INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Administrator of GapShare 401(k) Plan:

Scope and Nature of the ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) Audit

We have performed audits of the financial statements of GapShare 401(k) Plan (the "Plan"), an employee benefit plan subject to the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA), as permitted by ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) (ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit). The financial statements comprise the statements of net assets available for benefits as of December 31, 2024 and 2023, and the related statement of changes in net assets available for benefits for the year ended December 31, 2024, and the related notes to the financial statements.

Management, having determined it is permissible in the circumstances, has elected to have the audits of the Plan's financial statements performed in accordance with ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) pursuant to 29 CFR 2520.103-8 of the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA. As permitted by ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C), our audits need not extend to any statements or information related to assets held for investment of the Plan (investment information) by a bank or similar institution or insurance carrier that is regulated, supervised, and subject to periodic examination by a state or federal agency, provided that the statements or information regarding assets so held are prepared and certified to by the bank or similar institution or insurance carrier in accordance with 29 CFR 2520.103-5 of the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA (qualified institution).

Management has obtained certifications from a qualified institution as of December 31, 2024 and 2023, and for the year ended December 31, 2024, stating that the certified investment information, as described in Note 3 to the financial statements, is complete and accurate.

Opinion

In our opinion, based on our audits and on the procedures performed as described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section

- The amounts and disclosures in the accompanying financial statements, other than those agreed to or derived from the certified investment information, are presented fairly, in all material respects, in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.
- The information in the accompanying financial statements related to assets held by and certified to by a qualified institution agrees to, or is derived from, in all material respects, the information prepared and certified by an institution that management determined meets the requirements of ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C).

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAS). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's

Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of the Plan and to meet our other ethical responsibilities, in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audits. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error. Management's election of the ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit does not affect management's responsibility for the financial statements.

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Plan's ability to continue as a going concern for one year after the date that the financial statements are available to be issued.

Management is also responsible for maintaining a current plan instrument, including all plan amendments, administering the Plan, and determining that the Plan's transactions that are presented and disclosed in the financial statements are in conformity with the Plan's provisions, including maintaining sufficient records with respect to each of the participants, to determine the benefits due or which may become due to such participants.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Except as described in the Scope and Nature of the ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) Audit section of our report, our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with GAAS will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with GAAS, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Plan's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.

- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Plan's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

Our audits did not extend to the certified investment information, except for obtaining and reading the certification, comparing the certified investment information with the related information presented and disclosed in the financial statements, and reading the disclosures relating to the certified investment information to assess whether they are in accordance with the presentation and disclosure requirements of accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Accordingly, the objective of an ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit is not to express an opinion about whether the financial statements as a whole are presented fairly, in all material respects, in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control-related matters that we identified during the audit.

Other Matter — Supplemental Schedule Required by ERISA

The supplemental schedule of assets (held at end of year) as of December 31, 2024 is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the financial statements but is supplementary information required by the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA. Such information is the responsibility of management and was derived from and relates directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements. The information included in the supplemental schedule, other than that agreed to or derived from the certified investment information, has been subjected to auditing procedures applied in the audit of the financial statements and certain additional procedures, including comparing and reconciling such information directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements or to the financial statements themselves, and other additional procedures in accordance with GAAS. For information included in the supplemental schedule that agreed to or is derived from the certified investment information, we compared such information to the related certified investment information.

In forming our opinion on the supplemental schedule, we evaluated whether the supplemental schedule, other than the information agreed to or derived from the certified investment information, including its form and content, is presented in conformity with the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA.

In our opinion:

- The form and content of the supplemental schedule, other than the information in the supplemental schedule that agreed to or is derived from the certified investment information, are presented, in all material respects, in conformity with the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA.

- The information in the supplemental schedule related to assets held by and certified to by a qualified institution agrees to, or is derived from, in all material respects, the information prepared and certified by an institution that management determined meets the requirements of ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C).

GAPSHARE 401(k) PLAN

1. DESCRIPTION OF PLAN

General—The GapShare 401(k) Plan (the “Plan”) is a defined contribution plan, which was established to provide a source of retirement savings to participants and to enable participants to defer a portion of their eligible compensation. The following brief description of the Plan is provided for general information purposes only. Participants should refer to the Summary Plan Description and official plan documents for more complete information. The Plan is subject to the provisions of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (“ERISA”).

The Plan is intended to qualify as a profit-sharing plan under Section 401(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and supplements (collectively referred to herein as the “Code”), with a qualified cash or deferred arrangement under Section 401(k) of the Code.

All employees of Gap Inc. (the “Company” or “Plan Sponsor,”) and its subsidiaries, who have attained the age of 18 are immediately eligible to participate in the Plan.

Contributions—The minimum level of participant contributions is 1% of base salary. Total pretax and Roth contributions may not exceed a maximum of 30% of total eligible compensation. Total after-tax contributions may not exceed a maximum of 21% of total eligible compensation. Total pretax, Roth, and after-tax contributions cannot exceed 51% of total eligible compensation. The maximum allowable pretax and Roth 401(k) contributions qualifying for deferral for individual income tax purposes was $23,000 for the year ended December 31, 2024. The maximum compensation allowable for Plan allocation purposes was $345,000 for the year ended December 31, 2024.

Participants attaining age 50 before the close of the calendar year and eligible to make tax-deferred contributions were allowed to make catch-up contributions not exceeding $7,500 for the year ended December 31, 2024.

If a participant contributes between 1% and 9% on a pretax basis, Gap Inc. will automatically increase the deferral percentage by 1% of eligible pay each year on the anniversary of the participant’s hire date. The percentage increase will continue until the participant reaches a deferral percentage of 10%. Participants can change or stop their deferral election at any time and can opt out of the automatic increase provisions of the Plan.

Company contributions are made according to a matching formula established prior to the beginning of each plan year. For 2024 and 2023, the formula provided for a 100% matching contribution up to 4% of base pay per pay period of participant contributions on a pretax or after-tax basis. A participant’s aggregate annual contribution, which includes participant and Company contributions, could not exceed $69,000 for the year ended December 31, 2024. Participants may also contribute amounts representing distributions from other qualified defined contribution plans.

All full-time employees participating in the Plan are immediately eligible to receive the Company matching contributions. All other active employees participating in the Plan who have attained the age of 18 are eligible to receive the Company matching contributions upon being credited with at least 1,000 hours of service to the Company during the 12-consecutive-month period beginning on the employee’s date of hire by the Company or during any calendar year beginning after the employee’s date of hire.

Investments of participant and Company contributions are allocated to the funds as elected by the participant. Allocations of each fund’s earnings or losses are based on participant account balances in those funds. Participants may transfer accumulated account balances between funds at any time.

Participant Accounts—Individual accounts are maintained for each participant of the Plan. Each participant’s account is credited with the participant’s contribution and respective matching, nonelective contributions, and Plan earnings. Participant accounts are also charged with withdrawals and an allocation of Plan losses and administrative expenses that are paid by the Plan. Allocations are based on participant earnings or account balances. Participants are entitled to any vested amounts in their account.

Trustee and Recordkeeper—T. Rowe Price Trust Company (the “Trustee”) serves as trustee and T. Rowe Price Retirement Plan Services, Inc. (the “Recordkeeper”) serves as the recordkeeper. The Plan Sponsor has authorized the Recordkeeper to receive an annual administrative fee that covers the cost of recordkeeping, custody, and legal and audit services.

Investment Options—As of December 31, 2024 and 2023, the Plan’s assets were invested in a number of mutual funds and collective trust funds.

Vesting—All active employees are 100 % vested in all employer contributions, participant contributions, and earnings thereon.

Notes Receivable from Participants—For a fee of $50, participants may apply to receive a loan—up to the lesser of 50% of their vested account balance or $50,000, minus the highest balance of any other loan outstanding in the preceding 12 months. As of January 1, 2019, participants are allowed to maintain one general purpose loan and one principal residence loan. The minimum amount participants may borrow is $1,000. Loans are repaid through payroll deductions for up to a period of five years, unless the loan is for the purchase or construction of a principal residence, in which case terms range from one to fifteen years. If an unpaid loan balance exists at the time a participant leaves the Company and withdraws from the Plan, it must be repaid by the participant or deducted from the participant’s total distribution. The fixed interest rate charged is 1% over the prime rate (as published in The Wall Street Journal) on the last business day of the month proceeding the month in which the loan is requested. As of December 31, 2024, loans had interest rates ranging from 4.25% to 10%, including loans maturing through 2039.

Notes receivable from participants are measured at their unpaid principal balance plus any accrued but unpaid interest. Delinquent participant loans are recorded as distributions based on the terms of the plan document.

GAPSHARE 401(k) PLAN

Automatic Enrollment—The Plan provides for automatic enrollment. Upon completion of the eligibility requirements, individuals are notified of their eligibility and opportunity to enroll in the Plan and to make contribution and investment elections. If an individual becomes eligible to participate in the Plan before the second anniversary of his/her hire date and does not enroll, he/she will be automatically enrolled in the Plan by Gap Inc. on the second anniversary of his/her hire date. If an individual becomes eligible to participate in the Plan after the second anniversary of his/her hire date and does not enroll, he/she will be automatically enrolled in the Plan by Gap Inc. on the next anniversary of his/her hire date. The default percentage for automatic enrollment will be 1% of eligible pay and will be allocated to a Plan's qualified default investment alternative, an age-based Price Retirement Trust. Participants can elect to change or stop contributions to the Plan at any time following enrollment.

Payment of Benefits—Upon termination of employment, a participant may elect to have distribution of the balance in their account either in a lump sum payment or, if greater than $5,000, deferred until the participant is the age of 73. Deferred account balances may be invested in any of the funds, subject to normal Plan restrictions.

Participants are also eligible to make hardship withdrawals, governed by IRS rules, from their deferred contributions in the event of certain financial hardships.

Excess Contributions Payable—The Plan is required to return contributions received during the plan year that are in excess of limits as established by the Code. There were no excess contributions due to participants as of December 31, 2024 and 2023.

Administrative Expenses—Each participant account under the Plan is charged an annual plan administrative fee that covers the cost of recordkeeping, custody, legal and audit services. Fees will change from year to year to reflect actual changes in plan administrative costs. For the year-ended December 31, 2024, the plan administrative fee was $23 annually ($5.75 quarterly). The plan administrative fee is deducted from the participant's account balance on a pro rata basis over the calendar year on the last business day of each quarter and prorated across all investment options held in the account.

Forfeited Accounts—The plan document permits the use of forfeitures to either reduce future employer contributions or pay plan administrative expenses for the plan year. However, if a participant is reemployed and fulfills certain requirements, as defined in the plan document, the account will be reinstated. At December 31, 2024 and 2023, forfeited nonvested accounts totaled $21,053 and $20,232, respectively. During 2024, employer contributions were reduced by $57,200 from forfeited nonvested accounts.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of Accounting—The accompanying financial statements have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("US GAAP").

Administrative Expenses— Administrative expenses of the Plan are paid by the Plan or the Plan sponsor, as provided in the Plan document. Participants pay administrative costs for general administrative services and individuals service fees for loans, distributions and qualified domestic relation orders.

All investment management and transaction fees directly related to the Plan investments are paid by the Plan. Management fees and operating expenses charged to the Plan for investments are deducted from income earned on a daily basis and are not separately reflected. Consequently, investment management fees and operating expenses are reflected as a reduction of investment return for such investments.

Use of Estimates—The preparation of financial statements in conformity with US GAAP requires Company management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of net assets available for benefits and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of additions to and deductions from net assets available for benefits during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Risks and Uncertainties—The Plan utilizes mutual funds and collective trust funds. These investments, in general, are exposed to various risks, such as interest rate, credit, and overall market volatility. Market risks include global events which could impact the value of investment securities, such as a pandemic or international conflict. Due to the level of risk associated with certain investment securities, it is reasonably possible that changes in the values of investment securities will occur in the near term, and such changes could materially affect the amounts reported in the financial statements.

Investment Valuation and Income Recognition—The Plan's investments are stated at fair value, which represents the price that would be received from selling an asset or paid after transferring a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. See Note 4 for discussion of fair value measurements.

The T. Rowe Price Stable Value Common Trust Fund (the "Fund") is a stable value fund comprised of guaranteed investment contracts, synthetic investment contracts, and money market funds.

Purchases and sales of mutual funds and collective trust funds are recorded on a trade-date basis. Interest income is recorded on an accrual basis. Any resulting appreciation or depreciation includes the Plan's gains and losses on investments bought and sold, as well as held during the year.

Contributions—Employee contributions and employer matching contributions are recorded when withheld.

Payment of Benefits—Benefit payments to participants are recorded upon distribution. Amounts allocated to accounts of participants who have elected to withdraw from the Plan, but have not yet been paid, were $1,295,082 and $680,445, at December 31, 2024 and 2023, respectively.

The following is a summary of the information regarding the Plan as of December 31, 2024 and 2023, and for the year ended December 31, 2024, included in the Plan's financial statements and supplemental schedule. The below information was derived from information furnished to the Company by the Trustee. The Company has obtained certifications from the Trustee that such information is complete and accurate.

Net appreciation in fair value of collective trust funds	315,928,375
Net appreciation in fair value of mutual funds	7,126,419
Dividends	2,377,251
Interest income on notes receivable from participants	2,133,707

Supplemental schedule: All investment balances and information included in the supplemental schedule of assets (held at the end of the year).

Notes 4 and 5: All investment balances and investment information, excluding the level of investments in Note 4, Fair Value Measurements and the unfunded commitment and redemption frequency, other redemption restrictions, and redemption notice period in Note 5.

4. FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENTS

The Plan classifies its investments into Level 1, which refers to securities valued using quoted prices from active markets for identical assets; Level 2, which refers to securities not traded on an active market but for which observable market inputs are readily available; and Level 3, which refers to securities valued based on significant unobservable inputs. Investments are classified in their entirety based on the lowest level of input that is significant to the fair value measurement. The following is a description of the valuation methodologies used for assets measured at fair value. There have been no changes in the methodologies used at December 31, 2024 and 2023.

Mutual Funds—Valued at the daily closing price as reported by the fund. Mutual funds held by the Plan are open-ended mutual funds that are registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission. These funds are required to publish their daily net asset value and to transact at that price. The mutual funds held by the Plan are deemed to be actively traded.

Stable Value Fund—The Fund is a Collective Trust Fund comprised of guaranteed investment contracts, synthetic investment contracts, and money market funds. The net asset value ("NAV"), as provided by the Trustee, is used as a practical expedient to estimate fair value. This NAV represents the Plan's fair value since this is the NAV at which the Plan transacts with the Fund. This practical expedient is not used when it is determined to be probable that the Fund will sell the investment for an amount different than the reported NAV.

Participant transactions (purchases and sales) may occur daily. If the Plan initiates a full redemption of the collective trust, then the issuer reserves the right to require 12-month notification to ensure that securities liquidations will be carried out in an orderly business manner.

Collective Trust Funds—Valued at the NAV of units of a bank collective trust. The NAV, as provided by the Trustee, is used as a practical expedient to estimate fair value. The NAV is based on the fair value of the underlying investments held by the fund less its liabilities. This practical expedient is not used when it is determined to be probable that the fund will sell the investment for an amount different than the reported NAV. Participant transactions (purchased and sales) may occur daily. Were the Plan to initiate a full redemption of the collective trust, the investment advisor reserves the right to temporarily delay withdrawal from the trust in order to confirm that securities liquidations will be carried out in an orderly business manner.

The following tables set forth a summary of the Plan's investments by level within the fair value hierarchy measured at fair value on a recurring basis at December 31, 2024 and 2023:

6. TAX-EXEMPT STATUS

The Plan is intended to qualify as a profit-sharing plan under Section 401(a) of the Code, with a qualified cash or deferred arrangement under Section 401(k) of the Code. The Plan has obtained a favorable tax determination letter from the Internal Revenue Service dated April 18, 2018 (reflecting amendments made to the Plan through December 12, 2016), stating that the Plan is qualified under Section 401(a) of the Code and that its net investment income is exempt from income taxes. The Plan has been amended since receiving the determination letter; however, the Company and Plan management believe that the Plan is currently designed and operated in compliance with the applicable requirements of the Code, and the Plan and related trust continue to be tax-exempt. Therefore, no provision for income taxes has been included in the Plan's financial statements.

7. PLAN TERMINATION

The Plan is intended to be permanent; however, in the event of termination of the Plan, the assets of the Plan allocable to each participant shall be segregated, liquidated, and paid proportionately to the participants until all funds have been distributed.

8. EXEMPT PARTY-IN-INTEREST TRANSACTIONS

Certain Plan investments are shares of mutual funds and units of collective trust funds managed by T. Rowe Price ("TRP"), an affiliate of the Trustee as defined by the Plan and, therefore, these transactions qualify as exempt parties-in-interest transactions. During the year ended December 31, 2024, administrative expenses were incurred by the Plan and paid to TRP. The Plan issues loans to participants, which are secured by the vested balances in the participants' accounts.

The Plan allows for transactions with certain parties who may perform services or have fiduciary responsibilities to the Plan, including Mercer Investment Consulting, Inc. ("Mercer") who is a registered investment advisor ERISA fiduciary and, therefore, Mercer's services qualify as party-in-interest transactions. During the year ended December 31, 2024, administrative expenses were incurred and paid to Mercer by the Plan.
