Independent Auditors' Report

Board of Trustees
Culinary & Bartenders
Housing Partnership
Las Vegas, Nevada

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying financial of statements of Culinary and Bartenders Housing Partnership (a non-profit fund) , which comprise the statements of net assets available for benefits, of as of December 31, 2024 and 2023 and the related statement of changes in net assets available for benefits, for the years then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the net assets available for benefits of Culinary and Bartenders Housing Partnership as of December 31, 2024 and 2023, and the changes in its net assets available for benefits for the years then ended, in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of Culinary and Bartenders Housing Partnership and to meet our other ethical responsibilities, in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audits. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about Culinary and Bartenders Housing Partnership ability to continue as a going concern for one year after the date the financial statements are available to be issued.

Management is also responsible for maintaining a current plan instrument, including all plan amendments, administering the plan, and determining that the plan's transactions that are presented and disclosed in the financial statements are in conformity with the plan's provisions, including maintaining sufficient records with respect to each of the participants, to determine the benefits due or which may become due to such participants.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of Culinary and Bartenders Housing Partnership's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about Culinary and Bartenders Housing Partnership's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control-related matters that we identified during the audit.

CULINARY AND BARTENDERS HOUSING PARTNERSHIP

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

DECEMBER 31, 2024 AND 2023

1. Description of the Plan:

The following description of the Culinary and Bartenders Housing Partnership provides only general information. Participants should refer to the Trust Agreement for a more complete description of the provisions.

General:

The Culinary and Bartenders Housing Partnership Trust Fund (the Fund) was established July 23, 2008, pursuant to a collective bargaining agreement between the Culinary Union Local 226, the Bartenders Local No. 165, and several prominent hotels in the Las Vegas area. The Fund provides financial education and assistance for housing for employees of the employers and is subject to the provisions of ERISA, as amended.

Benefits:

All participants are eligible to attend homebuyer education classes, the purpose of which is to create informed, educated, and responsible homebuyers. All participants are also eligible to receive one-on-one homebuyer counseling, the purpose of which is to develop a plan of action to address the participant's specific obstacles to successfully achieving homeownership.

The First Time Homebuyer Down Payment Assistance provides eligible participants with a zero percent (0%) loan up to $20,000 for a down payment on a primary residence. The loan must be repaid upon sale, transfer, or refinance of the property. To be eligible, a participant must have 2,000 hours of service within a three-year period and be an employee of a participating employer that is contributing to the Fund. The loans are available on a first-come, first-serve basis.

Contributions:

Participating employers contribute $0.02 per hour worked for each employee in a classification covered by the collective bargaining agreement. Effective November 1, 2024, participating employers contribute $0.025 per hour worked for each employee in accordance with the collective bargaining agreement.

2. Significant accounting policies:

Basis of accounting:

The accompanying financial statements of Culinary and Bartenders Housing Partnership have been prepared on the accrual basis of accounting in accordance with accounting principles general accepted in the United States of America. Accordingly, the financial statements reflect all significant receivables, payables, and other liabilities.

Contributions Receivable:

Employer contributions are to be paid the month following hours worked by eligible employees. Contributions are included as additions to net assets in the year the hours are worked. Contributions due from employers at year-end are based on hours worked by eligible employees in December. As of December 31, 2024 and 2023, contributions receivable totaled $195,278 and $199,932, respectively.

Income tax:

The Fund is a Voluntary Employee Beneficiary Association and is, therefore, exempt from federal income tax under Sections 501 (c)(9) of the Internal Revenue Code. There are no known circumstances that would place the Fund's status as a tax-exempt Fund in jeopardy, and because the Fund does not engage in unrelated business income activities, no provision has been made for uncertain tax positions taken or to be taken. The Fund's tax returns are open for review by the Internal Revenue Service and/or the Department of Labor for three years from the filing date.

Use of Estimates:

Management uses estimates and assumptions in preparing these statements in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles. Those estimates and assumptions affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities, and the reported revenues and expenses. Actual results could vary from the estimates that were used.

2. Significant accounting policies, continued:

Affiliations:

The Trust is affiliated with the Culinary Workers Union, Local 226 and the Bartenders Union, Local 165.

3. Concentration of credit risks:

The Trust maintains a cash balance at one financial institution. The Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation insures up to $250,000 per depository institution. On December 31, 2024, the cash balance exceeded the limit of $250,000 by $6,596,611.

4. Program administrator:

The Fund and Nevada Partners Incorporated (“NPI”), a 501 (c)(3) corporation, entered into a Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) on January 1, 2024, with a monthly contract of $35,725. Under the MOU, the Fund contracts with NPI to conduct the day-to-day operations of the Fund’s programs. The Fund provides policy direction, support, and oversight to NPI in the development and conduct of its day-to-day accounting functions outside of those conducted by the administration firm, maintains accurate financial records according to GAAP, and arranges for the conduct of an annual independent audit. For the years ended December 2024 and 2023, the Fund paid NPI $428,700 and $487,377, respectively.

5. Concentration of income sources:

The Trust received 100% of its total contributions from employers’ remittances.

6. Plan termination:

Although they have not expressed any intent to do so, the Plan trustees reserve the right to amend, modify, or terminate the Plan, in whole or in part, at any time subject to the provisions of ERISA. If the Plan is terminated, the Plan trustees will determine the timing and nature of the disposition of assets.
