Independent Auditor's Report

To the Board of Trustees
The Cleveland Newspaper Publishers
Newspaper and Magazine Drivers
Union Local No. 473 Recreation Fund
Valley View, Ohio

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of the Cleveland Newspaper Publishers Newspaper and Magazine Drivers Union Local No. 473 Recreation Fund (the "Plan"), an employee benefit plan subject to the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA), which comprise the statements of net assets available for benefits as of December 31, 2024 and 2023, and the related statements of changes in net assets available for benefits for the years then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the net assets available for benefits of the Plan as of December 31, 2024 and 2023, and the changes in its net assets available for benefits for the years then ended, in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of the Plan and to meet our other ethical responsibilities, in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audits. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Plan's ability to continue as a going concern for one year after the date the financial statements are available to be issued.

Management is also responsible for maintaining a current plan instrument, including all plan amendments, administering the plan, and determining that the plan's transactions that are presented and disclosed in the financial statements are in conformity with the plan's provisions, including maintaining sufficient records with respect to each of the participants, to determine the benefits due or which may become due to such participants.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Plan's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Plan's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control-related matters that we identified during the audit.

THE CLEVELAND NEWSPAPER PUBLISHERS NEWSPAPER AND MAGAZINE DRIVERS

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Note 1. Description of Plan

The following description of The Cleveland Newspaper Publishers Newspaper and Magazine Drivers Union Local No. 473 Recreation Fund (the "Plan") provides only general information. Participants should refer to the plan agreement for a more complete description of the Plan's provisions.

General:

The Plan was established effective July 15, 1977 and is operated under collective bargaining agreements between participating employers and Teamsters Local Union No. 473 (the "Union"). The Plan is a noncontributory welfare plan providing recreational benefits to eligible employees and retirees of contributing employers. The Plan is subject to the provisions of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 ("ERISA"), as amended.

Contributions:

Employers make contributions to the Plan on behalf of their employee participants at rates specified in applicable collective bargaining agreements. The number of employees is determined on a monthly basis and contributions are then based on a standard rate for each employee up to certain maximum payments.

Administration:

The Plan is administered by a Board of Trustees comprised of one member selected by participating employers and one member selected by the Union. The Board of Trustees has full authority to control and manage the operation and administration of the Plan.

Termination:

Although they have not expressed an intent to do so, the Board of Trustees has the right to terminate the Plan subject to the provisions of ERISA.

Note 2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

- A. Basis of Accounting – The financial statements of the Plan are prepared on the accrual basis.
- B. Cash – The Plan holds cash in a noninterest-bearing account with a national financial institution. The actual balance may exceed the reported balance due to outstanding checks.
- C. Post-retirement Benefits – The Plan provides benefits to eligible active and retired employees of participating employers. In the opinion of the Board of Trustees, no material obligation exists to provide post-retirement benefits. Accordingly, no provision has been made for such obligation.

D. Income Taxes – The Internal Revenue Service (the "IRS") issued a determination letter exempting the Plan from federal income taxes under Section 501(c)(9) of the Internal Revenue Code. In general, the most recent three tax years remain subject to examination by the IRS as well as various state and local taxing authorities, however there are currently no audits for any periods in progress.

The Plan's management has analyzed the tax positions taken by the Plan and has concluded that, as of December 31, 2024, there are no uncertain positions taken or expected to be taken that would require recognition of a liability (or asset) or disclosure in the financial statements.

E. Use of Estimates – The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain reported amounts and disclosures. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

F. Subsequent Events – The Plan evaluated subsequent events through September 30, 2025, the date these financial statements were available to be issued.

Note 3. Related Party / Party-in-Interest Transactions

The Plan's expenses include various amounts reimbursed to the Union and a related benefit plan for administration and occupancy expenses incurred in the normal course of the Plan's operations. Total reimbursements paid were $3,329 and $4,306 for 2024 and 2023, respectively, of which $255 and $527 was payable as of December 31, 2024 and 2023, respectively.

Note 4. Significant Contributing Employer

One employer accounted for approximately 33% and 43% of employer contributions during 2024 and 2023, respectively.
