On or about November 15, 2017, the plan sponsor/employer Hawaii Island Air, Inc. became bankrupt, Elizabeth Kane was appointed Bankruptcy Trustee by the Bankruptcy Court in Honolulu, Hawaii and all employees were terminated. The former employees responsible for the Plan refused to cooperate with Ms. Kane and it has been a difficult process to obtain all necessary information and further administer the plan.

Upon inquiry, the certified public accounting firm which did the opinion letter for 2016, CW Associates, declined to do a plan audit for 2017 and subsequent years. Upon further inquiry, the preceding certified public accounting firm which did the opinion letter for 2015 and preceding, Accuity LLP, expressed hesitancy on taking on the assignment and did not accept the assignment. The problem expressed by Accuity LLP is that it would normally require a representation from management regarding the Plan starting from 2017 and the only management that could do so for 2017 would be the former management of Hawaii Island Air, Inc. It would be problematic to obtain their cooperation because Ms. Kane is involved in adversarial litigation with almost all the former management of Hawaii Island Air, Inc. regarding their mismanagement that resulted in the financial setback(s) that resulted in the bankruptcy.

If the foregoing is not sufficiently difficult, obtaining records for 2017 would be difficult because Hawaii Island Air, Inc. has been non-operational since 2017, and all the company's records are no longer in a business office where they are organized, accessible and easily retrievable by staff familiar with them. In fact, one of the reasons given by CW Associates for refusing to do a plan audit was a complaint that when it did the audit for 2016, obtaining information and documentation in 2017 from the staff at that time (when they were still employed) was extremely difficult and was one of the main reasons why it did not want to do it for future years.

Further inquiry with another certified public accounting firm, which does plan audits, was not fruitful, particularly in light the reluctance of past auditors and the problems noted above. Although our efforts to obtain an independent CPA to do an audit report have not been successful, we are willing to keep trying. The results so far do not bode well for optimism.
