Report of Independent Auditors

To the Management of Western Asset Management Company, LLC

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of Western Asset Opportunistic Asian Securities Portfolio, L.L.C. (the "Fund"), which comprise the statement of assets and liabilities, including the condensed schedule of investments, as of December 31, 2024, and the related statements of operations and of changes in net assets, including the related notes for the year then ended (collectively referred to as the "financial statements").

In our opinion, the accompanying financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Fund as of December 31, 2024, and the results of its operations and changes in its net assets for the year then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America (US GAAS). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditors' Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of the Fund and to meet our other ethical responsibilities, in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audit. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Fund's ability to continue as a going concern for one year after the date the financial statements are available to be issued.

Auditors' Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditors' report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with US GAAS will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with US GAAS, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Fund's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Fund's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control-related matters that we identified during the audit.

1. Organization and Investment Objective

Western Asset Opportunistic Asian Securities Portfolio, L.L.C. (the “Fund”) was formed on December 29, 2006 as a Limited Liability Company (“LLC”) under the Delaware Limited Liability Company Act. Western Asset Management Company, LLC (“WAM”), a California corporation, is the Fund’s Investment Manager (the “Investment Manager”). Western Asset Management Company Limited (“WAMCL”), Western Asset Management Company Pte. Ltd. (“Western Asset Singapore”), Western Asset Management Company Ltd. (“Western Asset Tokyo”), Western Asset Management Company Distribuidora de Títulos e Valores Mobiliários Limitada (“Western Asset Brazil”), and Western Asset Management Company Pty. Ltd. (“Western Asset Melbourne”) are the sub-investment managers to the Fund. The Bank of New York Mellon, a wholly-owned subsidiary of The Bank of New York Mellon Corporation, is the custodian, transfer agent, and administrator to the Fund.

The investment objective of the Fund is to maximize total return consistent with prudent investment management. Under normal market conditions, the Fund expects to invest primarily, either directly or indirectly through investments in other commingled investment vehicles, in debt and fixed income securities of Asian issuers. The Fund may invest in both investment grade securities and securities rated below investment grade without limit.

At December 31, 2024, the Fund had two unaffiliated and one affiliated shareholder who individually held more than 10% of the Fund’s shares outstanding. The percentage of aggregate ownership was 64% and 36%, respectively. The Fund may be materially impacted by the actions of one or more of these shareholders.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of Accounting

In conformity with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States of America (“U.S. GAAP”), the Fund uses the accrual basis of accounting. Accordingly, income and expenses are recorded as earned and incurred, respectively.

The Fund is an investment company which follows accounting and reporting guidance in the Financial Accounting Standards Board (“FASB”) Accounting Standards Codification 946, Financial Services – Investment Companies.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements, in conformity with U.S. GAAP, requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of increases and decreases in net assets from operations during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Foreign Currency

Foreign currency consists of foreign currency on deposit with financial institutions.

Security Transactions and Investment Income

Security transactions are accounted for as of trade date. The cost of securities delivered and the net gain or loss on securities sold are determined using the first-in, first-out method. Interest income earned on securities is recorded net of applicable withholding taxes on the accrual basis. Interest income includes accretion of discounts and amortization of premiums which are recorded using the effective yield method. To the extent any issuer defaults or a credit event occurs that impacts the issuer, the Fund may halt any additional interest income accruals and consider the realizability of interest accrued up to the date of default or credit event.

Functional and Presentation Currency

Items included in the Fund's financial statements are measured using the currency of the primary economic environment in which it operates. Issuances, redemptions, and valuations of the shares are effected and denominated in the U.S. Dollars ("USD").

Foreign Currency Translation/Transactions

Investment securities and other assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are translated into USD amounts based upon prevailing exchange rates on the date of valuation. Purchases and sales of investment securities, income and expense items denominated in foreign currencies are translated into USD amounts based upon prevailing exchange rates on the respective dates of such transactions.

The Fund does not isolate that portion of the results of operations resulting from fluctuations in foreign exchange rates on investments from the fluctuations arising from changes in market prices of securities held. Such fluctuations are included within the net realized and unrealized gain or loss on investments on the Statement of Operations.

Net realized foreign exchange gains or losses arise from sales of foreign currencies, including exchange gains and losses on the settlement of forward foreign currency contracts, currency gains or losses realized between the trade and settlement dates on securities transactions, and the difference between the amounts of dividends, interest, and foreign withholding taxes recorded on the Fund's books and the USD equivalent of the amounts actually received or paid. Net unrealized foreign exchange gains or losses arise from changes in the fair values of assets and liabilities, other than investments in securities and derivative contracts, on the date of valuation, resulting from changes in exchange rates.

Certain foreign security and currency transactions may involve considerations and risks not typically associated with those of USD denominated transactions as a result of, among other factors, the possibility of lower levels of governmental supervision and regulation of foreign securities markets and the possibility of political or economic instability.

Income Taxes

For U.S. federal income tax purposes, the Fund is treated as a partnership. The shareholders are required to report their respective portion of the Fund's taxable income or loss on their own income tax returns and are liable for any related taxes thereon. Accordingly, no provision for federal or state taxes is made in the Fund's financial statements.

The Fund's federal and state income tax returns for the tax years for which the applicable statute of limitations have not expired are subject to examination by the Internal Revenue Service or state departments of revenue. There are currently no examinations being conducted of the Fund by the Internal Revenue Service or any other taxing authority.

The Fund is subject to the authoritative guidance with respect to accounting for and disclosure of uncertainty in tax positions, which requires the Fund to determine whether a tax position is more likely than not to be sustained upon examination. Management has analyzed the Fund's tax positions for all open tax years and has concluded that as of December 31, 2024, there are no uncertain tax positions that would require financial statement recognition or disclosure. The Fund's policy is to recognize interest and penalties, if any, related to uncertain tax positions as a component of income tax expense.

The Fund recognizes interest and penalties related to the underpayment of income taxes in operating expenses within the Statement of Operations. During the year ended December 31, 2024, no such interest and penalties were incurred.

Issuances and Redemptions of Shares of Participation

The net asset value of the Fund is determined on the relevant "Dealing Day". A Dealing Day is every business day on which federal, state or local banks are open for business in New York and the New York Stock Exchange is open for trading. Issuances and redemptions of Fund shares are made on such days, based upon the closing net asset value.

The Investment Manager may temporarily suspend the determination of the net asset value of the Fund, and the issuance and redemption of the Fund's shares, and may postpone the date of payment of redemption proceeds if, among other reasons, during any period when it is not reasonably practicable for the Investment Manager to fairly determine the value of the Fund's net assets. There were no such occurrences during the year ended December 31, 2024.

Distributions to Shareholders

Net investment income distributions and net realized or unrealized gains distributions will not be declared by the Fund on a regular basis, but may, however, be authorized and paid at such times as may be determined by the Investment Manager. There were no such distributions during the year ended December 31, 2024.

3. Valuation

The Fund has adopted procedures for determining the fair value of its investments each Dealing Day. Under these procedures, the Fund has delegated its authority to a pricing committee governed by the Investment Manager to determine the value of the Fund's investments each Dealing Day. The notes below describe in greater detail the methodologies used to value the Fund's investments.

The Fund uses both the income and market approaches to establish the fair value of its investments. Use of particular techniques and inputs may vary over time based on availability and relevance as market and economic conditions evolve.

The Investment Manager considers pricing techniques it deems relevant and appropriate when making fair value determinations. When determining the reliability of third-party pricing information for investments owned by the Fund, the Investment Manager, among other things, conducts due diligence reviews of pricing vendors, monitors the daily change in prices, and reviews transactions among market participants. In addition, prices which change from the prior day by greater than a pre-established threshold will be verified against additional pricing sources, when available, or by evaluation of verifiable changes to the model inputs that impacted the resulting fair value.

Exchange traded options, warrants, and publicly traded U.S. and non-U.S. equity securities are generally valued at the official closing price of, or the last reported sale price on, the exchange or market on which such securities are traded, as of the close of business on the day the securities are being valued or, lacking any sales, at the last available bid price. Futures contracts are valued at the last settlement price at the end of each day on the board of trade or exchange upon which they are traded.

Fixed-income securities, including short-term securities purchased with more than 60 days left to maturity, are generally valued at prices obtained from one or more pricing vendors. Vendors value such securities based on one or more inputs described in the following table. The table provides examples of inputs that are commonly relevant for valuing particular classes of fixed-income securities, in which the Fund is authorized to invest. However, these classifications are not exclusive, and any of the inputs may be used to value any other class of fixed-income security.

Fixed-income class and Derivatives	Examples of inputs
All	All benchmark yields, transactions, bids, offers, quotations from dealers and electronic trading systems, spreads and other relationships observed in the markets among comparable securities; and proprietary pricing models such as yield measures calculated using factors such as cash flows, financial or collateral performance and other reference data (collectively referred to as "standard inputs").
Corporate bonds and notes	Standard inputs and new issue data.
Bonds and notes of government and government agencies	Standard inputs.

Fixed-income class and Derivatives	Examples of inputs
Mortgage-backed and asset-backed obligations	Standard inputs, prepayment information, default rates, delinquency and loss assumptions, collateral characteristics, credit enhancements and specific deal information.
Structured products (including Interest Only and Principal Only securities and Collateralized Mortgage and Collateralized Debt Obligations)	Standard inputs, plus new issue data, monthly payment information and collateral performance.
Loans, loan participations and loan assignments	Transactions, bids, offers, and quotations from dealers.
Student loans	Standard inputs including the weighted average life of the loans.
Swaps and other derivatives	Standard inputs and interest rate curves, interest rate volatilities, credit spreads and recovery rates on the underlying reference securities, index spreads, foreign exchange spot and forward curves, and foreign exchange volatilities.

Where the Investment Manager deems it appropriate to do so (such as when vendor prices are unavailable or not deemed to be representative), fixed income securities will be valued in good faith at the mean quoted bid and asked prices that are reasonably and timely available or at prices for securities of comparable maturity, quality and type.

Short-term securities purchased within 60 days to maturity are valued at amortized cost, which approximates fair value.

Securities and investments for which representative market quotations are not readily available or are considered unreliable are fair valued in good faith by the Investment Manager. Various inputs may be reviewed in order to make a good faith determination of a security's fair value. These inputs include, but are not limited to, the type and cost of the security; contractual or legal restrictions on resale of the security; relevant financial or business developments of the issuer; actively traded similar or related securities; conversion or exchange rights on the security; related corporate actions; significant events occurring after the close of trading in the security; and changes in overall market conditions. Fair valuations and valuations of investments that are not actively trading involve judgment and may differ materially from valuations that would have been used had greater market activity occurred.

If third-party evaluated vendor pricing is neither available nor deemed to be indicative of fair value, the Investment Manager may elect to obtain indicative market quotations ("broker quotes") directly from a broker-dealer. Indicative market quotations are typically received from established market participants. The Investment Manager has requested transparency to view the underlying inputs which support these market quotations. When transparency to the underlying inputs is received from the broker then the security may be considered Level 2 of the fair value hierarchy if the inputs are observable. If the inputs are not transparent or are found to be unobservable, then the securities are categorized as Level 3 of the fair value hierarchy.

If broker quotations are not received as of the valuation date, the most recent available broker quotation(s) may be used. However, adjustments are made to the most recent broker quotation(s) based on interpolated changes in the yields of associated benchmark securities from the date upon which the broker quotation was received to the valuation date. Typically, benchmark securities are comprised of certain treasury securities with standard maturities. Specifically, the interpolated change in the yield is calculated using an interpolation factor which measures the duration of the security being priced versus the duration of the benchmark securities with durations immediately greater than and less than the security being priced. The interpolated yield change is then applied to the duration of the security to calculate the implied change in price.

Over-the-counter financial derivative instruments, such as forward foreign currency contracts, options contracts, swaptions contracts, or swap agreements, derive their value from underlying asset prices, indices, reference rates, and other inputs or a combination of these factors. These contracts are normally valued on the basis of pricing service providers or broker dealer quotations. Depending on the product and the terms of the transaction, the value of financial derivative instruments can be estimated by a pricing service provider using a series of techniques, including simulation pricing models. The pricing models use inputs that are observed from actively quoted markets such as issuer details, indices, spreads, interest rates, yield curves, and exchange rates.

Centrally cleared swaps transacted on a multilateral or trade facility platform, such as a registered exchange, are valued at the daily settlement price determined by the respective exchange. For centrally cleared credit default swaps, the clearing facility requires its members to provide actionable price levels across complete term structures. These levels along with external third-party prices are used to produce daily settlement prices. Centrally cleared interest rate swaps are valued using a pricing model that references the underlying rates including the overnight index swap rate and Secured Overnight Financing Rate forward rate to produce the daily settlement price. These securities are categorized as Level 2 of the fair value hierarchy.

Investments in a collective investment vehicle, including investments in investment companies, are valued using the net asset value of such investment vehicles, as a practical expedient.

The various inputs that are used in determining the fair value of the Fund's assets and liabilities are summarized into the broad levels listed below:

- Level 1 – quoted prices in active markets for identical investments.
- Level 2 – other significant observable inputs (including quoted prices for similar investments, interest rates, prepayment speeds, credit risk, etc.)

- Level 3 – significant unobservable inputs, including the Investment Manager’s own assumptions in determining the fair value of investments. Level 3 fair value techniques include (i) the use of proprietary models that require the use of judgment and the application of various assumptions including, but not limited to, prepayment assumptions and default rate assumptions, and (ii) the solicitation of valuations from third-parties (typically, broker-dealers). Third-party valuation providers often utilize proprietary models that are subjective and also require the use of judgment and the application of various assumptions including, but not limited to, prepayment assumptions and default rate assumptions.

The valuation levels are not necessarily an indication of the risk or liquidity associated with investing in those securities.

The following is a summary of the levels within the valuation hierarchy used in valuing the Fund’s assets and liabilities carried at fair value:

Legg Mason Western Asset China Bond Fund ("China Bond Fund") – The fund is one of the separate funds established under Legg Mason China funds, which is an open-ended unit trust established under the laws of Ireland pursuant to the Unit Trusts Act, 1990 and is regulated by the Central Bank. The investment objective of the China Bond Fund is to seek to achieve long-term capital appreciation. China Bond Fund will invest primarily in debt securities or money market instruments. China Bond Fund is invested in China A shares and debt securities pursuant to QFII Regulations and is subject to restrictions on investments, lock-up periods, and repatriation of principal and profits. Redemptions are permitted every other Wednesday. Signed redemption requests must be received by the administrator no later than 5:00pm (Irish time) on the fourth business day prior to the last business day of the month.

Western Asset India Bond Fund, L.L.C. – The investment objective of the fund is to maximize long-term total return, consisting of current income and medium- to long-term capital appreciation, consistent with prudent investment management. Under normal market conditions, the Fund intends to invest at least 80% of its assets in sovereign debt issued by the Republic of India and in fixed income securities of other issuers domiciled in India and Supranational Entities that issue fixed income securities in Indian Rupee. Redemption is permitted daily. A shareholder may redeem all or a portion of its shares upon 10 business days' prior written notice to the fund. There are no unfunded commitments due by the fund as of December 31, 2024.

At December 31, 2024, the Fund's ownership in the following issuers, including directly owned securities and in which other investment companies are invested, represented more than 5% of the Fund's net assets:

<sup>(2)</sup> Total return calculation is based on the value of a single share of participation outstanding throughout the year. It represents the percentage change in the net asset value per share between the beginning and end of the year.

The above ratios are calculated for the participating shares as a whole. An individual shareholder's total return and ratios may vary from these ratios based on the timing of capital share transactions.

9. Fund Investment Risks

Investment in Non-U.S. Securities

The Fund invests in securities of non-U.S. issuers which present certain special risks, including those resulting from future political, legal, and economic developments, which could include changes in currency exchange rates or exchange control regulations, expropriation of assets, confiscatory taxation, nationalization of assets, imposition of withholding or other taxes, adverse changes in investment capital or exchange control regulations, political changes, diplomatic developments, difficulty in obtaining and enforcing judgments against non-U.S. entities, the possible imposition of the applicable country's governmental laws or restrictions, and the reduced availability of public information concerning issuers. Additionally, issuers of non-U.S. securities are not generally subject to uniform accounting, auditing and financial reporting standards or other regulatory practices and requirements comparable to those applicable to U.S. issuers. In the event of nationalization, expropriation or other confiscation of assets, the Fund could lose its entire investment in a security.

The costs associated with investment in debt securities of non-U.S. issuers, including withholding taxes, brokerage commissions and custodial fees, may be higher than those associated with investment in debt securities of U.S. issuers. In addition, non-U.S. securities transactions may be subject to difficulties associated with the settlement of such transactions. Non-U.S. markets have different clearance and settlement procedures which in some markets have at times failed to keep pace with the volume of transactions, thereby creating substantial delays and settlement failures. Delays in settlement could result in temporary periods when assets of the Fund are uninvested and no return is earned thereon. Settlement failures could also adversely affect the Fund's performance.

The inability of the Fund to make intended security purchases due to settlement problems could cause it to miss attractive investment opportunities. Inability to dispose of a portfolio security due to settlement problems could result in losses to the Fund due to subsequent declines in value of the portfolio security.

Sovereign Debt Risk

The Fund may invest in sovereign debt instruments which can involve a high degree of risk. The governmental entity that controls the repayment of sovereign debt may not be able or willing to repay the principal and/or interest when due in accordance with the terms of the debt. A governmental entity's willingness or ability to repay principal and interest when due may be affected by, among other factors, its cash flow situation, the extent of its reserves, the availability of sufficient foreign exchange on the date a payment is due, the relative size of the debt service burden to the economy as a whole, the governmental entity's policy toward the International Monetary Fund, the political constraints to which a governmental entity may be subject, and changes in governments and political systems.

Non-Publicly Traded and Rule 144A Securities Risk

The Fund may invest in non-publicly traded and Rule 144A securities which may involve a high degree of business and financial risk and may result in substantial losses. These securities may be less liquid than publicly traded securities, and the Fund may take longer to liquidate these positions than would be the case for publicly traded securities. Although these securities may be resold in privately negotiated transactions, the prices realized from these sales could be less than those originally paid by the Fund. Further, companies whose securities are not publicly traded may not be subject to the disclosure and other investor protection requirements that would be applicable if their securities were publicly traded. Consequently, these securities may be difficult to value.

Interest Rate Risk

Interest rate risk is the risk that fixed income securities will decline in value because of changes in interest rates. As nominal interest rates rise, the value of certain fixed income securities held by the Fund is likely to decrease. A nominal interest rate can be described as the sum of a real interest rate and an expected inflation rate. Fixed income securities with longer durations tend to be more sensitive to changes in interest rates, usually making them more volatile than securities with shorter durations. Duration is used primarily as a measure of the sensitivity of a fixed income's market price to interest rate (i.e., yield) movements.

Liquidity Risk

The Fund may invest in assets and derivatives that may not be readily available to sell or dispose of, including securities whose disposition is restricted by securities laws. The effect of liquidity risk is particularly pronounced when low trading volume, lack of a market maker, large position size, or legal restrictions (including daily price fluctuation limits or “circuit breakers” or an affiliation with the issuer of a security) limit or prevent the Fund’s ability to initiate a transaction, sell assets, or unwind derivative positions at desirable prices. The Fund is also exposed to liquidity risk when it has an obligation to purchase particular securities (for example, as a result of entering into reverse repurchase agreements, writing a put, or closing out a short position).

Concentration of Risk

To the extent the Fund concentrates its investments in one or more countries, the value of the Fund’s assets will be especially affected by economic, political and other factors affecting such country or countries, and may fluctuate more widely than the value of a fund that invests in a greater number of countries.

Investments in Other Collective Investment Vehicles

The Fund invests in other commingled investment vehicles, including investment vehicles that are sponsored or advised by the Investment Manager or any of its affiliates. Such investment vehicles may have limited liquidity and any investment by the Fund in such vehicles will have the risks inherent in the instruments in which such vehicles invest.

10. Contingencies and Commitments

In the normal course of business, the Fund enters into contracts that contain a variety of representations and warranties, which provide general indemnifications. The Fund’s maximum exposure under these arrangements is unknown, as this would involve future claims that may be made against the Fund that have not yet occurred. Based on experience, management is of the view that the risk of loss in connection with these potential indemnification obligations is remote; however, there can be no assurance that material liabilities related to such obligations will not arise in the future that could adversely impact the business of the Fund.

11. Subsequent Events

The Fund has evaluated subsequent events through March 25, 2025, the date the financial statements were available to be issued. For the period January 1, 2025 through March 25, 2025, there were $2,843,898 of redemptions, which represented 11% of the Fund’s net assets.
