(1) Unmodified (2) Qualified (3) Disclaimer (4) Adverse

b Check the appropriate box(es) to indicate whether the IQPA performed an ERISA section 103(a)(3)(C) audit. Check both boxes (1) and (2) if the audit was performed pursuant to both 29 CFR 2520.103-8 and 29 CFR 2520.103-12(d). Check box (3) if pursuant to neither.

(1) DOL Regulation 2520.103-8 (2) DOL Regulation 2520.103-12(d) (3) neither DOL Regulation 2520.103-8 nor DOL Regulation 2520.103-12(d).

c Enter the name and EIN of the accountant (or accounting firm) below:

(1) Name:

(2) EIN:

d The opinion of an independent qualified public accountant is not attached as part of Schedule H because:

(1) This form is filed for a CCT, PSA, DCG or MTIA. (2) It will be attached to the next Form 5500 pursuant to 29 CFR 2520.104-50.

Part IV Compliance Questions

4 CCTs and PSAs do not complete Part IV. MTIAs, 103-12 IEs, and GIAs do not complete lines 4a, 4e, 4f, 4g, 4h, 4k, 4m, 4n, or 5. 103-12 IEs also do not complete lines 4j and 4l. MTIAs also do not complete line 4l. DCGs do not complete lines 4e, 4f, 4k, 4l, and 5, and DCGs generally complete the rest of Part IV collectively for all plans in the DCG, except as otherwise provided (see instructions).

During the plan year:

	Yes	No	Amount
a Was there a failure to transmit to the plan any participant contributions within the time period described in 29 CFR 2510.3-102? Continue to answer "Yes" for any prior year failures until fully corrected. (See instructions and DOL's Voluntary Fiduciary Correction Program.)
b Were any loans by the plan or fixed income obligations due the plan in default as of the close of the plan year or classified during the year as uncollectible? Disregard participant loans secured by participant's account balance. (Attach Schedule G (Form 5500) Part I if "Yes" is checked.)
c Were any leases to which the plan was a party in default or classified during the year as uncollectible? (Attach Schedule G (Form 5500) Part II if "Yes" is checked.)
d Were there any nonexempt transactions with any party-in-interest? (Do not include transactions reported on line 4a. Attach Schedule G (Form 5500) Part III if "Yes" is checked.)
e Was this plan covered by a fidelity bond?
f Did the plan have a loss, whether or not reimbursed by the plan's fidelity bond, that was caused by fraud or dishonesty?
g Did the plan hold any assets whose current value was neither readily determinable on an established market nor set by an independent third party appraiser?
h Did the plan receive any noncash contributions whose value was neither readily determinable on an established market nor set by an independent third party appraiser?
i Did the plan have assets held for investment? (Attach schedule(s) of assets if "Yes" is checked, and see instructions for format requirements.)
j Were any plan transactions or series of transactions in excess of 5% of the current value of plan assets? (Attach schedule of transactions if "Yes" is checked and see instructions for format requirements.)
k Were all the plan assets either distributed to participants or beneficiaries, transferred to another plan, or brought under the control of the PBGC?
l Has the plan failed to provide any benefit when due under the plan?
m If this is an individual account plan, was there a blackout period? (See instructions and 29 CFR 2520.101-3.)
n If 4m was answered "Yes," check the "Yes" box if you either provided the required notice or one of the exceptions to providing the notice applied under 29 CFR 2520.101-3.

5a Has a resolution to terminate the plan been adopted during the plan year or any prior plan year? Yes No
If "Yes," enter the amount of any plan assets that reverted to the employer this year _____.

5b If, during this plan year, any assets or liabilities were transferred from this plan to another plan(s), identify the plan(s) to which assets or liabilities were transferred. (See instructions.)

5b(1) Name of plan(s)	5b(2) EIN(s)	5b(3) PN(s)

5c Was the plan a defined benefit plan covered under the PBGC insurance program at any time during this plan year? (See ERISA section 4021 and instructions.) Yes No Not determined b Total return would have been lower had certain expenses not been reduced.

c The Fund indirectly bears its proportionate share of fees and expenses incurred by the Underlying Fund in which the Fund is invested. This ratio does not include these indirect fees and expenses. Including net indirect fees and expenses, the Fund's ratio of expenses before expense reductions is 0.74% and the ratio of expenses after expense reductions is 0.60%.

d The ratio of expenses would have been .10% higher had the Trustee not voluntarily reimbursed certain operating expenses.

DWS RREEF Global Real Estate Securities Commingled Fund - Series A
Notes to Financial Statements

(1) Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

DWS RREEF Global Real Estate Securities Commingled Fund – Series A (the “Fund”) is a collective investment trust established under the DWS RREEF Trust (the “Trust”) by DWS Trust Company (the “Trustee”) which has exclusive management and control of the Fund. The Fund seeks to deliver total returns in excess of its benchmark, the FTSE EPRA/NAREIT Developed Index (USD, net of withholding tax), after fees and expenses. No assurance can be given that this objective can be met. The Fund will not directly hold investments, but will instead, invest all or a portion of its assets in the DWS RREEF Global Real Estate Securities Commingled Fund (the “Underlying Fund”). At December 31, 2024, and for the period then ended, the Fund invested 100% of its portfolio in the Underlying Fund.

The Trustee uses RREEF America L.L.C., an affiliate of the Trustee, to provide day-to-day investment advisory services and other ancillary services. DWS Alternatives Global Limited and DWS Investments Australia Limited, each serve as a sub-adviser to RREEF for the benefit of the Fund. All delegations of advisory services shall be subject to the overall supervision and direction of the Trustee.

The Fund is considered an investment company under accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (“U.S. GAAP”) which requires the use of management estimates. Actual results could differ from those estimates. The Fund qualifies as an investment company under Topic 946, “Financial Services – Investment Companies” of Accounting Standards Codification of U.S. GAAP. The Fund’s financial statements have been prepared in accordance with U.S. GAAP and are stated in United States Dollars (“U.S. Dollars”). The following is a summary of the significant accounting and reporting policies used in preparing the financial statements. The financial statements of the Underlying Fund, including the Investment Portfolio, are provided following the Fund’s annual report and should be read in conjunction with the Fund’s financial statements.

Use of estimates: Preparing financial statements in accordance with U.S. GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions in determining the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, including the fair value of investments, and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities as of the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of income and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

A. Security Valuation

The investment in the Underlying Fund is valued at the net asset value of the Underlying Fund as a practical expedient.

B. Federal Income Taxes

The Fund’s policy is to comply with the requirements of the Internal Revenue Code (“IRC”) applicable to collective investment trusts by limiting participation in the Fund to qualified plans that are exempt from taxation and satisfy the requirements of IRC Section 401(a) of the IRC by qualifying as a “group trust” as defined in Revenue Ruling 81-100. Therefore, the Fund is exempt from federal income taxes and no federal income tax provision is required.

The Fund has elected an accounting policy to classify interest and penalties, if any, as interest expense. The Fund has reviewed the tax position as of December 31, 2024, and has determined that no provision for income tax is required in the Fund’s financial statements. The Fund’s open tax years for the prior three years are subject to examination by the taxing authorities.

C. Distributions of Income and Gains

All net investment income and realized capital gains are retained by the Fund.

D. Other

Investment transactions are accounted for on the trade date plus one basis for daily net asset value calculations. However, for financial reporting purposes, investment transactions are reported on the trade date. Realized gains or losses from investment transactions are recorded on an identified cost basis.

E. Contingencies

In the normal course of business, the Fund may enter into contracts with service providers that contain general indemnification clauses. The Fund's maximum exposure under these arrangements is unknown, as this would involve future claims that may be made against the Fund that have not yet been made. However, based on experience, the Fund expects the risk of loss to be remote.

F. Real Estate Concentration Risk

Any fund that concentrates in a particular segment of the market will generally be more volatile than a fund that invests more broadly. Any market price movements, regulatory or technological changes, or economic conditions affecting real estate securities, including Real Estate Investment Trusts ("REITs"), may have a significant impact on the Fund's performance. A fund may invest without limitation in securities of companies engaged principally in the real estate industry, and will therefore be susceptible to adverse economic, business, regulatory, or other occurrences affecting real estate companies. Real estate companies, including REITs, can be negatively affected by the risks associated with direct ownership of real estate, such as general or local economic conditions, decreases in real estate value, increases in property taxes and operating expenses, liabilities or losses due to environmental problems, extreme weather or natural disasters, delays in completion of construction, falling rents (whether due to poor demand, increased competition, overbuilding, or limitations on rents), zoning changes, rising interest rates, lack of credit, failure of borrowers to repay loans, and losses from casualty or condemnation. In addition, real estate values have been subject to substantial fluctuations and declines on a local, regional, and national basis in the past and may continue to be in the future. During periods of rising interest rates, real estate securities may lose appeal for investors who may be able to obtain higher yields from other income-producing investments. Rising interest rates may also mean that financing for property purchases and improvements is more costly and difficult to obtain. In addition, many real estate companies, including REITs, utilize leverage which increases investment risk. Political or regulatory pressures may restrict the eviction of real estate tenants in default. Highly leveraged real estate companies are particularly vulnerable to the effects of an economic downturn.

G. Stock Market Risk

When stock prices fall, you should expect the value of your investment to fall as well. Stock prices can be hurt by poor management on the part of the stock's issuer, shrinking product demand, and other business risks. These may affect single companies as well as groups of companies. The market as a whole may not favor the types of investments a fund makes, which could adversely affect a stock's price, regardless of how well the company performs, or the fund's ability to sell a stock at an attractive price. There is a chance that stock prices overall will decline because stock markets tend to move in cycles, with periods of rising and falling prices. Events in the U.S. and global financial markets, including actions taken by the U.S. Federal Reserve or foreign central banks to stimulate or stabilize economic growth, may at times result in unusually high market volatility which could negatively affect performance. High market volatility may also result from significant shifts in momentum of one or more specific stocks due to unusual increases or decreases in trading activity. Momentum can change quickly, and securities subject to shifts in momentum may be more volatile than the market as a whole and returns on such securities may drop precipitously. To the extent that a fund invests in a particular geographic region, capitalization, or sector, the fund's performance may be affected by the general performance of that region, capitalization, or sector.

H. Market Disruption Risk

Economies and financial markets throughout the world are becoming increasingly interconnected, which increases the likelihood that events or conditions in one country or region will adversely impact markets or issuers in other countries or regions. This includes reliance on global supply chains that are susceptible to disruptions resulting from, among other things, war and other armed conflicts, extreme weather events, and natural disasters. Such supply chain disruptions can lead to, and have led to, economic and market disruptions that have far-reaching effects on financial markets worldwide. The value of a fund's investments may be negatively affected by adverse changes in overall economic or market conditions, such as the level of economic activity and productivity, unemployment and labor force participation rates, inflation or deflation (and expectations for inflation or deflation), interest rates, demand and supply for particular products or resources including labor, and debt levels and credit ratings, among other factors. Such adverse conditions may contribute to an overall economic contraction across entire economies or markets, which may negatively impact the profitability of issuers operating in those economies or markets. In addition, geopolitical and other globally interconnected occurrences, including war, terrorism, economic or financial crises, uncertainty or contagion, trade disputes, government debt crises (including defaults or downgrades) or uncertainty about government debt payments, government shutdowns, public health crises, natural disasters, climate change, and related events or conditions have led, and in the future may lead, to disruptions in the U.S. and world economies and markets, which may increase financial market volatility and have significant adverse direct or indirect effects on a fund and its investments. Adverse market conditions or disruptions could cause a fund to lose money, experience significant redemptions, and encounter operational difficulties. Although multiple asset classes may be affected by adverse market conditions or a particular market disruption, the duration and effects may not be the same for all types of assets.

Current military conflicts in various geographic regions, including those in Europe and the Middle East, can lead to, and have led to, economic and market disruptions, which may not be limited to the geographic region in which the conflict is occurring. Such conflicts can also result, and have resulted in some cases, in sanctions being levied by the United States, the European Union and/or other countries against countries or other actors involved in the conflicts. In addition, such conflicts and related sanctions can adversely affect regional and global energy, commodities, financial, and other markets and thus could affect the value of a fund's investments. The extent and duration of any military conflict, related sanctions, and resulting economic and market disruptions are impossible to predict, but could be substantial.

Other market disruption events include pandemic spread of viruses, such as the novel coronavirus known as COVID-19, which have caused significant uncertainty, market volatility, decreased economic and other activity, increased government activity, including economic stimulus measures, and supply chain disruptions. While COVID-19 is no longer considered to be a public health emergency, the Fund and its investments may be adversely affected by lingering effects of this virus or future pandemic spread of viruses.

In addition, markets are becoming increasingly susceptible to disruption events resulting from the use of new and emerging technologies to engage in cyber-attacks or to take over the websites and/or social media accounts of companies, governmental entities or public officials, or to otherwise pose as or impersonate such, which then may be used to disseminate false or misleading information that can cause volatility in financial markets or for the stock of a particular company, group of companies, industry or other class of assets.

I. Foreign Investment Risk

The Fund faces the risks inherent in foreign investing. Adverse political, economic or social developments as well as U.S. and foreign government actions such as the imposition of tariffs, economic and trade sanctions or embargoes could undermine the value of the Fund's investments or prevent the Fund from realizing the full value of its investments or prevent the Fund from selling securities it holds. Financial reporting standards for companies based in foreign markets differ from those in the U.S. Additionally, foreign securities markets generally are smaller and less liquid than U.S. markets. To the extent that the Fund invests in non-U.S. dollar denominated foreign securities, changes in currency exchange rates may affect the U.S. dollar value of foreign securities or the income or gain received on these securities. In addition, because non-U.S. markets may be open on days when the Fund does not price its units, the value of the securities in the Fund's portfolio may change on days when unitholders will not be able to purchase or sell the Fund's units.

(2) Investment Transactions

During the year ended December 31, 2024, purchases and sales of investment securities (excluding short-term investments) aggregated $2,511,753 and $6,209,650, respectively.

(3) Contributions and Withdrawals

In accordance with the Trust's Declaration of Trust, as amended, units may be acquired or redeemed on any valuation date on which the Trustee is open for bank deposits and withdrawals, and on which the NYSE is open for trading, based on the unit value of the Fund coincident with such acquisition or redemption. Redemptions may be made in cash or in kind or in combination of cash and in kind, in the sole and absolute discretion of the Trustee.

The Trustee may, from time to time, in its sole and absolute discretion, allocate cash and other investments to one or more segregated accounts for purposes of investing in or holding securities or other assets suitable for the Fund, for the redemption of units, for segregating assets the value of which may be difficult or impossible to ascertain, and for other purposes. The Trustee will maintain and administer each segregated account solely for the ratable benefit of each beneficial owner for which assets have been segregated, shall allocate all income, profits, and losses arising from the assets held in such an account for the ratable benefit of each such beneficial owner. The various charges and expenses associated with each account and the administration, investment, or disposition of the assets in that account will be borne solely by that account. The Fund did not utilize any segregated accounts for the year ended December 31, 2024.

(4) Expenses

The Trustee is the Administrator of the Fund, and has retained State Street Bank and Trust Company as the subadministrator for administrative services such as fund accounting and record keeping. The Fund is responsible for all expenses in connection with its operation, including any audit, custodian, record keeping and administrative service fees levied against the Fund (collectively "Fund Operating Expenses"). The Fund also indirectly bears a proportional share of the fees and expenses of the Underlying Fund ("indirect expenses").

The Fund pays monthly to the Trustee an annual fee ("management fee") of 0.50% of average daily net assets for services provided to the Fund.

For the period from January 1, 2024 through December 31, 2024, the Trustee has contractually agreed to reimburse Fund Operating Expenses (excluding certain expenses such as transaction costs, portfolio management fees, cash management fees, management fees and the expenses of the Underlying Fund), to limit the annual expense ratio to 0.10% of average daily net assets.

In addition, for the period from January 1, 2024 through December 31, 2024, the Trustee has agreed to voluntarily reimburse the Fund Operating Expenses (excluding certain expenses such as transactions costs, portfolio management fees, cash management fees and management fees) including the indirect expenses of the Underlying Fund, to limit the Fund Operating Expense and indirect expenses to 0.10% of the average daily net assets.

For the year ended December 31, 2024, the Trustee voluntarily reimbursed $38,715 of expenses.

(5) Ownership of the Fund

At December 31, 2024, there were two beneficial owners that held 10% or more of the outstanding units of the Fund, each owning 89% and 11%, respectively.

(6) Review for Subsequent Events

Management has reviewed the events and transactions for subsequent events from January 1, 2025 through April 1, 2025, the date the financial statements were available to be issued, and has determined that there were no material events that would require disclosure in the Fund's financial statements through this date.

Independent Auditor's Report

To the Participants and Trustee of

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of DWS RREEF Global Real Estate Securities Commingled Fund – Series A, which comprise the statement of assets and liabilities, including the investment portfolio, as of December 31, 2024, and the related statements of operations, changes in net assets, and the financial highlights for the year then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of DWS RREEF Global Real Estate Securities Commingled Fund – Series A as of December 31, 2024, the results of its operations, changes in its net assets, and its financial highlights for the year then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of DWS RREEF Global Real Estate Securities Commingled Fund – Series A and to meet our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audit. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about DWS RREEF Global Real Estate Securities Commingled Fund – Series A's ability to continue as a going concern within one year after the date that the financial statements are available to be issued.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.

Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of DWS RREEF Global Real Estate Securities Commingled Fund – Series A’s internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about DWS RREEF Global Real Estate Securities Commingled Fund – Series A’s ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control related matters that we identified during the audit.

Fair Value Measurements

Various inputs are used in determining the value of DWS RREEF Global Real Estate Securities Commingled Fund (the "Fund") investments. These inputs are summarized in three broad levels. Level 1 includes quoted prices in active markets for identical securities. Level 2 includes other significant observable inputs (including quoted prices for similar securities, interest rates, prepayment speeds and credit risk). Level 3 includes significant unobservable inputs (including the Fund's own assumptions in determining the fair value of investments). The level assigned to the securities valuations may not be an indication of the risk or liquidity associated with investing in those securities.

The following is a summary of the inputs used as of December 31, 2024, in valuing the Fund's investments. For information on the Fund's policy regarding the valuation of investments, please refer to the Security Valuation section of Note (1) A in the accompanying Notes to Financial Statements.

DWS RREEF Global Real Estate Securities Commingled Fund

Notes to Financial Statements

(1) Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

DWS RREEF Global Real Estate Securities Commingled Fund (the “Fund”) is a collective investment trust established under the DWS RREEF Trust (the “Trust”) by DWS Trust Company (the “Trustee”), which has exclusive management and control of the Fund. The Fund seeks to deliver total returns in excess of its benchmark the FTSE EPRA/NAREIT Developed Index (USD, net of withholding tax), after fees and expenses, by investing and reinvesting primarily in publicly traded equity securities in the real estate sector globally. No assurance can be given that this objective can be met.

The Trustee uses RREEF America L.L.C. (“RREEF”), an affiliate of the Trustee, to provide day-to-day investment advisory services and other ancillary services. DWS Alternatives Global Limited and DWS Investments Australia Limited, each serve as a sub-adviser to RREEF for the benefit of the Fund. All delegations of advisory services shall be subject to the overall supervision and direction of the Trustee.

The Fund is considered an investment company under accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (“U.S. GAAP”) which requires the use of management estimates. Actual results could differ from those estimates. The Fund qualifies as an investment company under Topic 946, “Financial Services – Investment Companies” of Accounting Standards Codification of U.S. GAAP. The Fund’s financial statements have been prepared in accordance with U.S. GAAP and are stated in United States Dollars (“U.S. Dollars”). The following is a summary of the significant accounting and reporting policies used in preparing the financial statements.

Use of estimates: Preparing financial statements in accordance with U.S. GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions in determining the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, including the fair value of investments, and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities as of the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of income and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

A. Security Valuation

Investments are stated at value determined as of the close of regular trading on the New York Stock Exchange (“NYSE”) on each day the exchange is open for trading.

Various inputs are used in determining the value of the Fund’s investments. These inputs are summarized in three broad levels. Level 1 includes quoted prices in active markets for identical securities. Level 2 includes other significant observable inputs (including quoted prices for similar securities, interest rates, prepayment speeds and credit risk). Level 3 includes significant unobservable inputs (including the Fund’s own assumptions in determining the fair value of investments). The level assigned to the securities valuations may not be an indication of the risk or liquidity associated with investing in those securities.

Equity securities are valued at the most recent sale price or official closing price reported on the exchange (U.S. or foreign) or over-the-counter market on which they trade. Equity securities for which no sales are reported are valued at the calculated mean between the most recent bid and asked quotations on the relevant market or, if a mean cannot be determined, at the most recent bid quotation. Equity securities are generally categorized as Level 1. For certain international equity securities, in order to adjust for events which may occur between the close of the foreign exchanges and the close of the New York Stock Exchange, a fair valuation model may be used. This fair valuation model takes into account comparisons to the valuation of American Depositary Receipts (ADRs), futures contracts and certain indices and these securities are categorized as Level 2.

Investments in open-end investment companies are valued at their net asset value each business day and are categorized as Level 1.

Securities and other assets for which market quotations are not readily available or for which the above valuation procedures are deemed not to reflect fair value are valued in a manner that is intended to reflect their fair value as determined in accordance with procedures approved by the Trustee and are generally categorized as Level 3. In accordance with the Fund's valuation procedures, factors considered in determining value may include, but are not limited to, the type of the security; the size of the holding; the initial cost of the security; the existence of any contractual restrictions on the security's disposition; the price and extent of public trading in similar securities of the issuer or of comparable companies; quotations or evaluated prices from broker-dealers and/or pricing services; information obtained from the issuer, analysts, and/or the appropriate stock exchange (for exchange-traded securities); an analysis of the company's or issuer's financial statements; an evaluation of the forces that influence the issuer and the market(s) in which the security is purchased and sold; and with respect to debt securities, the maturity, coupon, creditworthiness, currency denomination and the movement of the market in which the security is normally traded. The value determined under these procedures may differ from published values for the same securities.

Disclosure about the classification of fair value measurements is included in a table following the Fund's Investment Portfolio.

B. Foreign Currency Translations

The books and records of the Fund are maintained in U.S. dollars. Investment securities and other assets and liabilities denominated in a foreign currency are translated into U.S. dollars at the prevailing exchange rates at period end. Purchases and sales of investment securities, income and expenses are translated into U.S. dollars at the prevailing exchange rates on the respective dates of the transactions.

Net realized and unrealized gains and losses on foreign currency transactions represent net gains and losses between trade and settlement dates on securities transactions, the acquisition and disposition of foreign currencies, and the difference between the amount of net investment income accrued and the U.S. dollar amount actually received. The portion of both realized and unrealized gains and losses on investments that results from fluctuations in foreign currency exchange rates is not separately disclosed but is included with net realized and unrealized gain/appreciation and loss/depreciation on investments.

C. Foreign Taxes

The Fund may be subject to foreign taxes (a portion of which may be reclaimable) on income, capital gains on investments, certain foreign currency transactions or other corporate events. All foreign taxes are recorded in accordance with the applicable foreign tax regulations and rates that exist in the foreign jurisdictions in which the Fund invests. These foreign taxes, if any, are paid by the Fund and are reflected in its Statement of Operations as follows: foreign taxes withheld at source are presented as a reduction of income, foreign taxes on capital gains from sales of investments and foreign currency transactions are included in their respective net realized gain (loss) categories. Receivables and payables related to foreign taxes as of December 31, 2024, if any, are disclosed in the Fund's Statement of Assets and Liabilities.

D. Federal Income Taxes

The Fund's policy is to comply with the requirements of the Internal Revenue Code ("IRC") applicable to collective investment trusts by limiting participation in the Fund to qualified plans that are exempt from taxation and satisfy the requirements of IRC Section 401(a) of the IRC by qualifying as a "group trust" as defined in Revenue Ruling 81-100. Therefore, the Fund is exempt from federal income taxes and no federal income tax provision is required.

Additionally, based on the Fund's understanding of the tax rules and rates related to income, gains and transactions for the foreign jurisdictions in which it invests, the Fund will provide for foreign taxes, and where appropriate, deferred foreign taxes.

The Fund has elected an accounting policy to classify interest and penalties, if any, as interest expense. The Fund has reviewed the tax position as of December 31, 2024, and has determined that no provision for income tax is required in the Fund's financial statements. The Fund's open tax years for the prior three years are subject to examination by the taxing authorities.

E. Distributions of Income and Gains

All net investment income and realized capital gains are retained by the Fund.

F. Real Estate Investment Trusts

The Fund periodically recharacterizes distributions received from a United States Real Estate Investment Trust ("U.S. REIT") investment based on information provided by the U.S. REIT into the following categories: ordinary income, long-term and short-term capital gains, and return of capital. If information is not available timely from a U.S. REIT, the recharacterization will be estimated for financial reporting purposes and a recharacterization will be made to the accounting records in the following year when such information becomes available. Distributions received from U.S. REITs in excess of income are recorded as either a reduction of cost of investments or realized gains. With respect to the distributions received from foreign domiciled corporations, generally determined to be passive foreign investment companies for tax reporting purposes, such amounts are included in dividend income without any recharacterization.

G. Other

Investment transactions are accounted for on the trade date plus one basis for daily net asset value calculations. However, for financial reporting purposes, investment transactions are reported on the trade date. Dividend income is recorded on the ex-date net of foreign withholding taxes. Certain dividends from foreign securities may be recorded subsequent to the ex-dividend date as soon as the Fund is informed of such dividends. Realized gains or losses from investment transactions are recorded on an identified cost basis. Proceeds from litigation payments, if any, are included in net realized gain (loss) from investments. Interest income is recorded on an accrual basis.

H. Contingencies

In the normal course of business, the Fund may enter into contracts with service providers that contain general indemnification clauses. The Fund's maximum exposure under these arrangements is unknown, as this would involve future claims that may be made against the Fund that have not yet been made. However, based on experience, the Fund expects the risk of loss to be remote.

I. Real Estate Concentration Risk

Any fund that concentrates in a particular segment of the market will generally be more volatile than a fund that invests more broadly. Any market price movements, regulatory or technological changes, or economic conditions affecting real estate securities, including Real Estate Investment Trusts ("REITs"), may have a significant impact on the Fund's performance. A fund may invest without limitation in securities of companies engaged principally in the real estate industry, and will therefore be susceptible to adverse economic, business, regulatory, or other occurrences affecting real estate companies. Real estate companies, including REITs, can be negatively affected by the risks associated with direct ownership of real estate, such as general or local economic conditions, decreases in real estate value, increases in property taxes and operating expenses, liabilities or losses due to environmental problems, extreme weather or natural disasters, delays in completion of construction, falling rents (whether due to poor demand, increased competition, overbuilding, or limitations on rents), zoning changes, rising interest rates, lack of credit, failure of borrowers to repay loans, and losses from casualty or condemnation. In addition, real estate values have been subject to substantial fluctuations and declines on a local, regional, and national basis in the past and may continue to be in the future. During periods of rising interest rates, real estate securities may lose appeal for investors who may be able to obtain higher yields from other income-producing investments. Rising interest rates may also mean that financing for property purchases and improvements is more costly and difficult to obtain. In addition, many real estate companies, including REITs, utilize leverage which increases investment risk. Political or regulatory pressures may restrict the eviction of real estate tenants in default. Highly leveraged real estate companies are particularly vulnerable to the effects of an economic downturn.

J. Stock Market Risk

When stock prices fall, you should expect the value of your investment to fall as well. Stock prices can be hurt by poor management on the part of the stock's issuer, shrinking product demand, and other business risks. These may affect single companies as well as groups of companies. The market as a whole may not favor the types of investments a fund makes, which could adversely affect a stock's price, regardless of how well the company performs, or the fund's ability to sell a stock at an attractive price. There is a chance that stock prices overall will decline because stock markets tend to move in cycles, with periods of rising and falling prices. Events in the U.S. and global financial markets, including actions taken by the U.S. Federal Reserve or foreign central banks to stimulate or stabilize economic growth, may at times result in unusually high market volatility which could negatively affect performance. High market volatility may also result from significant shifts in momentum of one or more specific stocks due to unusual increases or decreases in trading activity. Momentum can change quickly, and securities subject to shifts in momentum may be more volatile than the market as a whole and returns on such securities may drop precipitously. To the extent that a fund invests in a particular geographic region, capitalization, or sector, the fund's performance may be affected by the general performance of that region, capitalization, or sector.

K. Market Disruption Risk

Economies and financial markets throughout the world are becoming increasingly interconnected, which increases the likelihood that events or conditions in one country or region will adversely impact markets or issuers in other countries or regions. This includes reliance on global supply chains that are susceptible to disruptions resulting from, among other things, war and other armed conflicts, extreme weather events, and natural disasters. Such supply chain disruptions can lead to, and have led to, economic and market disruptions that have far-reaching effects on financial markets worldwide. The value of a fund's investments may be negatively affected by adverse changes in overall economic or market conditions, such as the level of economic activity and productivity, unemployment and labor force participation rates, inflation or deflation (and expectations for inflation or deflation), interest rates, demand and supply for particular products or resources including labor, and debt levels and credit ratings, among other factors. Such adverse conditions may contribute to an overall economic contraction across entire economies or markets, which may negatively impact the profitability of issuers operating in those economies or markets. In addition, geopolitical and other globally interconnected occurrences, including war, terrorism, economic or financial crises, uncertainty or contagion, trade disputes, government debt crises (including defaults or downgrades) or uncertainty about government debt payments, government shutdowns, public health crises, natural disasters, climate change, and related events or conditions have led, and in the future may lead, to disruptions in the U.S. and world economies and markets, which may increase financial market volatility and have significant adverse direct or indirect effects on a fund and its investments. Adverse market conditions or disruptions could cause a fund to lose money, experience significant redemptions, and encounter operational difficulties. Although multiple asset classes may be affected by adverse market conditions or a particular market disruption, the duration and effects may not be the same for all types of assets.

Current military conflicts in various geographic regions, including those in Europe and the Middle East, can lead to, and have led to, economic and market disruptions, which may not be limited to the geographic region in which the conflict is occurring. Such conflicts can also result, and have resulted in some cases, in sanctions being levied by the United States, the European Union and/or other countries against countries or other actors involved in the conflicts. In addition, such conflicts and related sanctions can adversely affect regional and global energy, commodities, financial, and other markets and thus could affect the value of a fund's investments. The extent and duration of any military conflict, related sanctions, and resulting economic and market disruptions are impossible to predict, but could be substantial.

Other market disruption events include pandemic spread of viruses, such as the novel coronavirus known as COVID-19, which have caused significant uncertainty, market volatility, decreased economic and other activity, increased government activity, including economic stimulus measures, and supply chain disruptions. While COVID-19 is no longer considered to be a public health emergency, the Fund and its investments may be adversely affected by lingering effects of this virus or future pandemic spread of viruses.

In addition, markets are becoming increasingly susceptible to disruption events resulting from the use of new and emerging technologies to engage in cyber-attacks or to take over the websites and/or social media accounts of companies, governmental entities or public officials, or to otherwise pose as or impersonate such, which then may be used to disseminate false or misleading information that can cause volatility in financial markets or for the stock of a particular company, group of companies, industry or other class of assets.

L. Foreign Investment Risk

The Fund faces the risks inherent in foreign investing. Adverse political, economic or social developments as well as U.S. and foreign government actions such as the imposition of tariffs, economic and trade sanctions or embargoes could undermine the value of the Fund's investments or prevent the Fund from realizing the full value of its investments or prevent the Fund from selling securities it holds. Financial reporting standards for companies based in foreign markets differ from those in the U.S. Additionally, foreign securities markets generally are smaller and less liquid than U.S. markets. To the extent that the Fund invests in non-U.S. dollar denominated foreign securities, changes in currency exchange rates may affect the U.S. dollar value of foreign securities or the income or gain received on these securities. In addition, because non-U.S. markets may be open on days when the Fund does not price its units, the value of the securities in the Fund's portfolio may change on days when unitholders will not be able to purchase or sell the Fund's units.

(2) Investment Transactions

During the year ended December 31, 2024, purchases and sales of investment securities (excluding short-term investments) aggregated $25,880,998 and $28,590,434, respectively.

(3) Contributions and Withdrawals

In accordance with the Trust's Declaration of Trust, as amended, units may be acquired or redeemed on any valuation date on which the Trustee is open for bank deposits and withdrawals, and on which the NYSE is open for trading, based on the unit value of the Fund coincident with such acquisition or redemption. Redemptions may be made in cash or in kind or in combination of cash and in kind, in the sole and absolute discretion of the Trustee.

The Trustee may, from time to time, in its sole and absolute discretion, allocate cash and other investments to one or more segregated accounts for purposes of investing in or holding securities or other assets suitable for the Fund, for the redemption of units, for segregating assets the value of which may be difficult or impossible to ascertain, and for other purposes. The Trustee will maintain and administer each segregated account solely for the ratable benefit of each beneficial owner for which assets have been segregated, shall allocate all income, profits, and losses arising from the assets held in such an account for the ratable benefit of each such beneficial owner. The various charges and expenses associated with each account and the administration, investment, or disposition of the assets in that account will be borne solely by that account. The Fund did not utilize any segregated accounts for the year ended December 31, 2024.

(4) Expenses

The Trustee is the Administrator of the Fund, and has retained State Street Bank and Trust Company as the subadministrator for administrative services such as fund accounting and record keeping. The Fund is responsible for all expenses in connection with its operation, including any audit, custodian, record keeping and administrative service fees levied against the Fund (collectively “Fund Operating Expenses”). Investment management fees are paid directly to the Trustee by investors under separate agreements.

For the period from January 1, 2024 through December 31, 2024, the Trustee has contractually agreed to reimburse Fund Operating Expenses (excluding certain expenses such as transaction costs, portfolio management fees, cash management fees and management fees), to limit the annual expense ratio to 0.10% of average daily net assets.

For the year ended December 31, 2024, the Trustee reimbursed $103,148 of expenses.

(5) Ownership of the Fund

At December 31, 2024, there was one beneficial owner that held 10% or more of the outstanding units of the Fund. Percentage held by this owner was 100%.

(6) Payments by Affiliates

During the year ended December 31, 2024, the Trustee agreed to reimburse the Fund $806 for losses incurred on trades executed incorrectly. The amount reimbursed was less than 0.01% of the Fund’s average net assets, thus having no impact on the Fund’s total return.

(7) Review for Subsequent Events

Management has reviewed the events and transactions for subsequent events from January 1, 2025 through April 1, 2025, the date the financial statements were available to be issued, and has determined that there were no material events that would require disclosure in the Fund’s financial statements through this date.

Independent Auditor's Report

To the Participants and Trustee of

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of DWS RREEF Global Real Estate Securities Commingled Fund, which comprise the statement of assets and liabilities, including the investment portfolio, as of December 31, 2024, and the related statements of operations, changes in net assets, and the financial highlights for the year then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of DWS RREEF Global Real Estate Securities Commingled Fund as of December 31, 2024, the results of its operations, changes in its net assets, and its financial highlights for the year then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of DWS RREEF Global Real Estate Securities Commingled Fund and to meet our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audit. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about DWS RREEF Global Real Estate Securities Commingled Fund's ability to continue as a going concern within one year after the date that the financial statements are available to be issued.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.

Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of DWS RREEF Global Real Estate Securities Commingled Fund's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about DWS RREEF Global Real Estate Securities Commingled Fund's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control related matters that we identified during the audit.
