INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Board of Trustees
Reilly Construction Employee Welfare Trust
Ossian, Iowa

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of Reilly Construction Employee Welfare Trust, an employee benefit plan subject to the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA), which comprise the statements of net assets available for benefits (cash basis) as of December 31, 2024 and 2023, and the related statements of changes in net assets available for benefits (cash basis) for the years ended December 31, 2024 and 2023, and the related notes to the financial statements.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the net assets available for benefits (cash basis) of Reilly Construction Employee Welfare Trust as of December 31, 2024 and 2023, and the changes in its net assets available for benefits (cash basis) for the years ended December 31, 2024 and 2023, in accordance with the cash basis of accounting described in Note 2.a.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with U.S. generally accepted auditing standards. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of Reilly Construction Employee Welfare Trust and to meet our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audits. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Basis of Accounting

We draw attention to Note 2.a of the financial statements, which describes the basis of accounting. The financial statements are prepared on the cash basis of accounting, which is a basis of accounting other than U.S. generally accepted accounting principles. Our opinion is not modified with respect to this matter.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with the cash basis of accounting described in Note 2.a; this includes determining that the cash basis of accounting is an acceptable basis for the preparation of the financial statements in the circumstances. Management is also responsible for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Management is also responsible for maintaining a current plan instrument, including all plan amendments, administering the plan, and determining that the plan's transactions that are presented and disclosed in the financial statements are in conformity with the plan's provisions, including maintaining sufficient records with respect to each of the participants, to determine the benefits due or which may become due to such participants.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of Reilly Construction Employee Welfare Trust's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about Reilly Construction Employee Welfare Trust's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control-related matters that we identified during the audit.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

1. Description of Plan

The following description of the Reilly Construction Employee Welfare Trust (the plan) provides only general information. Participants should refer to the plan agreement for a more complete description of the plan's provisions.

a. General

The plan provides health, dental, vision and other benefits covering substantially all active employees of Reilly Construction Company, Inc. (the sponsor). The plan was established in 1989 under Section 501 of the Internal Revenue Code. It is subject to the provisions of the Employee Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA).

Late in 2022, the sponsor purchased the assets of Halbrook Excavating. The employees of Halbrook Excavating became employees of the plan sponsor and eligible for benefits under the plan effective January 1, 2023.

The plan also provides dental, vision and other benefits covering electing employees of SCI, LLC.

b. Benefits

The plan provides health benefits (medical, dental and vision), life and long-term disability benefits to full-time employees (over twenty hours per week), with 30 days of service, and to their beneficiaries and covered dependents of Reilly Construction Company, Inc.

Employees of SCI, LLC are offered the same benefits under the plan, except medical benefits, with the same service requirements. SCI, LLC employees are offered medical benefits under a separate group health insurance plan purchased on the open market.

The plan also provides health benefits to participants during periods of unemployment, provided they have accumulated in the current year or in prior year credit amounts (expressed in hours) in excess of the hours required for current coverage.

Medical claims for active participants and their beneficiaries and covered dependents incurred were processed by Wellmark, Inc. Cottingham & Butler is an agent for the plan and coordinates reimbursements under stop-loss insurance coverage. Dental, vision and life claims incurred of active participants and their beneficiaries and covered dependents were processed by SisCo. The responsibility for payments to participants and providers is retained by the plan.

c. Contributions

Both the sponsor and participating employees contribute to the cost of the plan. Employee contribution is based on the coverage selected by each employee.

See Independent Auditor's Report.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

2. Summary of Accounting Policies

a. Basis of Accounting

The plan maintains its financial records on the basis of cash receipts and disbursements and the financial statements of the plan are prepared on that basis. The cash basis of accounting does not give effect to accounts receivable, accounts payable and accrued items. Accordingly, the financial statements do not present financial position and results of operations of the plan in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles.

b. Payments of Benefits

Benefits are recorded when paid.

c. Stop-Loss

Premiums for stop-loss insurance are included in deductions from net assets attributed to insurance in the accompanying statements of changes in net assets available for benefits (cash basis).

d. Subsequent Events

The plan evaluated subsequent events through September 25, 2025, the date on which the financial statements were available to be issued.

3. Benefit Obligations

Medical related health costs incurred by participants and their beneficiaries and dependents are covered by the plan and an insurance contract maintained by the plan. The plan covered 100% of medical costs up to $60,000 per employee, for each of the years ended December 31, 2024 and 2023, after an employee meets deductible limits set by the plan.

The stop-loss insurance contract purchased by the plan limits the plan's exposure to self-insured benefits by covering 100% of medical expenses incurred over $60,000 per employee, for each of the years ended December 31, 2024 and 2023. For the years ended December 31, 2024 and 2023, $338,137 and $777,725, respectively, was received under stop-loss insurance contracts. These totals are included in amounts reported for reinsurance and refunds in the accompanying financial statements. It is the present intention of the sponsor and the plan to continue obtaining insurance coverage for benefits. All dental and vision health costs are paid by the plan according to plan terms after an employee meets deductible limits set by the plan. There is no stop-loss insurance coverage purchased by the plan for medical expenses related to dental and vision.

The plan has participants who have incurred but not reported (IBNR) benefit claims as of the end of each year. Claims incurred on or before December 31, 2024, and paid out from January 1, 2025 through July 31, 2025 totaled $82,711. Claims incurred on or before December 31, 2023, and paid out from January 1, 2024 through June 30, 2024 totaled $108,567.

The plan does not offer postretirement benefits.

4. Plan Termination

Although it has not expressed any intent to do so, the sponsor has the right under the plan to modify the benefits provided to plan participants, to discontinue its contributions at any time and to terminate the plan subject to the provisions of ERISA.

See Independent Auditor's Report.

5. Income Tax Status

The Voluntary Employees' Beneficiary Association (VEBA Trust) funds certain benefits of the plan has received an exemption letter from the Internal Revenue Service dated November 1990, stating that the VEBA Trust is tax-exempt under the provisions of Section 501(c)(9) of the Internal Revenue Code (IRC). However, as a result of the plan's funding policy, from time to time the VEBA Trust may be subject to income taxes.

In addition, the plan and VEBA Trust are required to operate in conformity with the IRC to maintain the tax-exempt status of the VEBA Trust. The plan administrator believes the plan is being operated in compliance with the applicable requirements of the IRC and, therefore, believes the related VEBA Trust is tax-exempt. The plan is subject to routine audits by taxing jurisdictions; however, there are currently no audits for any tax periods in progress.

6. Administrative Costs

Administrative expenses for Cottingham & Butler, SisCo, and the auditing firm are paid by Reilly Construction, Inc. Administrative expenses for Wellmark, Inc. are paid directly by the plan. Certain employees and officers of Reilly Construction, Inc., who may also be participants in the plan, perform accounting and administrative services for the plan. Reilly Construction, Inc. charges no fees to the plan.

See Independent Auditor's Report.
