INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Plan Administrator and participants of the
H.J. Russell & Company Group Health and Flexible Benefits Plan

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of the H.J. Russell & Company Group Health and Flexible Benefits Plan (the Plan), an employee benefit plan subject to the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA), which comprise the statement of net assets available for benefits and statement of benefit obligations as of December 31, 2024, and the related statements of changes in net assets available for benefits and changes in benefit obligations for the year then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements (the 2024 financial statements).

In our opinion, the 2024 financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the net assets available for benefits of the H.J. Russell & Company Group Health and Flexible Benefits Plan as of December 31, 2024, and the changes in its net assets available for benefits, benefit obligations for the year then ended, in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the 2024 Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of the H.J. Russell & Company Group Health and Flexible Benefits Plan and to meet our other ethical responsibilities, in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audit. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the 2024 Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the 2024 financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the 2024 financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the H.J. Russell & Company Group Health and Flexible Benefits Plan's ability to continue as a going concern for one year after the date the financial statements are available to be issued.

Management is also responsible for maintaining a current Plan instrument, including all Plan amendments, administering the Plan, and determining that the Plan's transactions that are presented and disclosed in the financial statements are in conformity with the Plan's provisions, including maintaining sufficient records with respect to each of the participants, to determine the benefits due or which may become due to such participants.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the 2024 Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the 2024 financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the 2024 financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the H.J. Russell & Company Group Health and Flexible Benefits Plan's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the H.J. Russell & Company Group Health and Flexible Benefits Plan's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control-related matters that we identified during the audit.

2023 Financial Statements

The financial statements of the H.J. Russell & Company Group Health and Flexible Benefits Plan as of December 31, 2023, were audited by other auditors whose report dated October 10, 2024 expressed an unmodified opinion on those statements.

1. Description of the Plan

General

The following description of the H.J. Russell & Company Group Health and Flexible Benefits Plan (the Plan) is provided for general information only. Participants should refer to the plan document for a more complete description of the Plan's provisions.

The H. J. Russell & Company Benefit and Investment Committee has responsibility for administering the Plan and for the management and control of the assets of the Plan.

The Company has established and maintained a self-funded defined benefit health and welfare plan with a stop-loss reinsurance component to provide for the payment of or reimbursement of medical, dental, pharmacy, and vision benefits to eligible employees, spouses, and dependents of H. J. Russell & Company, LLC (the Company or Plan Sponsor) as defined in the Plan's provisions. The Company serves as the plan administrator. The Plan is subject to the provisions of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended (ERISA).

Employees become eligible for the Plan after thirty days of continuous employment with the Company or after being classified as a full-time regular employee, whichever is later. The Plan also includes two reimbursement options, for which the employee may be reimbursed for qualified medical or dependent care expenses. Employees are immediately eligible to enroll and set up a flexible spending account on their first day of employment.

None of the Plan's assets are held in a voluntary employee beneficiary association (VEBA) trust.

These financial statements report the financial position and operating activities of the Company's group health and flexible benefits plans. The financial statements represent only the activities of the Company's self-funded employee benefit plans as governed by its administrative committee. Certain accounts of the plan are included in the Company's basic financial statements.

Plan Administration

Health claims of active participants, dependents, and beneficiaries are processed and paid by Cigna Health and Life Insurance Company (Cigna) under an administrative services agreement, but the responsibility for payments to participants and providers is retained by the Plan.

Cash

The Plan maintains its cash in a domestic bank deposit account that may, at times, exceed FDIC insurance limits. The Plan believes it mitigates any risk by depositing its cash with a major financial institution.

Notes to Financial Statements December 31, 2024 and 2023

Due from/to Plan Sponsor

H. J. Russell & Company, LLC as the Plan administrator, collects all Plan premiums and funds all Plan claims and expenses through the Plan Sponsor's specified bank account. As a result, at any point in time the Plan has amounts due from or to the Plan Sponsor.

Contributions and Funding of the Plan

In addition to deductibles and copayments, participants contribute specified amounts based on applicable monthly premiums for their respective benefit elections. The Plan provides that the Company and its eligible employees make contributions to the Plan to provide specified benefits to employees and their covered dependents. The Company's contributions are discretionary. The cost of the Plan is divided between the employee and employer. The Company may contribute specified amounts determined periodically by the Plan's insurance companies, to extend coverage to eligible dependents.

Contributions funded by the Company, pursuant to the Plan are part of the general assets of the Plan Sponsor. The Plan Sponsor invests the Plan's funds as set forth in the Plan document. The Plan sponsor has entered into repurchase agreements with two different financial institutions for which interest is earned on Plan assets. Interest income from investments is recognized when earned.

Benefits

All other Plan benefits are self-insured. The claims for self-insured benefits are processed by the Plan's third-party claims processors under the administrative services only (ASO) arrangements. The claims processors pay claims directly to or on behalf of the participants and are reimbursed by the general assets of the Company. Despite the Plan's utilization of third-party claim processors, ultimate responsibility for payments to providers and participants is retained by the Plan and is covered by the general assets of the Company.

The Plan utilizes a pharmacy benefit manager (PBM) which periodically makes refunds to the Plan based on the Plan's actual utilization pattern of specific drugs.

The Plan has a health care flexible spending account (FSA) that is funded solely through participant contributions. The FSA allows eligible participants to pay for covered health care services and eligible medical expenses. Any unused funds remaining in the account upon year end or termination from the Plan are forfeited.

The Plan has a health reimbursement arrangement (HRA) that is funded solely through Company contributions. The HRA allows eligible participants to be reimbursed tax free for qualified medical expenses subject to a specified ceiling. Amounts remaining at the end of the year can generally be carried over to the next year. The Plan Sponsor is not permitted to refund any of the balance to the employee. The account can only be used for reimbursements for qualified medical expenses. Remaining amounts are forfeited upon termination once the employee leaves the Company.

The Plan has entered into a stop-loss insurance arrangement in an effort to limit its exposure for self-insured benefits (individual participant claims over $80,000, as well as its aggregate exposure for all claims).

The Plan also provides continuation of certain benefits upon termination of employment as required by the Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act (COBRA).

Administrative Expenses

Expenses, principally for benefits administration and stop-loss insurance, are paid by the Plan and the Company. These expenses are paid to service providers of the Plan and therefore qualify as party-in-interest transactions.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of Presentation

The financial statements have been prepared on the accrual method of accounting in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAP).

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with GAAP requires the plan administrator to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of benefit obligations and changes in benefit obligations, and the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities. Actual amounts could differ from those estimates.

Benefits Demand Deposits

Cigna maintains a benefit demand deposit account on behalf of the Plan Sponsor for the sole purpose of payment of Plan benefits, expenses, and fees for which a minimum balance is to be maintained. The account is funded by the general assets of the Plan Sponsor. Any unused funds belong to the Plan Sponsor. At December 31, 2024 and 2023, the balance of funds held on deposit was $81,661 and $71,343, respectively.

Claims Incurred but not Reported

Plan obligations for claims incurred but not reported are estimated on claims data provided by the Plan's third-party claims administrator, and include COBRA post-employment benefits, when applicable. These amounts are paid by the Plan only if claims are submitted and approved for payment.

Payment of Benefits

Claim payments are recorded when paid by the third-party claims processor.

Health Care Flexible Spending Account

Included in the accompanying financial statements of net assets are amounts available to reimburse participants for qualifying medical expenses. Forfeited amounts were used by the Company to offset Company contributions in the year forfeited.

Health Care Flexible Spending Forfeited Accounts

Before-tax contributions are credited to a participant's health care flexible spending account. Excess qualified medical and/or dependent care expenses will not be refunded to the participant. These amounts remain a part of the net assets available for benefits.

Refunds

Refunds provided by the Plan's service providers are recorded when earned. Refunds due as of December 31, 2024 and 2023 are reported as a receivable, with the offset being netted against claims.

Subsequent Events

Management evaluates events occurring subsequent to the date of the financial statements in determining the accounting for and disclosure of transactions and events that affect the financial statements. Subsequent events have been evaluated through October 15, 2025, the date the financial statements were available to be issued.

Risk and Uncertainties

The Plan assets consist mainly of cash and cash equivalents which can exceed the FDIC coverage limits. Therefore, because of the significance of such assets, the Plan could be materially affected by any downturn or negative exposure of the financial institution holding such funds.

H.J. Russell & Company Group Health and Flexible Benefits Plan

The actuarial present value of benefit obligations is reported based on certain assumptions pertaining to interest rates, health care interest rates, and employee demographics, all of which are subject to change. Due to uncertainties inherent in the estimations and assumptions process, it is at least reasonably possible that changes in these estimates and assumptions in the near term would be material to the financial statements.

3. Benefit Obligations

Benefit obligations include claims payable, administrative fees payable, and benefits incurred but not reported. These obligations have been presented in aggregate, and are valued at present value since these obligations are current obligations due within one year.

4. Tax Status

The Plan is established to hold the Plan's assets and is intended to qualify under Section 125 of the Internal Revenue Code (IRC). Under Section 125 of the IRC, premiums paid by participating employees are not subject to federal and state income taxes or federal FICA withholdings. Any interest earned on the Plan's assets is considered investment income by the Plan Sponsor. The Plan Sponsor believes that the Plan continues to qualify and to operate in accordance with applicable provisions of the IRC, and is a tax-exempt health and welfare benefit plan.

U.S. GAAP requires plan management to evaluate tax positions taken by the Plan and recognize a tax liability (or asset) if the organization has taken an uncertain position that more likely than not would not be sustained upon examination by the federal, state, and local taxing authorities. The Plan is subject to routine audits by taxing jurisdictions; however, there are currently no audits for any tax periods in progress. The Plan administrator and sponsor believe that the Plan is no longer subject to income tax examinations by taxing authorities prior to 2020.

5. Plan Termination

Although it has not expressed any intention to do so, the Plan has the right to modify the benefits provided to participating employees and to terminate the Plan subject to the provisions set forth in ERISA. Upon termination, eligible claims incurred before the effective date of the termination would be paid by the Plan.
