Attn: My K Team at ADP:

Re: Form 5500

I have received a letter from the IRS in reference to not receiving my 5500 form from 2023. According to Bernadette, who I spoke with today, there was apparently an email sent out at some point from a company I am not familiar. So like all my emails, if I do not know the company that an email is coming from I do not open it, as there is way too much spam going on in this world. I was never told I would receive an email. As far I know the email also could have gone into my spam bucket. I did not receive anything in the mail indicating this process.

Please waive any fees and have the 5500 form and republished it so I can forward the proper information to the IRS.

I appreciate you attention to this matter and understanding my reasoning to not seeing or opening an email that I was not familiar to me. I have already been compromised with identity and do not need to go through that again.

I look forward to getting an email from ADP with a response.

Sincerely,

Annette Coyne
