Report of Independent Auditors

To the Participants and Management of
The Pearson Retirement Plan

Scope and Nature of the ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) Audit

We have performed audits of the financial statements of The Pearson Retirement Plan (the Plan), an employee benefit plan subject to the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA), as permitted by ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) (ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit). The financial statements comprise the statements of net assets available for benefits as of December 31, 2024 and 2023, and the related statements of changes in net assets available for benefits for the years then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

Management, having determined it is permissible in the circumstances, has elected to have the audits of the Plan's financial statements performed in accordance with ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) pursuant to 29 CFR 2520.103-8 of the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA. As permitted by ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C), our audits need not extend to any statements or information related to assets held for investment of the Plan (investment information) by a bank or similar institution or insurance carrier that is regulated, supervised, and subject to periodic examination by a state or federal agency, provided that the statements or information regarding assets so held are prepared and certified to by the bank or similar institution or insurance carrier in accordance with 29 CFR 2520.103-5 of the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA (qualified institution).

Management has obtained certifications from a qualified institution as of December 31, 2024 and 2023, and for the years then ended, stating that the certified investment information, as described in Note 6 to the financial statements, is complete and accurate.

Opinion

In our opinion, based on our audits and on the procedures performed as described in the Auditors' Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report:

- The amounts and disclosures in the accompanying financial statements, other than those agreed to or derived from the certified investment information, are presented fairly, in all material respects, in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; and
- The information in the accompanying financial statements related to assets held by and certified to by a qualified institution agrees to, or is derived from, in all material respects, the information prepared and certified by an institution that management determined meets the requirements of ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C).

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAS). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditors' Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of the Plan and to meet our other ethical responsibilities, in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audits. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error. Management's election of the ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit does not affect management's responsibility for the financial statements.

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Plan's ability to continue as a going concern within one year after that the financial statements are available to be issued.

Management is also responsible for maintaining a current Plan instrument, including all Plan amendments, administering the Plan, and determining that the Plan's transactions that are presented and disclosed in the financial statements are in conformity with the Plan's provisions, including maintaining sufficient records with respect to each of the participants, to determine the benefits due or which may become due to such participants.

Auditors' Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Except as described in the Scope and Nature of the ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) Audit section of our report, our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditors' report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with GAAS will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with GAAS, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit;
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements;
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Plan's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed;
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements; and
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Plan's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

Our audits did not extend to the certified investment information, except for obtaining and reading the certifications, comparing the certified investment information with the related information presented and disclosed in the financial statements, and reading the disclosures relating to the certified investment information to assess whether they are in accordance with the presentation and disclosure requirements of accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Accordingly, the objective of an ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit is not to express an opinion about whether the financial statements as a whole are presented fairly, in all material respects, in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control-related matters that we identified during the audit.

The Pearson Retirement Plan

Notes to Financial Statements

December 31, 2024 and 2023

Note 1. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Method of Accounting - The accompanying financial statements of The Pearson Retirement Plan (the Plan) have been prepared using the accrual basis of accounting.

Investments - The investments of the Plan are reported at fair value. The fair value of a financial instrument is the amount that would be received to sell that asset (or paid to transfer a liability) in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date (the exit price). Net appreciation or depreciation includes the Plan's gains and losses on investments bought and sold as well as held during the year.

Purchases and sales of the investments are reflected on a trade-date basis.

Dividend income is recorded on the ex-dividend date.

Notes Receivable from Participants - Notes receivable from participants are measured at their unpaid principal balance plus any accrued but unpaid interest. Interest income is recorded on the accrual basis. Related fees are recorded as administrative expenses and are expensed when they are incurred. No allowance for credit losses has been recorded as of either December 31, 2024 or 2023. Delinquent notes receivable from participants are recorded as a distribution based upon the terms of the Plan document.

Payment of Benefits - Benefits are recorded when paid. There were no participants who elected to withdraw from the Plan but were not yet paid at either December 31, 2024 or 2023.

Expenses - Certain administrative expenses of maintaining the Plan are paid by the Plan sponsor and are excluded from these financial statements. Fees and expenses included in the financial statements represent direct charges to participants' accounts related to investment consulting and processing of notes receivable. Certain investment related expenses are included in net appreciation in fair value of investments.

Estimates - The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain reported amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Subsequent Events - Subsequent events have been evaluated through March 25, 2026, which is the date the financial statements were available to be issued.

Note 2. Description of the Plan

The Plan was established to encourage and assist participants to provide for their future economic security pursuant to the Plan meeting the requirements of Sections 401(a), 401(k) and 401(m) of the Internal Revenue Code. The Plan is a multiple employer defined contribution retirement plan covering all employees of Pearson Education, Inc. and certain participating companies (collectively, the Company) who have met the eligibility requirements specified in the Plan document. The Plan is subject to provisions of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA), as amended. Benefits under the Plan are not insured by the Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation.

In general, full-time employees are eligible to participate in the Plan on their hire date and are automatically enrolled with a pre-tax contribution rate of 6% of compensation, unless they affirmatively elect not to participate in the Plan, with an automatic annual deferral increase of 1% up to a maximum of 8%. Participants have the ability to opt out of automatic increases. Automatically enrolled participants have their contributions invested in a designated investment fund until changed by the participant.

Employees may elect to have the Company withhold and contribute to the Plan up to 50 percent of their annual pre-tax compensation, as defined by the Plan, subject to limitations imposed by the Internal Revenue Code.

The Company may match a percentage of a participant's pre-tax contributions. For the years ended December 31, 2024 and 2023, the matching formula was 100% of the first 3%, plus 50% of the next 5% of elective deferrals that the participant contributes to the Plan. Matching employer contributions, net of forfeitures, totaled $32,474,977 and $33,358,525 for 2024 and 2023, respectively. The Company may also make other discretionary contributions to the Plan, subject to Internal Revenue Code limits.

The Plan also accepts rollover contributions from participants, representing distributions from other qualified retirement plans.

Contributions to the Plan are invested as directed by the participant in various investment options. In the absence of participant direction, contributions are invested in a designated investment fund. Participants must evaluate their own investment goals and objectives and choose the investments best suited to achieve those goals and objectives. Poor investment performance by the investment funds selected by the participants may cause their vested balances to be lower than the amounts contributed to the Plan on their behalf.

Participants are immediately vested in their elective deferrals and rollover contributions plus actual earnings thereon. Vesting in employer contributions is based on years of service from the date of hire. Participants are one-third vested after one year of service, two-thirds vested after two years of service and fully vested after three years of credited service. A year of service represents each 12-month period commencing on the participant's employment date. Participants' accounts become fully vested upon normal retirement, permanent disability or death.

Each participant's account is credited with the participant's contributions and an allocation of the Company's matching contributions as well as allocations of the Company's profit sharing contribution (if any) and Plan earnings or losses. Participant accounts are charged fees and expenses based upon specific participant transactions. Allocations are based on the participant's account balances, or specific participant transactions, as defined. The benefit to which a participant is entitled is the benefit that can be provided from the participant's vested account.

Upon termination of service due to death, disability or attainment of age 59½, a participant may receive a lump-sum amount equal to the value of the participant's vested account. Participants in service may make hardship withdrawals from their vested contributions upon demonstrating immediate and heavy financial need, as allowed under federal rules.

Participants may borrow from their vested account balances a minimum of $1,000 up to a maximum of the lesser of $50,000 or 50% of their account balance. Loan terms range up to five years or up to ten years for the purchase of a primary residence. The loans are secured by the balance in the participant's account and bear interest at one point above the prime rate in effect as of the loan date. Interest rates on participant loans ranged from 4.25% to 9.50% at both December 31, 2024 and 2023. Principal and interest are repaid ratably through payroll deductions.

At December 31, 2024 and 2023, net assets available for benefits include unallocated amounts totaling $8,692,145 and $8,430,065 respectively, which represent forfeited nonvested accounts. Forfeited nonvested accounts may be used to reduce future employer contributions and are also held to restore accounts for participants who return to employment. During 2024, employer contributions related to the year ended December 31, 2023 were reduced by $3,866,314. During 2023, employer contributions related to the year ended December 31, 2022 were reduced by $5,107,012.

Effective April 1, 2025, the Plan adopted an amendment to allow the Company to make matching contributions to the Plan based on a participant's qualified student loan payments. These matching contributions will be made at the same rate as elective deferrals.

Participants should refer to the summary plan description for more complete information.

Note 3. Priorities upon Termination

Although it has not expressed any intent to do so, the Company has the right to discontinue its contributions at any time and to terminate the Plan subject to the provisions set forth in ERISA. In the event of Plan termination, participants would become 100% vested in the Company contribution portion of their account.

Note 4. Tax Status

A favorable determination letter dated May 4, 2016, has been received from the Internal Revenue Service stating the Plan and related trust are in accordance with applicable sections of the Internal Revenue Code and, therefore, exempt from federal income taxes under provisions of Section 501(a). The Plan has been amended and restated since receiving the determination letter. However, the Plan Administrator believes that the Plan is currently designed and being operated in compliance with the applicable requirements of the Code, and therefore believes that the Plan was qualified and the related trust was tax-exempt as of the financial statement date.

Accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America require the Plan to evaluate tax positions taken by the Plan and recognize a tax liability if the Plan has taken an uncertain position that more likely than not would not be sustained upon examination by tax authorities. The Plan is subject to routine audits by taxing jurisdictions; however, there are currently no audits for any tax periods in progress.

Note 5. Fair Value Measurements

The Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures Topic of the FASB Accounting Standards Codification established a fair value hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value. The hierarchy gives the highest priority to unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (Level 1 measurements) and the lowest priority to unobservable inputs (Level 3 measurements). The three levels of the fair value hierarchy are described below:

Basis of Fair Value Measurement

Level 1	Unadjusted quoted prices in active markets that are accessible at the measurement date for identical, unrestricted assets or liabilities
Level 2	Quoted prices in markets that are not considered to be active or financial instruments for which all significant inputs are observable, either directly or indirectly
Level 3	Prices or valuations that require inputs that are both significant to the fair value measurement and unobservable

The following tables set forth, by level within the fair value hierarchy, the Plan's investment assets at fair value as of December 31, 2024 and 2023. As required, assets and liabilities are classified in their entirety based on the lowest level of input that is significant to the fair value measurement. In accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, certain investments that are measured at fair value using the net asset per share (or its equivalent) practical expedient have not been classified in the fair value hierarchy. The fair value amounts presented in the following tables are intended to permit reconciliation of the fair value hierarchy to the amounts presented in the statements of net assets available for benefits.

Total	$ 2,254,955,559

Level 1 Measurements

The fair values of the mutual funds are determined by reference to the funds' underlying assets, which are principally marketable equity and fixed income securities. Shares held in mutual funds are traded on national securities exchanges and are valued at the net asset value as of the last business day of each period presented.

Measurements Using Net Asset Value as a Practical Expedient

The common collective trusts and pooled separate accounts are valued at the net asset value per share, used as a practical expedient to estimate fair value. The net asset value is based on the fair values of the underlying investments held by the fund less its liabilities. This practical expedient is not used when it is determined to be probable that the fund will sell the investment for an amount different than the reported net asset value.

The common collective trusts and pooled separate accounts are direct filing entities (DFE) and file a Form 5500 annual report with the U.S. Department of Labor. The Plan is not required to disclose the significant investment strategies of DFE investments. Redemptions are available on a daily basis without notice.

Note 6. Information Certified by Plan Trustee

The following information which appears in the accompanying financial statements and ERISA-required supplemental schedules, related to investments and notes receivable from participants held as of December 31, 2024 and 2023, and net appreciation in fair value of investments, dividends, and interest income on notes receivable from participants, for the years then ended, was obtained by management and agreed to or derived from information certified as complete and accurate by Empower Trust Company, LLC, a qualified institution.

Dividends	$ 33,538,675	$ 30,128,524
Interest on notes receivable from participants	$ 991,659	$ 832,821

Note 7. Risks and Uncertainties

The Plan invests in various investment securities. Investment securities are exposed to various risks such as interest rate, market and credit risks. Due to the level of risk associated with certain investment securities, it is reasonably possible that changes in the values of investment securities will occur in the near term and that such changes could materially affect participants' account balances and the amounts reported in the statements of net assets available for benefits.

The Plan has a significant portion of its assets invested in one equity common collective trust, which represents approximately 21% of the Plan's net assets available for benefits as of December 31, 2024. It is reasonably possible that changes in the value of this investment could materially affect the participants' account balances and amounts reported in the statements of net assets available for benefits. The Plan's exposure to a concentration of credit risk is limited by the diversification of investments across the participant-directed fund elections. Additionally, the investments within each participant-directed fund election are further diversified into varied financial investments. Investment decisions are made, and the resulting risks are borne, exclusively by the Plan participant who made such decisions. The Plan had no investment concentrations as of December 31, 2023.

Note 8. Party-In Interest Transactions

Empower Trust Company, LLC (Empower) is the trustee and recordkeeper for the Plan. In addition, certain Plan investments are owned and managed by Empower.

The Plan also has notes receivable from participants which qualify as party-in-interest transactions.

In addition, the Company, as Plan sponsor, is a party-in-interest.

Except as described in Note 10, Plan management believes that transactions between the Plan and its parties-in-interest are considered exempt party-in-interest transactions under ERISA.

Note 9. Revenue Sharing Income

Empower Trust Company, LLC (Empower) provides certain administrative services to the Plan pursuant to a Master Trust Services Agreement (MSA). Empower receives revenue from mutual fund service providers for services Empower provides to the funds. This revenue is used to offset certain amounts owed to Empower for its administrative services to the Plan. If the revenue received by Empower from such mutual fund service providers exceeds the amount owed under the MSA, Empower remits the excess to the Plan on a quarterly basis. Such amounts may be applied to pay administrative expenses incurred by the Plan.

Note 10. Participant Contributions

The Plan sponsor withholds participants' contributions from their payroll. During the years ended December 31, 2024 and 2023, there were certain instances where the Plan sponsor failed to remit participant contributions within the period prescribed by the Department of Labor regulations. Specifically, the regulations require the Plan sponsor to segregate participant contributions to the Plan from their general assets as soon as practicable. Late payments totaling $4,109,841 for the year ended December 31, 2024, did not meet the timeliness requirement and therefore constitute prohibited transactions with a party-in-interest. The Plan sponsor has since corrected the operational errors related to participants' contributions. No remittances of participant contributions were deemed delinquent for the year ended December 31, 2023.

During the years ended December 31, 2024 and 2023 at total of $7,613 and $16,939 in employee contributions in excess of amounts allowed by IRS nondiscrimination rules were made to the Plan by Plan participants. Excess contributions are returned to participants subsequent to year end. Due to the immaterial nature of excess amounts, the Plan did not record the refunds as liabilities on the statements of net assets available for benefits.

Note 11. Transfer of Net Assets

As a result of a merger, participants of the Credly 401(k) Plan became participants of the Plan effective March 31, 2023. Net assets transferred to the Plan as a result of this merger during the year ended December 31, 2023 totaled $5,442,342.

Note 12. Contingencies

From time to time, lawsuits or claims have been or may be asserted against the Plan. The outcome of any litigation cannot be predicted with certainty, and some lawsuits may be determined adversely to the Plan. However, the Plan does not believe that the ultimate outcome of any such pending matters is likely to have a material adverse effect on the Plan's net assets available for benefits, although the resolution in any fiscal period of one or more of these matters may have a material adverse effect on the Plan's net assets available for benefits for that period.

On December 18, 2024, the Company and the Administrative Committee for the Benefit Plans of Pearson Education, Inc. (the Committee) were served with a proposed class action complaint in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York alleging that the Company and the Committee breached their fiduciary duties to participants of the Plan by utilizing forfeited funds for reductions in employer contributions and by failing to control the Plan's overall managed account expenses. The plaintiffs seek various forms of relief, including damages and declaratory and injunctive relief. The Company believes that it has been managing forfeited funds and Plan expenses within legal authority and its policies.

In February 2025, the Company filed a motion to dismiss. In March 2025, the plaintiff filed an amended complaint, and in April 2025, the Company and Committee filed its second motion to dismiss. In June 2025, the Plaintiff filed its opposition to the revised motion to dismiss and in July 2025, the Company filed a reply in support of the revised motion to dismiss. The Company continues to deny the allegations in the amended complaint and is defending itself and the Committee.
