Subject: Explanation for Late Filing of Form 5500

Dear Sir or Madam,

We are writing to explain the circumstances surrounding our delayed filing of Form 5500. Due to an unanticipated staffing transition in our Human Resources department, our organization was without an HR manager for several months during the reporting period. As a result, important administrative functions, including benefits reporting, accumulated in a backlog.

When our new HR manager joined the organization, the immediate operational priority was to address pressing compliance and personnel matters that had been temporarily on hold. During this period of transition, the Form 5500 filing deadline was inadvertently missed.

We take full responsibility for this oversight and have since implemented improved internal processes to ensure timely completion and submission of all future filings. These measures include additional cross-departmental reviews and calendar-based compliance reminders to prevent similar issues from occurring.

We respectfully request that you consider these circumstances in reviewing our late submission and acknowledge the steps we have taken to correct and prevent future delays. Our Plan Number is 109595 and the form year in question is 2024. Please let us know the next steps in complying with filing Form 5500.

Thank you for your time and understanding. Please contact us if any additional documentation or clarifications are required.

Sincerely,

John Moorman
