Re: Cincinnati Catholic Group Trust 401(k) Plan

Dear Mike:

This letter is in follow up to our telephone discussion regarding the status of the Cincinnati Catholic Group Trust 401(k) Plan (the "CCG Plan") as a church plan under Section 414(e) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code").

The first question is whether the CCG Plan is a church plan. The short answer is yes.

Code Section 414(e) defines a church plan as an employee benefit plan established and maintained by a church or by a convention or association of churches that is exempt from tax under Code Section 501. Although the Code defines a church plan, one of the main benefits of being a church plan is that it is exempt from the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended ("ERISA"). This has resulted in the definition of church plan being further interpreted by the Department of Labor to include a plan that is established or maintained by an organization that is associated with or controlled by a church. The CCG Plan is a church plan because all of the schools that adopted the CCG Plan are associated with or controlled by a church (through the Archdiocese of Cincinnati).

The second question is whether the CCG Plan is still a church plan even though the initial plan document included ERISA provisions and a Form 5500 was filed for the initial short plan year ending December 31, 2023. The short answer is the CCG Plan is still a church plan.

As noted above, a church plan, by definition, is exempt from ERISA. Waiving that ERISA exemption requires a specific process to be followed. In general, merely describing an arrangement as an ERISA plan is not sufficient to make an otherwise exempt plan subject to ERISA. (See DOL Advisory Opinion 2000-05A). Rather, a church plan is automatically exempt from the ERISA requirements unless it follows a specific process to waive the exemption from ERISA. The plan administrator of the church plan may make this special election by filing a statement either with the Form 5500 filing or with an IRS Determination Letter request. Once the election is made, it is irrevocable. This special statement was not filed with the Form 5500. Maintaining and operating a plan as if it is subject to ERISA is insufficient to be the affirmative election to waive the ERISA exemption (See PLR 201247023). Based on this guidance, it is reasonable to take the position that the adoption of a non-church plan document and the filing of the Form 5500 for the short plan year ending December 31, 2023 without the statement waiving the ERISA exemption is not sufficient to waive the exemption from ERISA for the CCG Plan.

The final question is how to correct the Form 5500 filing and clarify the status of the CCG Plan as a church plan exempt from ERISA. The best approach is to amend the 2023 Form 5500 and mark it as a final Form 5500. In addition, the CCG Plan document should be amended and restated using the Empower prototype document applicable to a church plan. I'm glad to review the restated document.

If you have questions or would like to discuss this further, please let me know.

Sincerely,
