To Whom It May Concern,

This letter serves as a statement from Virginia Family Services regarding the filing of Form 5500. The company was unaware that it was responsible for submitting this filing independently. To the best of our knowledge, we believed that this requirement was being handled by ADP, as part of the administrative services we contracted them to perform on our behalf.

Virginia Family Services is committed to meeting all federal reporting obligations and maintaining transparency in all benefit plan administration activities.

We respectfully request that any late fees or penalties associated with this oversight be waived, if possible, as the delay was unintentional and based on our understanding that ADP was managing these filings on our behalf.
