Independent Auditor's Report

To the Trustees of
The Groden Center, Inc. 401(k) Profit Sharing Plan

Scope and Nature of the ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) Audit

We have performed an audit of the accompanying financial statements of The Groden Center, Inc. 401(k) Profit Sharing Plan, an employee benefit plan subject to the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA), as permitted by ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) [ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit]. The financial statements comprise the statement of net assets available for benefits as of December 31, 2024 and 2023, and the related statement of changes in net assets available for benefits for the years then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

Management, having determined it is permissible in the circumstances, has elected to have the audits of The Groden Center, Inc. 401(k) Profit Sharing Plan's financial statements performed in accordance with ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) pursuant to 29 CFR 2520.103-8 of the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA. As permitted by ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C), our audits need not extend to any statements or information related to assets held for investment of the plan (investment information) by a bank or similar institution or insurance carrier that is regulated, supervised, and subject to periodic examination by a state or federal agency, provided that the statements or information regarding assets so held are prepared and certified to by the bank or similar institution or insurance carrier in accordance with 29 CFR 2520.103-5 of the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA (qualified institution).

Management has obtained certifications from a qualified institution as of December 31, 2024 and 2023, and for the years ended December 31, 2024 and 2023, stating that the certified investment information, as described in Note 3 to the financial statements, is complete and accurate.

Opinion

In our opinion, based on our audits and on the procedures performed as described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section -

- the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements referred to above, other than those agreed to or derived from the certified investment information, are presented fairly, in all material respects, in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.
- the information in the financial statements referred to above related to assets held by and certified to by a qualified institution agrees to, or is derived from, in all material respects, the information prepared and certified by an institution that management determined meets the requirements of ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C).

Mullen Scorpio Cerilli

To the Trustees of
The Groden Center, Inc. 401(k) Profit Sharing Plan

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit section of our report. We are required to be independent of The Groden Center, Inc. 401(k) Profit Sharing Plan and to meet our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audits. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error. Management's election of the ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit does not affect management's responsibility for the financial statements.

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, which raise substantial doubt about The Groden Center, Inc. 401(k) Profit Sharing Plan's ability to continue as a going concern for one year after the date the financial statements are available to be issued.

Management is also responsible for maintaining a current plan instrument, including all plan amendments; administering the plan; and determining that the plan's transactions that are presented and disclosed in the financial statements are in conformity with the plan's provisions, including maintaining sufficient records with respect to each of the participants, to determine the benefits due or which may become due to such participants.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Except as described in the Scope and Nature of the ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) Audit section of our report, our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

Mullen Scorpio Cerilli

To the Trustees of
The Groden Center, Inc. 401(k) Profit Sharing Plan

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements (continued)

In performing an audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of The Groden Center, Inc. 401(k) Profit Sharing Plan's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, which raise substantial doubt about The Groden Center, Inc. 401(k) Profit Sharing Plan's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

Our audits did not extend to the certified investment information, except for obtaining and reading the certification, comparing the certified investment information with the related information presented and disclosed in the financial statements, and reading the disclosures relating to the certified investment information to assess whether they are in accordance with the presentation and disclosure requirements of accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Accordingly, the objective of an ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit is not to express an opinion about whether the financial statements as a whole are presented fairly, in all material respects, in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control-related matters that we identified during the audit.

Mullen Scorpio Cerilli

To the Trustees of
The Groden Center, Inc. 401(k) Profit Sharing Plan

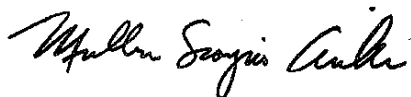

Supplemental Schedules Required by ERISA

The supplemental schedules of Schedule H, Line 4i - Schedule of Assets (Held at End of Year) as of December 31, 2024 and 2023 are presented for purposes of additional analysis and are not a required part of the financial statements but are supplementary information required by the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA. Such information is the responsibility of management and was derived from and relates directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements. The information included in the supplemental schedules, other than that agreed to or derived from the certified investment information, has been subjected to auditing procedures applied in the audit of the financial statements and certain additional procedures, including comparing and reconciling such information directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements or to the financial statements themselves, and other additional procedures in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards. For information included in the supplemental schedules that agreed to or is derived from the certified investment information, we compared such information to the related certified investment information.

In forming our opinion on the supplemental schedules, we evaluated whether the supplemental schedules, other than the information agreed to or derived from the certified investment information, including its form and content, are presented in conformity with the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA.

In our opinion -

- the form and content of the supplemental schedules, other than the information in the supplemental schedules that agreed to or is derived from the certified investment information, are presented, in all material respects, in conformity with the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA.
- the information in the supplemental schedules related to assets held by and certified to by a qualified institution agrees to, or is derived from, in all material respects, the information prepared and certified by an institution that management determined meets the requirements of ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C).

Notes to Financial Statements

December 31, 2024 and 2023

Note 1 - Description of the Plan

The following brief description of The Groden Center, Inc. 401(k) Profit Sharing Plan (the Plan) is provided for information purposes only. Participants should refer to the Plan agreement for more complete information.

General

During March 2013, the Center adopted the Plan, which is a 401(k) defined contribution retirement plan covering substantially all employees of The Groden Center, Inc., The COVE Center, Inc., Behavioral Associates of Massachusetts, Inc., Kingston Hill Academy (collectively, the Center), and, as of September 13, 2016, About Families, LLC, which became wholly owned by the Center as of that date. Although About Families, LLC ceased operations in February 2017, and Kingston Hill Academy ended its active participation in the Plan on June 30, 2016, the Plan still includes participant accounts and notes receivable related to both entities. The Center is the sponsor of the Plan. Employees become eligible for participation in the Plan after the completion of three months of eligible service, as defined in the Plan document.

Plan Contributions

The Plan is funded by both employee and employer contributions. The Center contributes a minimum of .5%, and a maximum of 2%, of a participant's compensation, subject to IRS limits, which are adjusted annually. Participants automatically contribute a minimum of 1% of their compensation upon reaching eligibility, unless they formally opt-out. They may contribute a maximum of 100% of compensation, up to annual Internal Revenue Service limits.

Participant Accounts

Each participant's account is credited with the individual participant's contributions and the Center's contributions, as well as an allocation of the Plan's earnings, and charged with an allocation of administrative expenses, when applicable. Participant loans reduce the individual participant's account balance. The benefit to which a participant is entitled is the benefit that can be provided from the participant's account.

Investment Options

The Plan allows participants to direct their accounts into several funds available through Mutual of America.

Note 1 continued on the next page.

Forfeitures

Forfeitures are returned to the Plan's sponsor and may be used to offset Plan expenses and future contributions from the Center.

Retirement Benefits

Under the terms of the Plan, participants are entitled to withdraw funds from their accounts upon retirement age, death, disability, or termination of employment with the Center.

Vesting

Participants are immediately 100% vested in their own contributions and become 100% vested in Center contributions upon completion of three years of vesting service, or upon attainment of early retirement age, death, or disability. However, balances that were included in the transfer of assets from the About Families, LLC 401(k) Plan are subject to the vesting schedule of that plan, which ranges from 25% as of two years, to 100% as of five years or upon reaching age 59 ½.

Custodian

The custodian of the plan is Mutual of America.

Note 2 - Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Method of Accounting

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared on the accrual basis of accounting.

Funding Policy

Both employee and Center contributions to the Plan are remitted on a biweekly basis and are credited directly to the participants' accounts.

Notes Receivable from Participants

The Plan includes a provision for hardship loans to participants, not to exceed 50% of the borrower's combined vested accounts. Notes receivable are carried at the amount of outstanding principal. Loans are secured by a pledge of an equal amount of the borrower's combined vested account balance. Interest is accrued no less frequently than quarterly over the term of the loan and calculated using the effective interest method. Loans are considered to be in default on the first business day following expiration of the due date for any required loan repayment installment. Losses on loans are provided for under the allowance method of accounting. The allowance is an amount management believes will be adequate for possible loan losses. The allowance for loan losses as of December 31, 2024 and 2023 was $0 since the risk was not considered material to the financial statements.

The amount of loans in default was $0 and $0 as of December 31, 2024 and 2023, respectively. Although in default, they remain assets of the Plan since they do not meet the requirements to qualify for offset and removal from the Plan. Offset requirements include termination of employment, retirement, and attainment of age 59½.

Investments

Investments are valued at quoted market prices. The custodian, in accordance with an agreement between The Groden Center, Inc. and the custodian, invests contributions at the direction of the participants.

Operating Expenses

The Center pays administrative and audit expenses of the Plan.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of additions and deductions during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Note 3 - Plan Financial Information Confirmed by Custodian

The following is a summary of the information included in the Plan's financial statements that was furnished to the Plan Administrator by Mutual of America, the custodian of the Plan:

- Listing of all investments held by custodian, and all related activity, as of and for the years ended December 31, 2024 and 2023
- Listing of notes receivable from participants, and all related activity, as of and for the years ended December 31, 2024 and 2023

Note 4 - Tax Status

The Groden Center, Inc. has adopted Mutual of America's prototype 401(k) plan. Mutual of America has received a favorable determination opinion from the Internal Revenue Service on the prototype plan.

The IRS has determined and informed the Plan sponsor by a letter dated April 8, 2008, that the Plan and related trusts are designed in accordance with applicable sections of the Internal Revenue Code (IRC). The Plan was amended in September 2016 to allow for the merger of the About Families, LLC 401(k) Plan with the Center's 401(k) Plan. Although the Plan has been amended since receiving the advisory opinion, the Plan administrator and the Plan's tax counsel believe that the Plan is designed, and is currently being operated, in compliance with the applicable requirements of the IRC and, therefore, believe that the Plan is qualified, and the related trust is tax-exempt.

The Plan evaluates its uncertain tax positions using the guidance for contingencies as contained in generally accepted accounting principles. The Plan was not aware of any uncertain tax positions that were not provided for in the accompanying financial statements.

The Plan annually files Internal Revenue Service Form 5500 - Annual Return/Report of Employee Benefit Plan, reporting various information that the IRS and Department of Labor use to monitor the activities of the Plan. These returns are subject to review by the authorities, and are also subject to examination, generally for three years after being filed. The Plan currently has no examinations in progress.

Note 6 - Fair Value Measurements

Generally accepted accounting principles has established a framework for measuring fair value and expanding disclosures about fair value measurements for assets and liabilities. That framework provides a fair value hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value. The hierarchy gives the highest priority to unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (level 1 inputs) and the lowest priority to unobservable inputs (level 3 inputs). The three levels of the fair value hierarchy according to generally accepted accounting principles are as follows:

- Level 1 - valuations based on quoted prices in active markets for identical investments. Since valuations are based on quoted prices that are readily and regularly available in an active market, valuation of these securities does not entail a significant degree of judgment.
- Level 2 - valuations based on quoted prices in markets that are not active or for which all significant inputs are observable, either directly or indirectly, and determined through the use of models or other valuation methodologies.
- Level 3 - valuations based on inputs that are unobservable and significant to the overall fair value measurement, and include situations where there is little, if any, market activity for the investment. The inputs into the determination of fair value require significant management judgment or estimation.

The following tables present the Plan's assets that are included in fair value measurements at December 31, 2024 and 2023 within the fair value hierarchy.

Note 7 - Plan Termination

Although it has not expressed any intent to do so, the Center has the right under the Plan to discontinue its contributions at any time and to terminate the Plan subject to the provisions of ERISA. Any unallocated assets of the Plan shall be allocated to participant accounts in accordance with Plan documents.

Note 8 - Transactions with Parties-In-Interest

The Plan invests in general and separate account funds sponsored by the Plan's custodian, as defined by the Plan, and therefore, these transactions qualify as party-in-interest transactions. Administrative fees related to the administration of the Plan are paid by the Plan sponsor.

Note 9 - Concentration of Credit Risk

Financial instruments, which potentially subject the Plan to concentrations of credit risk, consist of investments. However, the Plan has a diversified portfolio for its investments, which may help to mitigate such risk.

Note 10 - Forfeitures

During the years ended December 31, 2024 and 2023, forfeitures from non-vested accounts of $7,500 and $4,765 were used to reduce employer contributions of $263,084 and $235,789, respectively.
