The reason this filing is late is that the plan was dissolved early in 2024. In April 2024, I changed investment/financial companies. When I closed out the plan, I asked whether they would be filing the Form 5500-SF going forward. I was informed that they would; however, there appears to have been a misunderstanding regarding which filing year was being referenced.

I was not aware of the omission until I received a letter from the IRS. Since the plan's inception, I have consistently filed all required forms on time.

I respectfully request that you consider forgiving this oversight.

Sincerely,
