REQUIRED COMMUNICATIONS

Auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAS) (AU-C 260, The Auditor's Communication With Those Charged With Governance) require the auditor to promote effective two-way communication between the auditor and those charged with governance. Consistent with this requirement, the following summarizes our responsibilities regarding the financial statement audit as well as observations arising from our audit that are significant and relevant to your responsibility to oversee the financial reporting process.

Our Responsibilities With Regard to the Financial Statement Audit

Our responsibilities under auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America have been described to you in our engagement letter dated August 19, 2025. Our audit of the financial statements does not relieve management or those charged with governance of their responsibilities, which are also described in that letter.

As management determined it is permissible in the circumstances and elected to have the audit of the Plan's financial statements performed in accordance with ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C), the audit did not extend to any certified investment information, except for obtaining and reading the certification, comparing the certified investment information with the related information presented and disclosed in the financial statements, and reading the disclosures relating to the certified investment information to assess whether they are in accordance with the presentation and disclosure requirements of the applicable financial reporting framework.

Overview of the Planned Scope and Timing of the Financial Statement Audit

We have issued a separate communication dated August 19, 2025, regarding the planned scope and timing of our audit and identified significant risks.

Accounting Policies and Practices

Preferability of Accounting Policies and Practices

Under accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, in certain circumstances, management may select among alternative accounting practices. In our view, in such circumstances, management has selected the preferable accounting practice.

Adoption of, or Change in, Accounting Policies

Management has the ultimate responsibility for the appropriateness of the accounting policies used by the Plan. The Plan did not adopt any significant new accounting policies, nor have there been any changes in existing significant accounting policies during the current period.

Significant Accounting Policies

We did not identify any significant accounting policies in controversial or emerging areas for which there is a lack of authoritative guidance or consensus.

Significant Unusual Transactions

We did not identify any significant unusual transactions.

Management's Judgments and Accounting Estimates

Summary information about the process used by management in formulating particularly sensitive accounting estimates and about our conclusions regarding the reasonableness of those estimates is in the attached Summary of Significant Accounting Estimates. Management is responsible for the estimation methods and assumptions used in measuring assets and liabilities reported and disclosed at fair value, including information from brokers, pricing services, or other third parties. The methods and significant assumptions used to determine fair values of the financial instruments are as follows:

Mutual Funds

Mutual funds are valued at the daily closing price as reported by the fund. Mutual funds held by the Plan are open-end mutual funds that are registered with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission. These funds are required to publish their daily net asset value (NAV) and to transact at that price. The mutual funds held by the Plan are deemed to be actively traded.

These valuation methodologies have been consistently applied by management from period to period. The methods and assumptions used result in a measure of fair value appropriate for financial statement measurement and disclosure purposes.

Audit Adjustments and Uncorrected Misstatements

There were no audit adjustments made to the original trial balance presented to us to begin our audit.

We are not aware of any uncorrected misstatements other than misstatement that are clearly trivial.

Form 5500 Filing

GAAS requires that we obtain and read a draft of the Plan's Form 5500 that is substantially complete prior to the dating of our auditor's report in order to identify material inconsistencies, if any, with the Plan's audited financial statements. We read the Plan's draft Form 5500 filing for consistency with information in the financial statements. We did not identify material inconsistencies with the audited financial statements, other than appropriate reconciling items with the draft Form 5500 as disclosed in the notes to the financial statements.

ERISA-Required Supplemental Schedule

We subjected the information included in the ERISA-required supplemental schedule, other than that agreed to or derived from the certified investment information, to auditing procedures applied in the audits of the financial statements and certain additional procedures, including comparing and reconciling such information directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements or the financial statements themselves, and other additional procedures in accordance with GAAS. The objective of these audit procedures was to determine whether the ERISA-required supplemental schedule, other than the certified investment information, are fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the financial statements as a whole, whether the form and content of the ERISA-required supplemental schedule are presented in conformity with the Department of Labor's (DOL) Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure Under ERISA, and whether the certified investment information in the supplemental schedule agrees to, or is derived from, the information prepared and certified by an institution that management determined meets the requirements of ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C). We will include an other-matter paragraph in our auditor's report for the ERISA-required supplemental schedule. We did not identify inconsistencies with the audited financial statements or with the certified investment information.

Observations About the Audit Process

Disagreements With Management

We encountered no disagreements with management over the application of significant accounting principles, the basis for management's judgments on any significant matters, the scope of the audit, or significant disclosures to be included in the financial statements.

Consultations With Other Accountants

We are not aware of any consultations management had with other accountants about accounting or auditing matters.

Significant Issues Discussed With Management

No significant issues arising from the audit were discussed or were the subject of correspondence with management.

Significant Difficulties Encountered in Performing the Audit

We did not encounter any significant difficulties in dealing with management during the audit.

Difficult or Contentious Matters That Required Consultation

We did not encounter any significant and difficult or contentious matters that required consultation outside the engagement team.

Reportable Findings

In planning and performing the audit, we considered plan provisions relevant to designing audit procedures for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the Plan's financial statements, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the Plan's compliance with those provisions. Our audit was not designed to identify all instances that the Plan is not operating in accordance with the Plan's provisions or other specified criteria that might be considered reportable findings.

A reportable finding is one or more of the following:

- A matter that is identified as an instance of noncompliance or suspected noncompliance with laws or regulations
- A finding arising from the audit that is significant and relevant to those charged with governance regarding their responsibility to oversee the financial reporting process
- A deficiency in internal control identified during the audit that has not been communicated to management by other parties that is of sufficient importance to merit management's attention

We are required to communicate reportable findings from the audit procedures performed relating to the plan provisions to you, in writing. We have included reportable findings that resulted in internal control deficiencies in Exhibit A.

Shared Responsibilities: AICPA Independence

The AICPA regularly emphasizes that auditor independence is a joint responsibility and is managed most effectively when management, audit committees (or their equivalents), and audit firms work together in considering compliance with American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA) independence rules. For Rea & Associates, Inc. to fulfill its professional responsibility to maintain and monitor independence, management, the Plan Committee, and Rea & Associates, Inc. each play an important role.

Our Responsibilities

- AICPA rules require independence both of mind and in appearance when providing audit and other attestation services. Rea & Associates, Inc. is to ensure that the AICPA's General Requirements for performing non-attest services are adhered to and included in all letters of engagement.
- Maintain a system of quality management over compliance with independence rules and firm policies.

Your Responsibilities

- Timely inform Rea & Associates, Inc., before the effective date of transactions or other business changes, of the following:
 - New affiliates, directors or officers.
 - New beneficial owners of the Plan Sponsor's stock which have significant influence.
 - Change in corporate structure impacting affiliates such as add-on acquisitions or exits.
- Provide necessary affiliate information such as new or updated investment structure charts, as well as financial information required to perform materiality calculations needed for making affiliate determinations.
- Understand and conclude on the permissibility, prior to the Plan and its affiliates, including the Plan Sponsor, and the officers, directors or persons in a decision-making capacity, engaging in business relationships with Rea & Associates, Inc.
- Not entering into relationships resulting in close family members of Rea & Associates, Inc. covered persons temporarily or permanently acting as an officer, director or person in an accounting or financial reporting oversight role at the Plan or Plan Sponsor.

Internal Control Matters

We have separately communicated control deficiencies that are reportable findings in internal control over financial reporting identified during our audit of the financial statements, and this communication is attached as Exhibit A.

Significant Written Communications Between Management and Our Firm

Copies of significant written communications between our firm and the management of the Plan, including the representation letter provided to us by management, are attached as Exhibit B.

EXHIBIT A

Internal Control Matters

November 11, 2025

Plan Administrator and Plan Committee
Agility Partners 401(k) Savings Plan
Columbus, OH

In planning and performing our audit of the financial statements of Agility Partners 401(k) Savings Plan (the Plan) as of December 31, 2024, and for the year then ended, in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America, we considered relevant plan provisions and the Plan's internal control over financial reporting (internal control) as a basis for designing audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the financial statements, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the Plan's compliance with those provisions or on the effectiveness of the Plan's internal control. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion on the Plan's compliance with plan provisions or on the effectiveness of the Plan's internal control.

Our consideration of relevant plan provisions and internal control was for the limited purpose described in the preceding paragraph and was not designed to identify all instances that the Plan is not operating in accordance with the Plan's provisions or deficiencies in internal control that might be material weaknesses or significant deficiencies. Therefore, instances that the Plan is not operating in accordance with plan provisions or deficiencies in internal control, including material weaknesses or significant deficiencies, may exist that were not identified.

Instances where the Plan is not operating in accordance with plan provisions may be indicative of a deficiency in internal control. A deficiency in internal control exists when the design or operation of a control does not allow management or employees, in the normal course of performing their assigned functions, to prevent, or detect and correct, misstatements on a timely basis. A deficiency in design exists when (a) a control necessary to meet the control objective is missing, or (b) an existing control is not properly designed so that, even if the control operates as designed, the control objective would not be met. A deficiency in operation exists when a properly designed control does not operate as designed or when the person performing the control does not possess the necessary authority or competence to perform the control effectively.

A material weakness is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control, such that there is a reasonable possibility that a material misstatement of the entity's financial statements will not be prevented, or detected and corrected, on a timely basis

A significant deficiency is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control that is less severe than a material weakness, yet important enough to merit attention by those charged with governance.

Following are descriptions of other identified deficiencies in internal control that we determined did not constitute significant deficiencies or material weaknesses:

Documentation of Review of Plan Elements and Fiduciary Oversight

During our audit inquiries of Plan management, it came to our attention that there is no documentation maintained of review of plan elements or fiduciary oversight over the Plan. With the complexity of tax laws covering the qualifications of the Plan and plan fiduciary responsibilities, it is important that the responsible parties adequately document the due diligence exercised over the operations and oversight of the Plan.

We recommend Plan management and Plan fiduciaries meet periodically (as often as needed, but at least annually) and maintain documentation of meeting date, time, and attendees as well as meeting agenda, decisions made, and resulting action items. The periodic meetings should consider items such as:

- Consideration and approval of plan amendments (or recommendation of amendments for the Board of Directors)
- Compliance with ERISA regulations
- Creation and monitoring of investment policy, selection of investment options, review of plan's investment performance and related fees
- Evaluation of service providers and related fees
- Employee complaints or concerns, if any

Employee Demographic Data

During our audit, we noted there are insufficient controls in place to ensure that employee data matches between the recordkeeping system and payroll system. We noted certain employee data did not match between service providers, specifically date of hire and termination, and therefore, alternative procedures were used to ensure the discrepancies did not affect Plan operations. It is important that employee data in the recordkeeping system be accurate since this is the data used for Plan operations and to ensure the plan's compliance with laws and regulations.

We recommend Plan management put policies and procedures into place to ensure employee data captured in the recordkeeping system is reviewed for accuracy and relevance for proper Plan operations.

Early Entry into the Plan

During our audit, we noted there are insufficient controls in place related to participant eligibility dates and entry dates as defined by plan provisions. We noted that certain employees contributed to the Plan prior to their calculated entry date. We discussed with Plan management and they agreed.

Plan management needs to consult with the Plan service provider to determine the most appropriate correction method for employees entered into the Plan early. Generally, correction can include distribution of ineligible contributions or retroactive Plan amendment. We will request proof of correction when performing next year's audit.

We recommend Plan management implement policies and procedures to ensure accurate participant demographic data is tracked to determine proper eligibility date and entry date based on plan provisions. We also recommend that Plan management complete a historical review of plan entry dates and initial contributions by employees to ensure no other early entry dates are found that would require correction.

Eligible Compensation

During our audit, we noted that the compensation used for calculating employee deferrals is not consistent with the definition of eligible compensation stated in the plan document. There were wages that were excluded from compensation when the plan document states these are eligible wages. We discussed with Plan management and they agreed.

Plan management needs to calculate and deposit corrective contributions to the affected participants, including Qualified Nonelective Contributions (QNEC) for employee missed deferral opportunity, missed match, and related lost earnings. We will request proof of correction when performing next year's audit.

We recommend Plan management improve its internal controls and processes over the calculation of eligible compensation and provide the necessary training to the persons responsible for setting up payroll and new payroll codes.

Mandatory Distributions

During our audit, we found that there is no procedural control in place to ensure that mandatory distributions are processed following severance of employment for participants with an account balance of $5,000 or less, pursuant to Plan provisions. We noted participant accounts exist at audit year end that belong to terminated employees and do not exceed $5,000.

We recommend Plan management consult with its service provider to develop a procedural control to periodically (at least annually) review the accounts of terminated employees and process mandatory distributions pursuant to Plan provisions. If mandatory distributions cannot be made due to missing participants, plan fiduciary must be able to demonstrate compliance with DOL's missing participants guidance (<https://www.dol.gov/agencies/ebsa/employers-and-advisers/plan-administration-and-compliance/retirement/missing-participants-guidance>) regarding efforts made in locating missing participants or the selection of a distribution option for the benefit of missing participants.

This communication is intended solely for the information and use of the Plan Administrator, management, Plan Committee and others within the Plan, and is not intended to be, and should not be, used by anyone other than these specified parties.

This representation letter is provided in connection with your audit of the financial statements of Agility Partners 401(k) Savings Plan (the Plan), an employee benefit plan subject to the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA), which comprise the statements of net assets available for benefits as of December 31, 2024, the related statement of changes in net assets available for benefits for the year ended December 31, 2024, and the related notes to the financial statements.

We elected to have the audit of the plan's financial statements performed in accordance with ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) pursuant to 29 CFR 2520.103-8 of the Department of Labor's (DOL) Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA. We acknowledge that the audit did not extend to any statements or information related to assets held for investment of the plan (investment information) by a bank or similar institution or insurance carrier, that is regulated, supervised and subject to periodic examination by a state or federal agency, a qualified institution, that prepared and certified the investment information in accordance with 29 CFR 2520.103-5 of the DOL's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA. We have determined that an ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit is permissible under the circumstances. We have also determined that the investment information is prepared and certified by a qualified institution as described by 29 CFR 2520.103-8, that the certification meets the requirements in 29 CFR 2520.103-5 and, that the certified investment information is appropriately measured, presented, and disclosed in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (U.S. GAAP).

The purpose of an ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit is to express an opinion on whether the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements, other than those agreed to or derived from the certified investment information, are presented fairly, in all material respects, in accordance with U.S. GAAP and that the assets held by and certified to by a qualified institution agrees to, or is derived from, in all material respects, the certified investment information.

Certain representations in this letter are described as being limited to matters that are material. Items are considered to be material, regardless of size, if they involve an omission or misstatement of accounting information that, in light of surrounding circumstances, makes it probable that the judgment of a reasonable person relying on the information would be changed or influenced by the omission or misstatement.

We confirm that, to the best of our knowledge and belief, having made such inquiries as we considered necessary for the purpose of appropriately informing ourselves as of the date of this letter,
