To Whom It May Concern,

Our client, R & D Pattern & Foundry Co Inc, received a Notice 1393 (Rev. 1-2010) regarding the filing of their Form 5500 Series Annual Return/Report. R & D Pattern & Foundry Co Inc is required to file a Form 5500-SF annually but failed to file a timely Form 5500 for a plan year ending in 2023. This organization has a fiscal year that starts on October 1st and ends on September 30th. This filing is the organization's final year that they are required to file a Form 5500 because the plan has been terminated and all the plan assets have been distributed for plan year October 1, 2022, to September 30, 2023. Historically, R & D Pattern & Foundry Co Inc has had their CPA, Dick Shanahan, file their Form 5500 annually. This CPA worked for our firm at Integrated Tax Solutions and has retired in recent months. Unfortunately, within the past two years, the CPA has declined in health and developed cancer over the past year and has not been able to perform work duties as effectively as in years prior.

Our firm has recently discovered that the final Form 5500 for R & D Pattern & Foundry Co Inc for plan year ending September 30, 2023, was never successfully electronically filed. Our CPA, that handled R & D Pattern & Foundry Co Inc's account, filed Form 5500 for the plan year end of September 30, 2023, which was the plan's final year of filing, but the validation process failed and was never filed. Recently, this matter came to our attention, and we are rectifying it as soon as possible to avoid any further delays with this filing. We understand that there is a possibility of penalties that can be assessed due to the late filing and failure of filing Form 5500. We are requesting that any penalties that may be applicable and/or assessed be waived. We believe that we have reasonable cause for a late filing of Form 5500 due to the CPA's serious health conditions which caused the inability to file a timely Form 5500 for R & D Pattern & Foundry Co Inc. We appreciate the time you all take as you investigate this matter and the consideration of waiving any and all applicable penalties.
