U.S. Department of Labor
Employee Benefits Security Administration

To Whom It May Concern,

I am writing on behalf of ezTaxReturn.com LLC to provide a reasonable cause explanation for the late filing of our Form 5500 for year 2024.

The delay occurred following the termination of the company's Chief Financial Officer effective January 15, 2025 and our Accounting Manager effect June 4, 2025. As a result of this transition, the company temporarily lost administrative access to several critical systems required to complete the filing process, including ADP. During this period, ezTaxReturn.com also needed to identify and onboard a new fractional finance lead to assume the responsibilities previously handled by the CFO, including oversight of compliance and required regulatory filings.

These circumstances caused an unforeseen disruption in our ability to prepare and submit the Form 5500 on time. Once system access was restored and the new finance lead was in place, we worked promptly to complete and submit the required filing.

We sincerely apologize for the delay and respectfully request that the Department of Labor consider these circumstances as reasonable cause. ezTaxReturn.com is committed to maintaining full compliance with all reporting requirements and has taken steps to ensure appropriate oversight of future filings.

Thank you for your consideration.

Best regards,
Sarah Hasan
