Report of Independent Auditors

First American Bank Audit Committee
First American Bank Welfare Benefits Plan

Report on the Audit of the Financial Statements

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of First American Bank Welfare Benefits Plan (the Plan), an employee benefit plan subject to the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA), which comprise the statements of net assets available for benefits (cash basis) as of December 31, 2024 and 2023, and the related statements of changes in net assets available for benefits (cash basis) for the year ended December 31, 2024, and the related notes to the financial statements.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the net assets available for benefits of First American Bank Welfare Benefits Plan (cash basis) as of December 31, 2024 and 2023, and the changes in its net assets available for benefits (cash basis) for the year ended December 31, 2024, in accordance with the cash basis of accounting described in Note 2.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of First American Bank Welfare Benefits Plan and to meet our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audits. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Basis of Accounting

We draw attention to Note 2 of the financial statements, which describes the basis of accounting. The financial statements and the supplemental schedule are prepared on the cash basis of cash receipts and disbursements, which is a basis of accounting other than accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Our opinion is not modified with respect to this matter.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with the cash basis of accounting described in Note 2; this includes determining that the cash basis of accounting is an acceptable basis for the preparation of the financial statements in the circumstances. Management is also responsible for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Baker Tilly Advisory Group, LP and Baker Tilly US, LLP, trading as Baker Tilly, are members of the global network of Baker Tilly International Ltd., the members of which are separate and independent legal entities. Baker Tilly US, LLP is a licensed CPA firm that provides assurance services to its clients. Baker Tilly Advisory Group, LP and its subsidiary entities provide tax and consulting services to their clients and are not licensed CPA firms.

Management is also responsible for maintaining a current plan instrument, including all plan amendments, administering the plan, and determining that the plan's transactions that are presented and disclosed in the financial statements are in conformity with the plan's provisions, including maintaining sufficient records with respect to each of the participants, to determine the benefits due or which may become due to such participants.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of First American Bank Welfare Benefits Plan's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about First American Bank Welfare Benefits Plan's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control-related matters that we identified during the audit.

Supplemental Schedule Required by ERISA

Our audits were conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the financial statements as a whole. The supplemental schedule (cash basis) of Schedule H, Line 4(i) – Schedule of Assets (Held at End of Year) as of December 31, 2024, is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the financial statements but is supplementary information required by the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA. Such information is the responsibility of management and was derived from and relates directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements. The information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audits of the financial statements and certain additional procedures, including comparing and reconciling such information directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements or to the financial statements themselves, and other additional procedures in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards.

In forming our opinion on the supplemental schedule (cash basis), we evaluated whether the supplemental schedule (cash basis), including its form and content, is presented in conformity with the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA.

In our opinion, the information in the accompanying schedule (cash basis) is fairly stated, in all material respects, in relation to the financial statements as a whole, and the form and content are presented in conformity with the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA.

First American Bank Welfare Benefits Plan

Notes to Financial Statements

Note 1 – Description of Plan

The following description of the First American Bank Welfare Benefits Plan (the Plan) provides only general information. Participants should refer to the plan agreement, as amended, for a more complete description of plan provisions.

General – The Plan was created January 1, 1984, to provide health care related benefits to eligible employees of First American Bank (the Bank) and their dependents. It is subject to the provisions of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA).

Benefits – The Plan provides hospital, dental, major medical, disability, and death benefits. Claim benefits are disbursed by a claims administrator selected by the plan administrator.

All benefits automatically terminate at the end of the month in which the participant terminates employment.

Flexible spending account – The flexible spending accounts allow employees to set aside pre-tax dollars for out-of-pocket health care and dependent care expenses. The Plan is funded entirely by the employees. Forfeited contributions are used to pay plan administrative and other expenses.

Contributions to the health spending and dependent care accounts are employee contributions withheld from payroll, which are deposited into each participant's account.

Funding – The Plan requires the Bank to contribute amounts necessary to fund the employee benefits provided by the Plan. Employee contributions are required for their portion of the premium for individual and dependent coverage as indicated on their initial election or at their annual enrollment each year. The assets of the Plan are held in cash and money market accounts and are administered by the Bank's Trust and Investments Department.

The plan administrator has obtained excess loss insurance which limits aggregate annual claims paid directly from plan assets to $70,000 per participant.

Participants – All regular employees who are older than 18, have worked for at least 60 days, and work at least 30 hours per week are eligible to participate. Employees who meet eligibility requirements can participate the first day of the month after the month eligibility is met.

At December 31, 2024 and 2023, there were 200 and 224 active participants, respectively.

Note 2 – Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of presentation – The Plan presents its financial statements on the cash receipts and disbursements basis of accounting. Under that basis, the only asset recognized is cash, and no liabilities are recognized. All transactions are recognized as either cash receipts or disbursements, and noncash transactions are not recognized. The cash basis differs from accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America because the incurred but not reported are not included in the financial statements. The impact of excluding the incurred but not reported in the statements of net assets available for benefits (cash basis) and the statements of changes in net assets available for benefits (cash basis) is not significant to the financial statements.

First American Bank Welfare Benefits Plan

Notes to Financial Statements

Administrative expenses – Expenses of the Plan (insurance premiums and service fees) were paid by the Bank and have been reflected in the accompanying financial statements as expenses of the Plan.

Cash and cash equivalents – The Plan's cash consists of all highly liquid investments with initial maturities of three months or less and are comprised of cash on hand and money market accounts held at a financial institution and a brokerage firm. These are a Level 1 measurement as inputs to the valuation methodology are unadjusted quoted prices for identical assets or liabilities in active markets that the Plan has the ability to access. Interest income is recorded on the accrual basis

Subsequent events – Subsequent events are events or transactions that occur after the statement of net assets available for benefits (cash basis) date but before the financial statements are available to be issued. The Plan recognizes in the financial statements the effects of all subsequent events that provide additional evidence about conditions that existed at the date of the statement of net assets available for benefits (cash basis), including the estimates inherent in the process of preparing the financial statements. The Plan's financial statements do not recognize subsequent events that provide evidence about conditions that did not exist at the date of the statement of net assets available for benefits (cash basis) but arose after the statement of net assets available for benefits (cash basis) date and before the financial statements are available to be issued.

The Plan has evaluated subsequent events through October 14, 2025, which is the date the financial statements were available to be issued.

Note 3 – Plan Termination

Although it has not expressed any intent to do so, the Bank reserves the right to terminate or amend the Plan at any time. Upon termination of the Plan, the assets attributable to the Plan must be used for the continuance of the benefits provided by the Plan, until such monies have been exhausted.

Note 4 – Tax Status

The Plan was established to hold the assets as intended to qualify pursuant to Section 501(c)(9) of the Internal Revenue Code and, accordingly, the Plan's net investment income is exempt from income taxes. The plan sponsor believes that the Plan, as amended and restated, continues to qualify and to operate in accordance with applicable provisions of the Internal Revenue Code and, therefore, believes that the Plan is qualified, and the related trust is tax-exempt.

In accordance with guidance on accounting for uncertainty in income taxes, the plan administrator has evaluated the Plan's tax positions and does not believe the Plan has any uncertain tax positions that require disclosure or adjustment to the financial statements. The Plan is subject to routine audits by taxing jurisdictions; however, there are currently no audits for any tax periods in progress.
