October 15, 2025

Dear Sir or Madam,

As the plan sponsor of the Pharmaron 401K plan, we are submitting this letter to accompany our form 5500 filing for the plan year ending 2024. Due to recent changes in personnel responsible for administering and servicing the plan, certain supporting documentation required for completion of the plans audited financial statements has been delayed. The transition in staff has unfortunately and temporarily impacted the flow of information between our internal and our plan service providers, preventing the independent auditor from finalizing their review and issuing the required opinion letter in time for this filing.

We want to assure you that we are actively addressing this situation and have implemented a corrective action plan to prevent future delays. Our plan includes:

1. Quarterly Administrative and Compliance Review meetings involving our internal plan administration team, payroll, and 3rd party service providers to ensure timely exchange of information and ongoing compliance with DOL and IRS filing requirements.
2. Enhanced documentation and tracking procedures to ensure that planned records are complete, organized, and readily accessible for future audits.
3. Earlier audit engagement timelines with our auditor engaged at the beginning of each plan year to allow adequate time for data review and completion. We will also institute a pre-audit kick-off meeting and a mid-year audit review to help us meet this deliverable.

We fully expect that the supporting documentation and the auditor's opinion letter will be finalized and submitted promptly once all required information is compiled. We appreciate your understanding as we complete this transition and strengthen our internal controls to maintain compliance going forward.

Sincerely,

Joanna Lathrop
Benefits & Compensation Manager
