To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing to respectfully request a waiver of the late filing penalty for Form 5500-SF. I operate a small business in which the only participants in the retirement plan are myself and my wife. I have had a retirement plan for many years and have consistently filed all required tax forms in a timely manner in years prior to 2023.

In the fourth quarter of 2023 I was in the process of transitioning our 401(k) plan from Paychex to a new provider. This transition proved significantly more complex and time-consuming than anticipated, resulting in several delays. At the time, I believed that Paychex would be responsible for filing the Form 5500-SF during the transition as they in the past. Unfortunately, I later learned this was not the case once I moved my 401K plan away from Paychex. In addition to the issue, I had with Paychex it is my understanding I had until August 2024 to file the 5500-SF, Unfortunately the first week of August 2024 I had a Brain Hemorrhage and spend a 7 days in the neurological ICU and suffered from headaches for two months after thus also causing the last filing.

Upon receiving the notice, the 5500-SF was not filed. I immediately took the necessary steps to file the form which included many hours on the phone with the IRS, Paychex and my current 401K administrator. In addition to taking the necessary steps I have also participated in the DFVC program with the Department of Labor. My request for the waiver is based on reasonable cause, as defined by the IRS and DOL, which allows penalty relief when a failure to file is due to circumstances beyond the filer's control and the filer exercised ordinary business care and prudence. In this case, the delay resulted from an unanticipated administrative complication during the provider transition, not from willful neglect. My prompt corrective action upon learning of the oversight, combined with my longstanding history of compliance, supports this request.

I respectfully ask that the late filing penalty be waived under these circumstances.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,
Howard Titlebaum
