INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Trustees of Medical Services of America, Inc.
Employee Benefit Plan & Trust
Lexington, South Carolina

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of the Medical Services of America, Inc. Employee Benefit Plan & Trust (the "Trust"), an employee benefit plan subject to the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 ("ERISA"), which comprise the statements of net assets available for benefits (cash basis) as of December 31, 2024 and 2023 and the related statements of changes in net assets available for benefits (cash basis) for the years then ended December 31, 2024 and 2023, and the related notes to the financial statements.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the net assets available for benefits of the Trust as of December 31, 2024 and 2023, and the changes in its net assets available for benefits for the years then ended in accordance with the cash basis of accounting as described in Note 1.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of the Trust and to meet our other ethical responsibilities, in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audits. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Basis of Accounting

We draw attention to Note 1 of the financial statements, which describes the basis of accounting. The financial statements are prepared on the cash basis of accounting, which is a basis of accounting other than accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Our opinion is not modified with respect to that matter.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with the cash basis of accounting described in Note 1; this includes determining that the cash basis of accounting is an acceptable basis for the preparation of the financial statements in the circumstances. Management is also responsible for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Trust's ability to continue as a going concern for one year after the date the financial statements are available to be issued.

Management is also responsible for maintaining a current plan instrument, including all plan amendments, administering the plan, and determining that the plan's transactions that are presented and disclosed in the financial statements are in conformity with the plan's provisions, including maintaining sufficient records with respect to each of the participants, to determine the benefits due or which may become due to such participants.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Trust's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Trust's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control-related matters that we identified during the audit.

Notes to Financial Statements
December 31, 2024 and 2023

Note 1. Basis of Accounting and Use of Estimates

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared on the cash basis of accounting. Under that basis, the only asset recognized is cash, and no receivables or liabilities are recognized. All transactions are recognized as either cash receipts or disbursements and noncash transactions are not recognized. The cash basis differs from generally accepted accounting principles because the effect of outstanding receivables and obligations unpaid at the date of the financial statements is not included in the financial statements.

Use of Estimates – The preparation of the Trust’s financial statements in accordance with the cash basis of accounting requires that management make estimates and use assumptions that affect the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities. The most significant estimate affecting these financial statements is the amount of claims incurred but not reported as disclosed. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Note 2. Description of Trust

The following description of Medical Services of America, Inc. (the “Company”) Employee Benefit Plan & Trust (the “Trust”) provides only general information. Participants should refer to the Trust agreement for a more complete description of the Trust’s provisions.

- a. General – The Trust provides health insurance, including dental, covering substantially all full-time (32 hours per week) employees of the Company and its subsidiaries. A third-party administrator provides administrative services including claims processing and record keeping. The Trust is subject to the provisions of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA).
- b. Benefits – The Trust provides health benefits (hospital, surgical, major medical, prescription, vision, and dental) to cover employees of the Company and its subsidiaries.
- c. Stop Loss Coverage and Benefit Obligations – The Trust has contracted with an insurance company for stop-loss health insurance coverage in amounts determined to be adequate by the Company. The Trust maintained a stop-loss coverage limit of $375,000 for the years ended December 31, 2024 and 2023. The Company also has an aggregate-claims deductible of $82,000 for each of the years ended December 31, 2024 and 2023, which is applied to all paid claims combined. Benefit claims of approximately $0 were reimbursed by the stop-loss policy during the years ended December 31, 2024 and 2023, respectively.
- d. Contributions – The amount of contributions to be made are based on an evaluation by the Company of the expenses of the Trust. The Company makes a determination as to the amount to be contributed by the Company and the amount to be contributed (if any) by each covered participant. Benefit rates for employee only were approximately $119 per pay period and approximately $350 per pay period for family health. An employee may contribute specified amounts, determined annually by the Company, to extend coverage to eligible dependents of the employee.

- e. Other matters – The Trust is qualified pursuant to Section 501(c) (9) of the Internal Revenue Code, and, accordingly, the Trust’s net investment income is exempt from income taxes. On July 25, 1988, the Company obtained a favorable tax determination letter from the Internal Revenue Service and the Company believes that the Trust, as amended, continues to qualify and to operate as designed.

In accordance with the cash basis of accounting, Trust management is required to evaluate tax positions taken by the Trust and recognize a tax liability (or asset) if it has taken an uncertain position that more likely than not would not be sustained upon examination by the IRS. The Trust is subject to routine audits by taxing jurisdictions; however, there are currently no audits for any tax periods in progress.

As of December 31, 2024, the Company does not believe it has taken any tax positions that would require the recording of any additional tax liability nor does it believe there are any unrealized tax benefits that would either increase or decrease within the next twelve months. The Trust’s income tax returns are subject to examination by the appropriate regulatory authorities.

Note 3. Concentration of Credit Risk

The Trust maintains a bank account with an institution covered by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (“FDIC”) insurance. At times throughout the year, the Trust may maintain bank balances in excess of the FDIC insured limits. At December 31, 2024, the Trust had no amount in excess of FDIC insured limits held at financial institutions.

Note 4. Trust Benefit Obligations

At December 31, 2024 and 2023, total Trust benefit obligations were approximately $926,000 and $396,000, respectively, which have not been accrued for in these financial statements.

Changes in the Trust benefit obligations for the years ended December 31, 2024 and 2023 are as follows:

	2024	2023
Benefit obligations at beginning of the year	$ 396,321	$ 1,032,700
Claims incurred during the year, including incurred but not reported	15,428,518	12,227,698
Claims paid during the year	(14,898,458)	(12,864,077)
Benefit obligations at the end of the year	$ 926,381	$ 396,321

These expenses are reported on the statements of changes in net assets available for benefits as administrative expenses. All other administrative expenses, such as professional fees, are paid by the Company.

Note 6. Trust Termination

Although it has not expressed any intent to do so, the Company has the right to terminate the Trust. Upon termination, any assets remaining in the Trust shall be subject to the applicable provisions of the Trust and shall be used to provide benefits until the Trust is exhausted.

Note 7. Commitments and Contingencies

In the ordinary course of activities, the Trust may, from time to time, become a party to legal claims and disputes. At December 31, 2024, the Trust's management is not aware of any pending or threatened litigation, or unasserted claims that could result in losses, if any, that would be material to the financial statements.

Note 8. Subsequent Events

The Trust has evaluated events and transactions occurring subsequent to the statement of net assets available for benefits date of December 31, 2024 for items that should potentially be recognized or disclosed in these financial statements.
