The Schedule A Information Report includes total premiums paid to the issuing company and reflects direct compensation (commissions) and indirect compensation (fees) attributable to ERISA plans. For more details, please visit: www.dol.gov/ebsa.

What is a Schedule A?

The Schedule A is part of Form 5500. Plan Sponsors/Plan Administrators must file Form 5500 annually for most plans subject to ERISA. Form 5500 and any applicable Schedule A are required by the Department of Labor (DOL), the Internal Revenue Service (IRS), and the Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation. Additional information can be found at the Department of Labor website at www.dol.gov*.* The form is due by the last day of the seventh month following the end of the plan year. If required, a Plan Sponsor/Plan Administrator can file for a one-time, 2.5-month extension with the IRS using Form 5558, available at www.irs.gov*.*

Did you know: The Schedule A Reports are produced annually automatically. No need to call to request them each year.

MassMutual is required to include the amount of non-monetary compensation on the Schedule A Information Report. This type of compensation includes but is not limited to the value of:

- Medical Benefits
- 401K Matching Contributions
- Retirement Plan Contributions
- Conferences

How is Compensation Calculated in the Schedule A Reports?

This information is not maintained on a policy or plan level; and so as required by the Department of Labor (DOL), MassMutual has adopted a reasonable methodology for allocating the amount of non-monetary compensation attributable to ERISA plans. The Weighted Commissions Credit (both Contract and Aggregated Agent Allowance) and Weighted Recognition Credits needed to qualify for each of these are used, along with the Commissions generated by the plan. A calculation is then done to pro-rate for each ERISA plan.

What is a Schedule C?

The Schedule C is part of Form 5500. Plan Sponsors/Plan Administrators must file Form 5500 annually for most plans subject to ERISA and contains either a variable life insurance or variable annuity contract issued by Mass Mutual. The Schedule C Report will contain the following information:

- Product and Service Provider Information
- Invest Management Fees and Other Expenses for the investment options offered in MassMutual's Variable Life Insurance and Variable Annuity Contracts that are included in your client's plan.
- The MassMutual "Float" policy.

Form 5500 and any applicable Schedules are required by the Department of Labor (DOL), the Internal Revenue Service (IRS), and the Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation. For additional information about the Variable Contracts and the Fees Payable in connection with these contracts, you may also access a product prospectus at www.massmutual.com*.*
