Plan Year End: 12-31-2023

To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing in response to the notice regarding the late filing of the 2023 Form 5500-SF for Destiny House Group Homes. Destiny House Group Homes formally closed in 2022 and has had no business operations, no employees, and no revenue since that time. There has been no plan activity or financial changes since the organization ceased operations.

In 2022, our third-party administrator, ADP, informed me that they were completing the final Form 5500-SF filing on behalf of the organization. Based on this communication, I understood that the required final filing had been submitted and that no future filings would be necessary. I recently learned that the filing was not marked as a final return, which caused the IRS system to continue generating filing requirements for 2023, despite the plan and business being fully closed.

This situation was an unintentional oversight that occurred while relying on information provided during the plan wind-down. Destiny House had no operations, no employees, and no plan activity in 2023. ADP is now in the process of submitting the corrected final Form 5500-SF to officially close out the plan.

Given these circumstances and the good-faith effort to comply with all requirements at the time of closure, I respectfully request abatement of all IRS and Department of Labor penalties associated with this late filing.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,

Falaya DeSilva Plan Sponsor / Former Owner Destiny House Group Homes Phone: 866-332-5292
