering qualifications of the Plan and fiduciary responsibilities of the trustees and Plan Sponsor, it is imperative that Plan management adequately document the due diligence they exercise over operations of the Plan, including selection of an investment policy and investment alternatives to offer participants who defer their earnings into the Plan's investments, and monitoring investment performance (benchmarking) against the Plan's objectives.

Recommendation

We recommend forming a committee which would be in charge of reviewing investments, selecting investment managers and strategies, monitoring tax, compliance and approve Plan amendments as needed. We also recommend the committee meets at least twice a year and that minutes from these meetings are maintained to document the fiduciary procedures performed on each meeting.

The identified significant deficiency is not considered to be a material weakness.

Management's response to the internal control deficiency identified in our audit was not subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the financial statements and, accordingly, we express no opinion on it.

This communication is intended solely for the information and use of the Plan Administrator, management, the Board of Directors, and others within the Plan, and is not intended to be, and should not be, used by anyone other than these specified parties.
