Re: Reasonable Cause Statement for Late Filing of Form 5500
Plan Name: Steadfast City Economic & Community Partners 401k Plan
EIN/Plan Number: 47-2772892 / 721169
Plan Year: 2024
Submission: Delinquent Form 5500 Filing

To Whom It May Concern:

We are submitting this letter to request penalty relief for the late filing of our Form 5500 under the IRS reasonable cause provisions.

This was our organization's first time filing Form 5500, and the delay occurred due to a misunderstanding regarding who was responsible for submitting the filing. Our agreement with Doug Rasmussen Consulting and ADP Retirement Services indicated that Form 5500 preparation and filing support were included services. Based on this understanding, we believed that the filing process was being handled by our service providers. We were not aware that additional authorization or action was required on our part in order for the filing to be completed.

Once we became aware that the Form 5500 had not been submitted, we acted promptly and in good faith to prepare and file the form as quickly as possible. At no time did we intentionally disregard any filing requirements, and we have since implemented internal procedures to ensure full compliance going forward. These include:

- Clear internal assignment of Form 5500 filing responsibility
- Confirmation protocols with service providers prior to filing deadlines
- Calendar reminders and compliance reviews to prevent future oversights

Because this was our first year filing, the delay was the result of reasonable misunderstanding rather than willful neglect. We respectfully request that any penalties associated with this late filing be waived.

Thank you for your consideration. Please contact us if any additional information is required.

Sincerely,

Dominique McKinnon
