Independent Auditor's Report

The Plan Administrator
Diversey, Inc. Retiree Medical Savings Account Plan

Scope and Nature of the ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) Audit

We have performed audits of the accompanying financial statements of Diversey, Inc. Retiree Medical Savings Account Plan, an employee benefit plan subject to the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA), as permitted by ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) [ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit]. The financial statements comprise the statements of net assets available for benefits as of December 31, 2024 and 2023, and the related statements of changes in net assets available for benefits for the years then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

Management, having determined it is permissible in the circumstances, has elected to have the audits of Diversey, Inc. Retiree Medical Savings Account Plan's financial statements performed in accordance with ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) pursuant to 29 CFR 2520.103-8 of the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA. As permitted by ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C), our audits need not extend to any statements or information related to assets held for investment of the plan (investment information) by a bank or similar institution or insurance carrier that is regulated, supervised, and subject to periodic examination by a state or federal agency, provided that the statements or information regarding assets so held are prepared and certified to by the bank or similar institution or insurance carrier in accordance with 29 CFR 2520.103-5 of the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA (qualified institution).

Management has obtained certifications from a qualified institution as of December 31, 2024 and 2023, and for the years then ended, stating that the certified investment information, as described in Note 3 to the financial statements, is complete and accurate.

Opinion

In our opinion, based on our audits and on the procedures performed as described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section—

- the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements referred to above, other than those agreed to or derived from the certified investment information, are presented fairly, in all material respects, in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

- the information in the financial statements referred to above related to assets held by and certified to by a qualified institution agrees to, or is derived from, in all material respects, the information prepared and certified by an institution that management determined meets the requirements of ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C).

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of Diversey, Inc. Retiree Medical Savings Account Plan and to meet our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audits. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error. Management's election of the ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit does not affect management's responsibility for the financial statements.

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about Diversey, Inc. Retiree Medical Savings Account Plan's ability to continue as a going concern for one year after the date the financial statements are available to be issued.

Management is also responsible for maintaining a current plan instrument, including all plan amendments; administering the plan; and determining that the plan's transactions that are presented and disclosed in the financial statements are in conformity with the plan's provisions, including maintaining sufficient records with respect to each of the participants, to determine the benefits due or which may become due to such participants.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Except as described in the Scope and Nature of the ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) Audit section of our report, our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of Diversey, Inc. Retiree Medical Savings Account Plan's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about Diversey, Inc. Retiree Medical Savings Account Plan's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

Our audits did not extend to the certified investment information, except for obtaining and reading the certification, comparing the certified investment information with the related information presented and disclosed in the financial statements, and reading the disclosures relating to the certified investment information to assess whether they are in accordance with the presentation and disclosure requirements of accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Accordingly, the objective of an ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit is not to express an opinion about whether the financial statements as a whole are presented fairly, in all material respects, in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control-related matters that we identified during the audit.

Supplemental Schedules Required by ERISA

The supplemental schedules of Assets (Held at End of Year) as of December 31, 2024 and Schedule of Reportable Transactions for the year ended December 31, 2024 are presented for purposes of additional analysis and are not a required part of the financial statements but are supplementary information required by the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA. Such information is the responsibility of management and was derived from and relates directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements. The information included in the supplemental schedules, other than that agreed to or derived from the certified investment information, has been subjected to auditing procedures applied in the audits of the financial statements and certain additional procedures, including comparing and reconciling such information directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements or to the financial statements themselves, and other additional procedures in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards. For information included in the supplemental schedules that agreed to or is derived from the certified investment information, we compared such information to the related certified investment information.

In forming our opinion on the supplemental schedules, we evaluated whether the supplemental schedules, other than the information agreed to or derived from the certified investment information, including their form and content, are presented in conformity with the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA.

In our opinion—

- the form and content of the supplemental schedules, other than the information in the supplemental schedules that agreed to or is derived from the certified investment information, are presented, in all material respects, in conformity with the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA.
- the information in the supplemental schedules related to assets held by and certified to by a qualified institution agrees to, or is derived from, in all material respects, the information prepared and certified by an institution that management determined meets the requirements of ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C).

Notes to Financial Statements

December 31, 2024 and 2023

1. Description of the Plan

The following description of the Diversey, Inc. Retiree Medical Savings Account Plan (the Plan) provides only general information. Participants should refer to the Summary Plan Description for more complete information.

General

The Plan was established by Diversey, Inc. (the Company, formerly JohnsonDiversey, Inc.) effective as of January 1, 2000. When established, certain funds were transferred to the Plan from the S.C. Johnson & Son, Inc. (SCJ) Retiree Medical Savings Account Trust and allocated as an initial balance for the benefit of employees who were participating in the S.C. Johnson & Son, Inc. Retiree Medical Savings Account Plan.

On January 1, 2004, the Plan was amended to include former employees of DiverseyLever, Inc., The Butcher Company, and Prism Sanitation Management, LLC, who are paid on a United States payroll. The Plan was most recently amended and restated on January 1, 2016.

On October 3, 2011, the Company was acquired by Sealed Air Corporation. On March 27, 2017, Sealed Air Corporation announced the sale of the Diversey Care division and the food hygiene and cleaning division within its Food Care division (together, called “New Diversey”) to Bain Capital Private Equity, a leading global private investment firm. The sale closed on September 5, 2017, and the Plan has been retained by Sealed Air Corporation.

The Plan is a defined-contribution health and welfare plan that is subject to the provisions of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended (ERISA).

Participant Accounts

The participant accounts consist of employee contributions to the Plan, made on a pretax basis prior to January 1, 2012, as well as a hypothetical calculation of the employer contributions. Employer contributions consisted of employer matching contributions and transition credits, based on the terms in place in past years and dependent on the location to which the participant was employed. The participant accounts are maintained to include the hypothetical balances assigned to the participant, with an annual earnings credit, as well as the actual investment assets attributable to the employee portion of the account. The employer’s matching and transition contribution credits are funded, and recorded as contribution revenue in the financial statements of the Plan, only when related benefits are paid from the participant’s account.

Contributions

Effective January 1, 2012, employee contributions to the Plan were no longer permitted and employer matching contribution credits were no longer allocated. Prior to January 1, 2012, employees were permitted to contribute on an after-tax basis up to $5,000 annually to the Plan, and the Company partially matched the amounts that employees contributed, based on certain limitations.

Prior to the spinoff of the Company, a transition contribution was calculated by SCJ for all active employees as of December 31, 1996. Each employee was credited with $1,000 for each year of service prorated on a monthly basis. The transitional balances relating to employees of the Company were transferred to the Plan on November 5, 1999, when the assets of the combined plan were separated. A one-time transition credit was granted for certain employees of Johnson Wax Professional and Johnson Polymer, LLC (Polymer) who were hired prior to September 1, 2003, were actively employed on January 1, 2004, and had been credited with age and service that is less than 60, or had not attained age 50, and had completed less than 5 years of service as of January 1, 2004. Employees who were hired by Johnson Wax Professional or Polymer, after May 3, 2002, and employees of the Company who became eligible to participate in the Plan on or after January 1, 2004, were eligible for phased-in matching contributions for the 2004 through 2006 Plan years.

Benefits

Upon retirement, participants can use their plan account balance to pay for qualifying health care premiums or other qualifying health care expenses.

If a participant terminates employment prior to the date the participant is eligible for retirement, the participant forfeits his or her entire company account, which is comprised of matching credits, transition credits, and interest credits attributable to matching and transition credits. Participants may apply to the plan administrator for reimbursement from his or her employee account, including earnings on the employee account, for qualifying health care premiums and/or qualifying health care expenses.

If a participant dies after qualifying for retirement, or if a participant dies after completing ten years of service, but prior to retirement, the participant's beneficiaries may apply for benefits from the participant's employee account and company account, subject to certain limitations. If a participant dies before completing at least ten years of service, the participant's beneficiaries may apply for benefits from the participant's employee account, subject to certain limitations.

1. Description of the Plan (continued)

Vesting

Participants are entitled to the portion of their account balance related to their contributions plus actual earnings thereon, regardless of their length of service.

Effective January 1, 2014, retirement age was changed from attaining age 50 and completing 10 years of service, to attaining age 55 and completing 10 years of service.

The portion of a participant's account attributable to the Company's matching and transition contribution credits, plus calculated earnings thereon, is forfeited if the employee terminates before the retirement provisions of the Plan. For certain Polymer employees, forfeitures of Company's matching and transition contributions and earnings thereon is calculated on a graduated schedule taking into account their age as of June 30, 2006.

Plan Termination

Although it has not expressed any intent to do so, the Company has the right under the Plan to discontinue its contributions at any time and to terminate the Plan subject to the provisions of ERISA and Plan provisions. In the event of termination, participants would remain 100% vested in the portion of their account attributable to employee contributions.

Plan Expenses

Certain expenses incurred in the administration of the Plan are paid by the Company. Certain account maintenance and administrative fees and expenses are paid by the Plan.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of Accounting

The accompanying financial statements are prepared on the accrual basis of accounting.

Benefit Payments

Benefits are recorded when paid.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies (continued)

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the financial statements, accompanying notes and supplemental schedules. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Valuation of Investments

Investments are reported at fair value. Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. See Note 4 for discussion of fair value measurements.

Purchases and sales of securities are recorded on the trade-date basis. Interest income is recorded on the accrual basis. Dividends are recorded on the ex-dividend date.

Risks and Uncertainties

The Plan invests in various investment securities. Investment securities are exposed to various risks such as interest rate, market, and credit risks. Due to the level of risk associated with certain investment securities, it is at least reasonably possible that changes in the values of investment securities will occur in the near term and that such changes could materially affect participants' account balances and the amounts reported in the statements of net assets available for benefits.

The actuarial present value of benefit obligations is reported based on certain assumptions pertaining to interest rates, mortality rates, and employee demographics, all of which are subject to change. Due to uncertainties inherent in the estimation and assumption processes, it is at least reasonably possible that changes in these estimates and assumptions in the near term could materially affect the amounts reported and disclosed in the financial statements.

3. Investment Information Certified by the Custodian

All investment information disclosed in the accompanying financial statements and supplemental schedules, including investments held at December 31, 2024 and 2023, and net appreciation in fair value of investments, dividends, and interest from investments for the years then ended, were obtained or derived from information supplied to the plan administrator, and certified as complete and accurate, by the custodian, Empower Trust Company, LLC.

4. Fair Value Measurements

The Plan follows accounting standards which establish a framework for measuring fair value. That framework provides a fair value hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value. The hierarchy gives the highest priority to unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (level 1 measurement) and the lowest priority to unobservable inputs (level 3 measurements). The three levels of the fair value hierarchy under accounting standards are described as follows:

Level 1 – Inputs to the valuation methodology are unadjusted quoted market prices for identical assets or liabilities in active markets that the plan has the ability to access.

Level 2 – Inputs to the valuation methodology include:

- Quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities in active markets;
- Quoted prices for identical or similar assets or liabilities in inactive markets;
- Inputs other than quoted prices that are observable for the asset or liability;
- Inputs that are derived principally from or corroborated by observable market data by correlation or other means.

Level 3 – Inputs to the valuation methodology are unobservable and significant to the fair value measurement.

The level in the fair value hierarchy within which the fair value measurement is classified is determined based on the lowest level of input that is significant to the fair value measurement in its entirety.

Mutual funds are valued at quoted market prices, which represent the net asset value of shares held by the Plan at year-end.

There have been no changes in the techniques and inputs used to measure fair values at December 31, 2024.

4. Fair Value Measurements (continued)

The following tables set forth by level, within the fair value hierarchy, the Plan's assets carried at fair value:

	December 31, 2024
	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Total
Mutual funds	$ 12,869,096	$ -	$ -	$ 12,869,096
	December 31, 2023
	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Total
Mutual funds	$ 12,151,962	$ -	$ -	$ 12,151,962

5. Plan Benefit Obligations

The amount reported as the postretirement benefit obligation represents the present value of those estimated future benefits that are attributed by the terms of the Plan to employees' service rendered to the Company at the date of the financial statements, adjusted for the time value of money (through discounts for interest) and the probability of payment (by means of decrements such as those for death, disability, or withdrawal) between the valuation date and the expected date of payment. Postretirement benefits include future benefits expected to be paid to or for: (1) currently retired employees and their dependents, and (2) active employees and their dependents after retirement from service to the Company.

The actuarial present value of postretirement benefit obligation is as follows:

	December 31,
	2024	2023
Participants currently receiving benefits	$ 15,338,417	$ 15,504,948
Other participants	19,916	187,899
Plan benefit obligation	$ 15,358,333	$ 15,692,847

5. Plan Benefit Obligations (continued)

The changes in plan benefit obligations for the year ended December 31, 2024, are as follows:

	Year Ended December 31, 2024
Actuarial present value of plan benefit obligations at December 31, 2023	$ 15,692,847
Changes attributable to:
Employer service cost	850
Interest	684,282
Actuarial losses	425,423
Benefits paid, net	(1,410,674)
Assumption changes	(34,395)
Net decrease	(334,514)
Actuarial present value of plan benefit obligations at December 31, 2024	$ 15,358,333

Significant assumptions used in the actuarial valuation are as follows:

- Discount rate of 5.16% (prior year was 5.02%).
- Mortality was based on the Pri-2012 base mortality tables with MP-2021 generational projection (unchanged from prior year).

The foregoing assumptions are based on the presumption that the Plan will continue. Were the Plan to terminate, different actuarial assumptions and other factors might be applicable. The Plan's deficiency of net assets over benefit obligations at December 31, 2024 and 2023 is expected to be funded by the Company on a pay-as-you-go basis. The computation of the actuarial present value of accumulated plan benefits were made as of January 1, 2025. Had the valuation been performed as of December 31, 2024, there would be no material differences.

6. Income Tax Status

The trust funding the Plan has received an exemption letter from the Internal Revenue Service, dated May 15, 2014, stating that the trust is tax-exempt under the provisions of Section 501(c)(9) of the Internal Revenue Code (the Code) as a Voluntary Employees Beneficiary Association (VEBA). The Plan and trust are required to operate in conformity with the Code to maintain the tax-exempt status of the trust. The Plan administrator believes the plan is being operated in compliance with the applicable requirements of the Code and, therefore, believes the related trust is tax exempt.

Accounting principles generally accepted in the United States require plan management to evaluate uncertain tax positions taken by the Plan. The financial statement effects of a tax position are recognized when the position is more likely than not, based on the technical merits, to be sustained upon examination by the Internal Revenue Service. The plan administrator has analyzed the tax positions taken by the Plan, and has concluded that as of December 31, 2024, there are no uncertain positions taken or expected to be taken. The Plan has recognized no interest or penalties related to uncertain tax positions. The Plan is subject to routine audits by taxing jurisdictions; however, there are currently no audits for any tax periods in progress.

7. Administration of Plan Assets

The Plan's assets are held by the custodian of the Plan, which invests cash received, interest, and dividend income and makes distributions to participants. Certain administrative functions are performed by officers or employees of the Company or its subsidiaries. No such officer or employee receives compensation from the Plan.

8. Related Party Transactions

As noted in Notes 1 and 7, the Plan has a number of service providers. Such parties are parties-in-interest under ERISA.

9. Subsequent Events
