Independent Auditor's Report

The Administrative Committee
Employee Benefit Trust for Employees of Life, Inc.:

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of the Employee Benefit Trust for Employees of Life, Inc., an employee benefit plan subject to the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA), which comprise the statements of net assets available for benefits and benefit obligations as of December 31, 2025 and 2024, and the related statements of changes in net assets available for benefits and changes in benefit obligations for the years then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the net assets available for benefits and benefit obligations of Employee Benefit Trust for Employees of Life, Inc. as of December 31, 2025 and 2024, and the changes in its net assets available for benefit and changes in benefit obligations for the years then ended, in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of Employee Benefit Trust for Employees of Life, Inc. and to meet our other ethical responsibilities, in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audits. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about Employee Benefit Trust for Employees of Life, Inc.'s ability to continue as a going concern for one year after the date the financial statements are available to be issued.

Management is also responsible for maintaining a current plan instrument, including all plan amendments, administering the plan, and determining that the plan's transactions that are presented and disclosed in the financial statements are in conformity with the plan's provisions, including maintaining sufficient records with respect to each of the participants, to determine the benefits due or which may become due to such participants.

Auditor's Responsibility for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of Employee Benefit Trust for Employees of Life, Inc.'s internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about Employee Benefit Trust for Employees of Life, Inc.'s ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control-related matters that we identified during the audit.

Supplemental Schedule Required by ERISA

Our audits were conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the financial statements as a whole. The supplemental schedule of assets (held at year end) is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the financial statements but is supplementary information required by the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA. Such information is the responsibility of management and was derived from and relates directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements. The information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audits of the financial statements and certain additional procedures, including comparing and reconciling such information directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements or to the financial statements themselves, and other additional procedures in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards.

In forming our opinion on the supplemental schedule, we evaluated whether the supplemental schedule, including its form and content, is presented in conformity with the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA.

In our opinion, the information in the accompanying schedule is fairly stated, in all material respects, in relation to the financial statements as a whole, and the form and content is presented in conformity with the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA.

(1) Plan Description

The following description of the Employee Benefit Trust for Employees of Life, Inc. ("Plan") provides only general information. Participants should refer to the Plan agreement for a more complete description of the Plan's provisions.

(a) General

The plan is subject to the provisions of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, ("ERISA"), and is administered through a voluntary employees' beneficiary association (VEBA) trust established January 1, 2011, with an effective date for providing benefits to employees as of January 1, 2011. Life, Inc. ("the Company") is the plan sponsor, and the plan trustees are employees of the Company. Certain Plan assets are held a voluntary employees' beneficiary association (VEBA) trust. The Plan is subject to the provisions of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended.

All health benefits under the Plan are paid by Blue Cross and Blue Shield of North Carolina, the administrative agent. The Plan's VEBA trust then reimburses the administrative agent for such benefit payments.

(b) Benefits and Participation

The Plan provides life, health, accident insurance and other benefits to eligible employees of the Company. All employees who work an average of thirty or more hours per week are eligible to participate in the Plan. Benefits begin sixty days from the first day of the month following the employee's hire date. The level of benefits payable under the Plan is determined as set forth in the plan agreement. The Plan also provides continuation of certain benefits upon termination of employment through the Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act (COBRA).

(c) Stop Loss Coverage

The Plan has entered into a stop-loss arrangement in an effort to limit its exposure for self-insured benefits (individual participant claims over a specific dollar amount, as well as its aggregate exposure for all claims).

(d) Contributions

The Plan agreement provides that any required contributions from participants are to be collected through appropriate payroll deductions and paid to the trust. All remaining contributions necessary to fund benefits payable under the Plan are paid by the Company to the trust. Participants may elect not to contribute toward the funding of benefits under this Plan; however, in such event, the benefits payable to such participant or his dependents will be reduced or deleted as set forth in the Plan agreement.

(2) Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

(a) Basis of Accounting and Use of Estimates

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared on the accrual basis of accounting in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. The preparation of financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of Plan assets, liabilities, benefit obligations and changes therein, and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities. Actual results could differ from these estimates.

(b) Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Plan maintains cash in bank deposit accounts which, at times, may exceed federally insured limits. The Plan has not experienced any losses in such accounts. The Plan also maintains cash held by the administrative agent which is used to pay plan administrative expenses and plan benefits. The Plan believes it is not exposed to any significant credit risk on cash.

(c) Plan Benefit Obligations Currently Payable

Plan obligations for health claims incurred by active participants but not reported at that date are estimated by the Administrative Agent. Such estimated amounts are reported in the accompanying statements of plan benefit obligations at the present value of the estimated ultimate cost to the Plan of settling the claims. Such amounts are paid by the Plan only if claims are submitted and approved for payment.

(d) Payment of Benefits

Claim payments are recorded when paid by the third party claims processor. Amounts due to claims processors that have yet to be reimbursed by the Plan are recorded as payable to claims administrators in the accompanying statements of net assets available for benefits. Premiums paid by the VEBA trust are recorded as insurance premiums in the accompanying statement of changes in net assets available for benefits.

(e) Stop Loss

Premiums for stop loss insurance are included in administrative expenses in the accompanying statement of changes in net assets available for benefits. The stop loss refund for the year ended December 31, 2024 totaled $239,925. This amount is netted with claims paid in the statement of changes in net assets. There was no stop loss refund for the year ended December 31, 2025.

(2) Summary of Significant Accounting Policies, Continued

(f) Administrative Expenses

Administrative expenses are paid by the Plan and consist primarily of administrative fees paid to third-party claims administrators. These expenses are reported on the statement of changes in net assets available for benefits as administrative expenses.

(3) Tax Status

The VEBA trust funding certain benefits of the Plan received an exemption letter from the IRS dated December 9, 2011, stating that the trust is tax-exempt under the provisions of Section 501(c)(9) of the IRC. However, as a result of the Plan's funding policy, from time to time the trust may be subject to income taxes. No Federal or state income taxes have been recorded in 2025 or 2024 for unrelated business taxable income.

In addition, the Plan and the trust are required to operate in conformity with the IRC to maintain the tax-exempt status of the trust. The Plan administrator believes that the Plan is being operated in compliance with the applicable requirements of the IRC and, therefore, believes that the related trust is tax-exempt.

Accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America require plan management to evaluate tax positions taken by the Plan and recognize a tax liability (or asset) if the Plan has taken an uncertain position that more likely than not would not be sustained upon examination by the Department of Labor or Internal Revenue Service. The Plan is subject to routine audits by taxing jurisdictions; however, there are currently no audits for any tax periods in progress.

(4) Plan Termination

Although it has not expressed any intention to do so, the Company has the right under the Plan to modify benefits provided to, and contributions required of, participants to discontinue its contributions at any time and to terminate the Plan subject to the provisions of ERISA. In the event of termination of the Plan, remaining assets will be applied in a uniform and nondiscriminatory manner toward the provision of benefits for or on account of the participants. No assets of the Plan may revert to the Company or be used for purposes other than for the exclusive benefit of the Plan's participants.

(5) Reconciliation of Financial Statements to Form 5500

The following is a reconciliation of net assets available for plan benefits per the accompanying financial statements to the Form 5500:

	2025	2024
Net assets available for benefits per the financial statements	$ 814,451	954,726
Benefit obligations currently payable at December 31	(99,500)	(107,230)
Net assets available for benefits per the Form 5500	$ 714,951	847,496

The following is a reconciliation of plan benefits paid to participants per the financial statements to the Form 5500 for the years ended December 31, 2025 and 2023:

	2025	2024
Benefits paid to participants per the financial statements	$ 1,366,153	1,281,390
Add: Amounts payable at end of year	99,500	107,230
Less: Amounts payable at beginning of year	(107,230)	(74,175)
Benefits paid to participants per the Form 5500	$ 1,358,423	1,314,445

Amounts currently payable to or for participants are reported on the Form 5500 for benefit claims that have been processed and approved for payment prior to December 31, but not paid as of that date.

(6) Subsequent Events

The Company has evaluated subsequent events through July 27, 2026, the date which the financial statements were available to be issued. There were no significant events identified which require disclosure in the financial statements or footnotes.
