Part III Accountant's Opinion

3 Complete lines 3a through 3c if the opinion of an independent qualified public accountant is attached to this Form 5500. Complete line 3d if an opinion is not attached.

a The attached opinion of an independent qualified public accountant for this plan is (see instructions):

(1) Unmodified (2) Qualified (3) Disclaimer (4) Adverse

b Check the appropriate box(es) to indicate whether the IQPA performed an ERISA section 103(a)(3)(C) audit. Check both boxes (1) and (2) if the audit was performed pursuant to both 29 CFR 2520.103-8 and 29 CFR 2520.103-12(d). Check box (3) if pursuant to neither.

(1) DOL Regulation 2520.103-8 (2) DOL Regulation 2520.103-12(d) (3) neither DOL Regulation 2520.103-8 nor DOL Regulation 2520.103-12(d).

c Enter the name and EIN of the accountant (or accounting firm) below:

(1) Name: LAZARD GLOBAL LISTED INFRASTRUCTURE

(2) EIN: 33-6363285

d The opinion of an independent qualified public accountant is not attached as part of Schedule H because:

(1) This form is filed for a CCT, PSA, DCG or MTIA. (2) It will be attached to the next Form 5500 pursuant to 29 CFR 2520.104-50.

Part IV Compliance Questions

4 CCTs and PSAs do not complete Part IV. MTIAs, 103-12 IEs, and GIAs do not complete lines 4a, 4e, 4f, 4g, 4h, 4k, 4m, 4n, or 5. 103-12 IEs also do not complete lines 4j and 4l. MTIAs also do not complete line 4l. DCGs do not complete lines 4e, 4f, 4k, 4l, and 5, and DCGs generally complete the rest of Part IV collectively for all plans in the DCG, except as otherwise provided (see instructions).

During the plan year:

Independent Auditor's Report

To Lazard Global Listed Infrastructure Trust:

Opinion

We have audited the financial statements of Lazard Global Listed Infrastructure Trust (the "Trust"), which comprise the statement of assets and liabilities, including the portfolio of investments, as of December 31, 2024, and the related statements of operations, changes in net assets, and the financial highlights for the year then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements (collectively referred to as the "financial statements").

In our opinion, the accompanying financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Trust as of December 31, 2024, and the results of its operations, changes in its net assets, and financial highlights for the year then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAS). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of the Trust and to meet our other ethical responsibilities, in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audit. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Trust's ability to continue as a going concern for one year after the date that the financial statements are available to be issued.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with GAAS will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with GAAS, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Trust's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Trust's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control-related matters that we identified during the audit.

- (a) Net investment income (loss) has been computed based on the average daily units outstanding.
- (b) Certain expenses of the Trust may have been reimbursed by the Investment Manager; without such reimbursement of expenses, the Trust's return would have been lower. Total return calculation is based on the value of a single unit of participation outstanding throughout the year/period. It represents the percentage change in the net asset value per unit between the beginning of the year/period and end of the year/period and assumes reinvestment of all distributions, if any. The calculation includes only those expenses charged directly to the Trust and does not include management fees. Individual unitholders may incur administration or other fees related to the management or maintenance of their individual unitholder accounts, which would have the effect of reducing a unitholder's net return on its investments in the Trust. An individual unitholder's return may also vary based on the timing of capital transactions and fees. Returns for a period of less than one year are not annualized.
- (c) Ratios to average net assets do not reflect expenses charged directly to the unitholders. An individual unitholder's ratios to average net assets may vary based on the timing of capital transactions and fees.
- (d) Annualized for a period of less than one year except for non-recurring expenses.

The accompanying notes are an integral part of these financial statements.

Lazard Global Listed Infrastructure Trust

Notes to Financial Statements

December 31, 2024

(1) Organization

Lazard Global Listed Infrastructure Trust (the "Trust"), a Delaware statutory trust, was created pursuant to an Agreement and Declaration of Trust dated February 15, 2007, as amended and/or restated from time to time. The Trust's investment objective is to achieve total returns (consisting of income and capital appreciation before the deduction of fees and taxes) that outperform inflation, as measured by the Consumer Price Index, with low volatility. The Trust seeks to achieve its investment objective by investing primarily in publicly listed companies that own physical infrastructure predominantly located in member countries of the Organization for Economic Co-operation and Development.

The Trust currently offers two share classes (A and D), and additional classes may be added. For class A, the Trust does not generally make any distributions other than with respect to redemptions or in the event of the Trust's termination. For class D, the Trust anticipates making distributions to holders of Class D Units from time to time in the sole and absolute discretion of the Lazard Asset Management LLC (the "Investment Manager").

The Investment Manager, a subsidiary of Lazard Frères & Co. LLC, manages the investment assets of the Trust. The Investment Manager has retained Lazard Asset Management Pacific Co. (the "Sub-Adviser"), a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Investment Manager, to manage the day-to-day investment activities of the Trust. State Street Bank and Trust Company (the "Trustee" and "Custodian") is the Trustee and Custodian of the Trust, maintains custody of the Trust's assets, and also performs certain administrative, transfer agency, tax, financial reporting and fund accounting services for the Trust. The custodian, trustee and administration fees are accrued daily and paid monthly.

(2) Significant Accounting Policies

The accompanying financial statements are presented in conformity with US Generally Accepted Accounting Principles ("GAAP"). The Trust is an investment company and therefore applies specialized accounting guidance in accordance with Accounting Standards Codification Topic 946. The following is a summary of significant accounting policies consistently followed by the Trust in the preparation of the financial statements:

(a) Valuation of Investments

Equity securities traded on a securities exchange or market, including exchange-traded option contracts, rights and warrants, are valued at the last reported sales price (for US listed equity securities) or the closing price (for non-US listed equity securities) on the exchange or market on which the security is principally traded or, for securities trading on the Nasdaq, the Nasdaq Official Closing Price. If there is no available closing price for a non-US listed equity security, the last reported sales price is used. If there are no reported sales of a security on the valuation date, the security is valued at the most recent quoted bid price on such date reported by such principal exchange or market. Forward currency contracts generally are valued using quotations from an independent pricing service. Investments in money market funds are valued at the fund's net asset value ("NAV") per share.

Trading on certain non-US securities exchanges or markets, such as those in Europe and Asia, ordinarily may be completed before the close of business on each business day in New York (i.e., a day on which the New York Stock Exchange (the "NYSE") is open). In addition, securities trading in a particular non-US country or countries, may not take place on all business days in New York and on which the NAV of the Trust is calculated.

Events occurring after the close of trading on foreign exchanges may affect the fair value of foreign securities as of the close of regular trading on the NYSE, when the Trust's NAV is calculated. When valuing foreign equity securities, the Trust uses an independent pricing service that values such securities to reflect market trading that occurs after the close of the applicable foreign markets of comparable securities or other instruments, which have a strong correlation to the fair-valued securities.

December 31, 2024

The Investment Manager may evaluate a variety of factors to determine the fair value of securities for which market quotations are determined not to be readily available or reliable. These factors include, but are not limited to, the type of security, the value of comparable securities, observations from financial institutions and relevant news events. Input from the Investment Manager's portfolio management team also will be considered.

(b) Portfolio Securities Transactions and Investment Income

Portfolio securities transactions are accounted for on trade date. Realized gain (loss) on sales of investments are recorded on a specific identification basis. Dividend income is recorded on the ex-dividend date except for certain dividends from non-US securities where the dividend rate is not available. In such cases, the dividend is recorded as soon as the information is received by the Trust. Interest income, if any, is accrued daily.

The Trust may be subject to taxes imposed by non-US countries in which it invests. Such taxes are generally based upon income earned or capital gains (realized and/or unrealized). The Trust accrues and applies such taxes to net investment income, net realized gains and net unrealized gains concurrent with the recognition of income earned or capital gains (realized and/or unrealized) from the applicable portfolio securities.

(c) Foreign Currency Translation and Forward Currency Contracts

The accounting records of the Trust are maintained in US dollars. Portfolio securities and other assets and liabilities denominated in a foreign currency are translated daily into US dollars at the prevailing rates of exchange. Purchases and sales of securities, income receipts and expense payments are translated into US dollars at the prevailing exchange rates on the respective transaction dates.

The Trust does not isolate the portion of operations resulting from changes in foreign exchange rates on investments from the fluctuations arising from changes in their market prices. Such fluctuations are included in net realized and unrealized gain (loss) on investments.

A forward currency contract is an agreement between two parties to buy or sell currency at a set price on a future date. Daily fluctuations in the value of forward currency contracts are recorded as unrealized appreciation (depreciation) on forward currency contracts. When the contract is closed, the Trust records a realized gain (loss) equal to the difference between the value at the time it was opened and the value at the time it was closed. Net realized gain (loss) on foreign currency transactions represent net foreign currency gain (loss) from disposition of foreign currencies, currency gain (loss) realized between the trade and settlement dates on securities transactions, and the difference between the amount of dividends, interest and foreign withholding taxes recorded on the Trust's accounting records and the US dollar equivalent amounts actually received or paid. Net change in unrealized appreciation (depreciation) on foreign currency translations reflects the impact of changes in exchange rates on the value of assets and liabilities, other than investments in securities, during the period.

(d) Federal Income Taxes

The Trust is classified as a partnership for US federal income tax purposes. As a partnership, the Trust is not generally required to pay any US federal or state income taxes and files a US federal income tax return and state and local tax returns when necessary. As soon as possible after the Trust's year end, the Trust will report, on Schedule K-1, each unitholder's proportionate share of any income, gains, losses, credits and deductions for tax purposes. Such items, which must be reported on the tax returns of the unitholders, will retain their character for tax purposes as ordinary income, short-term or long-term capital gains and losses, credits or deductions.

To the extent that the Trust is successful in its investment strategy, unitholders should expect to incur tax liabilities from their investment in the Trust.

December 31, 2024

Management has analyzed the Trust's tax positions and has concluded that no liability for unrecognized tax benefits should be recorded related to uncertain tax positions taken on tax returns filed for any open tax years (or expected to be taken on future tax returns). Open tax years are those that remain subject to examination and are based on each tax jurisdiction's statute of limitations. The Trust files a US federal income tax return annually after its fiscal year-end, which is subject to examination by the Internal Revenue Service for a period of three years from the date of filing.

(e) Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of increases and decreases in net assets resulting from operations during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

(f) Net Asset Value

The NAV per unit of the Trust is determined each day the NYSE is open for trading as of the close of regular trading on the NYSE (generally 4:00 p.m. Eastern time). The Trust will not treat an intraday unscheduled disruption in NYSE trading as a closure of the NYSE, and will price its units as of 4:00 p.m., if the particular disruption directly affects only the NYSE. The NAV per unit of a class is determined by dividing the value of the total assets of the Trust, less all liabilities, by the total number of Trust units outstanding.

(3) Short Term Investments

Cash is held by the Custodian which, as contracted on behalf of the Trust, sweeps cash on each business day into the State Street Institutional U.S. Government Money Market Fund, a registered open-end management investment company under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended ("Investment Company Act"), which is included in the Portfolio of Investments.

(4) Management Fee and Expenses

For its investment management and related services to the Trust, the Investment Manager is compensated pursuant to individual agreements between the Investment Manager and each unitholder (the "Management Fee"). The Management Fee is generally payable quarterly in arrears and is calculated as of the last business day of each calendar month at the rate of 1/12 of the annual rate, before giving effect to any redemption of units on that day. Such fee will not be paid out of the assets of the Trust. Payment for the Management Fee may be made by the unitholders directly to the Investment Manager or by redemption of the unitholder's units (as described below).

Management Fee for the year ended December 31, 2024 was $2,243,404.

The Trustee will, at the direction of the Investment Manager, redeem a number of each unitholder's units in an amount sufficient to pay the Management Fee to the Investment Manager. As such, the NAV per unit will not reflect the expense of the Management Fee. Rather, a unitholder's number of units will be reduced by the expense of the Management Fee and, as such, the Management Fee is not included in the Statement of Operations of the Trust.

The Trust is responsible for all operating expenses such as custody, trustee, administration, audit, legal and tax services fees subject to the limit referred to below.

Lazard Global Listed Infrastructure Trust

December 31, 2024

The Investment Manager has voluntarily agreed to reimburse the Trust if the aggregate direct expenses of the Trust, exclusive of taxes, brokerage, interest on borrowings, fees and expenses of “Acquired Funds” and extraordinary expenses, exceed 0.10% of the value of the Trust's average daily net assets. For purposes of this item, an “Acquired Fund” means any company in which the Trust invests or has invested during the relevant fiscal period that (A) is an investment company or (B) would be an investment company under section 3(a) of the Investment Company Act (15 U.S.C. 80a-3(a)) but for the exceptions to that definition provided for in sections 3(c)(1) and 3(c)(7) of the Investment Company Act (15 U.S.C. 80a-3(c)(1) and 80a-3(c)(7)).

The Investment Manager compensates the Sub-Adviser for its services to the Trust. Neither the Trust nor its unitholders are charged a fee by the Sub-Adviser.

During the year ended December 31, 2024, $2,878 for Class D was reimbursed by the Investment Manager for other expenses and there were no reimbursements for Class A.

(5) Unitholders' Transactions

The Trust offers units for sale at the Trust's unit value as of the close of the last business day of each month (the "Valuation Date"). Subscriptions for units must be received by the Investment Manager at least five business days prior to the effective date of the proposed subscriptions. Upon not less than fifteen business days' notice prior to the Valuation Date, all or a portion of the units may be redeemed at the Trust's unit value as calculated on the Valuation Date. Refer to the Statement of Changes in Net Assets for unitholder activities for the year.

A Transaction Fee may be imposed on any redemption of units of the Trust if the Investment Manager concludes that based on the proportionate size of the redemption to the total assets of the Trust it would be inequitable not to do so. If the Investment Manager makes such a determination, it will direct the Trustee either to impose a Transaction Fee on, or to establish a segregated account in connection with, the redemption.

During the year ended December 31, 2024, the Trust had in-kind subscriptions of $87,740,084 and made in-kind redemptions of $66,332,791, which included a net realized loss on investments of $7,613,104 using a segregated account.

(6) Investment Risks

(a) Market Risk

The Trust may incur losses due to declines in one or more markets in which it invests. These declines may be the result of, among other things, political, regulatory, market, economic or social developments affecting the relevant market(s). To the extent that such developments impact specific industries, market sectors, countries or geographic regions, the Trust's investments in such industries, market sectors, countries and/or geographic regions can be expected to be particularly affected, especially if such investments are a significant portion of its investment portfolio. In addition, turbulence in financial markets and reduced liquidity in equity, credit and/or fixed income markets may negatively affect many issuers, which could adversely affect the Trust. Global economies and financial markets are increasingly interconnected, and conditions and events in one country, region or financial market may adversely impact issuers worldwide. As a result, local, regional or global events such as war or military conflict, acts of terrorism, the spread of infectious illness or other public health issues, social unrest, supply chain disruptions, government defaults, government shutdowns, the imposition of sanctions and other similar measures, recessions or other events could have a significant negative impact on global economic and market conditions. For example, a public health or other emergency and aggressive responses taken by many governments or voluntarily imposed by private parties, including closing borders, restricting international and domestic travel, and imposing prolonged quarantines or similar restrictions, as well as the closure of, or operational changes to, many retail and other businesses, may have severe negative impacts on markets worldwide. Additionally, general market conditions may impact the value of the Trust's securities, including changes in interest rates, currency rates or monetary policies.

December 31, 2024

(b) Non-US Securities Risk

The Trust's performance will be influenced by political, social and economic factors affecting the non-US countries and companies in which the Trust invests. Non-US securities carry special risks, such as less developed or less efficient trading markets, political instability, a lack of company information, differing auditing and legal standards, and, potentially, less liquidity. Non-US securities may be subject to economic sanctions or other similar governmental actions or developments, which could, among other things, effectively restrict or eliminate the Trust's ability to purchase or sell certain foreign securities. To the extent the Trust holds securities subject to such actions, the securities may become difficult to value and/or less liquid (or illiquid). In some cases, the securities may become worthless. In addition, investments denominated in currencies other than the US dollar may experience a decline in value, in US dollar terms, due solely to fluctuations in currency exchange rates.

(c) Emerging Market Risk

Emerging market countries generally have economic structures that are less diverse and mature, and political systems that are less stable, than those of developed countries. The economies of countries with emerging markets may be based predominantly on only a few industries, may be highly vulnerable to changes in local or global trade conditions, and may suffer from extreme debt burdens or volatile inflation rates. The securities markets of emerging market countries have historically been extremely volatile and less liquid than more developed markets. These market conditions may continue or worsen. Investments in these countries may be subject to political, economic, legal, market and currency risks. Significant devaluation of emerging market currencies against the US dollar may occur subsequent to acquisition of investments denominated in emerging market currencies.

(d) Foreign Currency Risk

Investments denominated in currencies other than the US dollar may experience a decline in value, in US dollar terms, due solely to fluctuations in currency exchange rates. The Trust's investments denominated in such currencies (particularly currencies of emerging markets countries), as well as any investments in currencies themselves, could be adversely affected by delays in, or a refusal to grant, repatriation of funds or conversion of currencies. Irrespective of any foreign currency exposure hedging, the Trust may experience a decline in the value of its portfolio securities, in US dollar terms, due solely to fluctuations in currency exchange rates.

(e) Infrastructure Companies Risk

Securities and instruments of infrastructure companies, which consist of utilities, pipelines, toll roads, airports, railroads, ports, telecommunications and other infrastructure companies, are more susceptible to adverse economic or regulatory occurrences affecting their industries. Infrastructure companies may be subject to a variety of factors that may adversely affect their business or operations, including high interest costs in connection with capital construction programs, high leverage, costs associated with environmental and other regulations, the effects of economic slowdown, surplus capacity, increased competition from other providers of services, uncertainties concerning the availability of fuel at reasonable prices, the effects of energy conservation policies and other factors. Infrastructure companies also may be affected by or subject to, among other factors, regulation by various government authorities, including rate regulation and service interruption due to environmental, operational or other mishaps.

In addition, there could be a limited supply of suitable investments available with respect to the Trust's investment objective and strategies, in which event the Trust's ability to acquire appropriate investments without affecting market prices may be limited.

Lazard Global Listed Infrastructure Trust

December 31, 2024

(f) Derivatives Risk

The Trust may purchase or sell forward currency contracts and/or non-deliverable forwards to establish or gain exposure to certain foreign currency markets, or to attempt to minimize the risk from adverse changes in the relationship between the US dollar and foreign currencies.

Although forward currency contracts may be used to seek to protect the Trust from adverse currency movements, they involve the risk that anticipated currency movements will not be accurately predicted and the Trust's total return would be adversely affected as a result. In addition, the forward currency market for the purchase of US dollars in many emerging markets is not highly developed, and in certain countries no forward market for foreign currencies currently exists, or such market may be closed to investment by the Trust.

(g) Unitholder Concentration Risk

Units in excess of 10% of Trust units at December 31, 2024 were held by three of the Trust's unitholders and aggregated to 74.89% of the Trust's total units outstanding.

(h) Counterparty Default Risk

Certain investment techniques the Trust may employ involve risk that the counterparty to such instruments will become insolvent or otherwise default on its obligation to perform as agreed. In the event of such default, the Trust may have limited recourse against the counterparty and may experience delays in the recovery (or loss) of collateral.

(i) Sector Risk

Implementation of certain of the Trust's investment strategies may, during certain periods, result in the investment of a significant portion of the Trust's assets in a particular market sector, and the Trust would be expected to be affected by developments in that sector.

(j) Cybersecurity Risk

The Trust and its service providers are susceptible to operational and information security and related risks of cybersecurity incidents. Cybersecurity attacks include, but are not limited to, gaining unauthorized access to digital systems (e.g., through "hacking" or malicious software coding) for purposes of misappropriating assets or sensitive information, corrupting data or causing operational disruption. Cybersecurity incidents affecting the Investment Manager, transfer agent or custodian or other service providers such as financial intermediaries have the ability to cause disruptions and impact business operations, potentially resulting in financial losses, including by impediments to the Trust's investment trading; the inability of Trust unitholders to purchase and redeem Trust units; interference with the Trust's ability to calculate its NAV; violations of applicable privacy, data security or other laws; regulatory fines and penalties; reputational damage; reimbursement or other compensation or remediation costs; legal fees; or additional compliance costs. Similar adverse consequences could result from cybersecurity incidents affecting issuers of securities in which the Trust invests; counterparties with which the Trust engages in transactions; governmental and other regulatory authorities, exchange and other financial market operators; and banks, brokers, dealers, insurance companies and other financial institutions and other parties. There are inherent limitations in any cybersecurity risk management systems or business continuity plans, including the possibility that certain risks have not been identified.

(7) Contractual Obligations

The Trust enters into contracts in the normal course of business that contain a variety of indemnification provisions. The Trust's maximum exposure under these arrangements is unknown. Management has reviewed the Trust's existing contracts and expects the risk of loss to be remote.

(8) Fair Value Measurements

Fair value is defined as the price that the Trust would receive to sell an asset, or would pay to transfer a liability, in an orderly transaction between market participants at the date of measurement. The Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures provisions of GAAP also establish a framework for measuring fair value, and a three-level hierarchy for fair value measurement that is based upon the transparency of inputs to the valuation of an asset or liability. Inputs may be observable or unobservable and refer, broadly, to the assumptions that market participants would use in pricing the asset or liability. Observable inputs reflect the assumptions that market participants would use in pricing the asset or liability based on market data obtained from sources independent of the Trust. Unobservable inputs reflect the Trust's own assumptions about the assumptions that market participants would use in pricing the asset or liability, developed based on the best information available in the circumstances. The fair value measurement level within the fair value hierarchy for the assets and liabilities of the Trust is based on the lowest level of any input that is significant to the overall fair value measurement. The three-level hierarchy of inputs is summarized below:

- Level 1 – unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets and liabilities
- Level 2 – other significant observable inputs (including unadjusted quoted prices for similar assets and liabilities, interest rates, prepayment speeds, credit risk, etc.)
- Level 3 – significant unobservable inputs (including the Trust's own assumptions in determining the fair value of assets and liabilities)

Changes in valuation methodology or input may result in transfers into or out of the current assigned level within the hierarchy. The inputs or methodology used for valuing securities are not necessarily an indication of the risks associated with investing in these securities.

The following table summarizes the valuation of the Trust's assets and liabilities by each fair value hierarchy level as of December 31, 2024:

† Other financial instruments are derivative instruments which are valued at their respective unrealized appreciation (depreciation).

(9) Derivative Instruments

The Trust may use derivative instruments, including forward currency contracts. Forward currency contracts may be used for hedging purposes or to seek to increase returns. During the year ended December 31, 2024, the approximate average monthly notional exposure for derivative instruments was as follows:

Forward currency contracts:

Average amounts purchased	$ 5,800,000*
Average amounts sold	$ 213,600,000

* Represents average monthly notional exposure for the eleven months the derivative instrument was open during the year.

The following table summarizes the fair value of derivative instruments on the Statement of Assets and Liabilities as of December 31, 2024:

Assets - Derivative Financial Instruments	Total
Forward currency contracts Unrealized appreciation on forward currency contracts	$5,730,740

Liabilities - Derivative Financial Instruments	Total
Forward currency contracts Unrealized depreciation on forward currency contracts	$ 67,147

The effect of derivative instruments on the Statement of Operations for the year ended December 31, 2024 was:

Net Realized Gain (Loss) from:	Total
Forward currency contracts	$10,766,585

Net Change in Unrealized Appreciation (Depreciation) on:	Total
Forward currency contracts	$6,562,389

As of December 31, 2024, the Trust held derivative instruments that are eligible for offset in the Statement of Assets and Liabilities and are subject to master netting arrangements. A master netting arrangement is an agreement between two counterparties who have multiple contracts with each other that provides for the net settlement of all contracts, as well as any cash collateral, through a single payment in the event of default on, or termination of, any one contract.
