REPORT OF INDEPENDENT CERTIFIED PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS

Board of Trustees
AAAA Group Insurance Trust

Opinion

We have audited the financial statements of AAAA Group Insurance Trust (the "Trust"), which comprise the statement of assets, liabilities and fund balance as of December 31, 2025 and 2024, and the related statements of net billings, expenditures and changes in fund balance for the years then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

In our opinion, the accompanying financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Trust as of December 31, 2025 and 2024, and the results of its operations for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for opinion

We conducted our audits of the financial statements in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America (US GAAS). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of the Trust and to meet our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audits. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Responsibilities of management for the financial statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Trust's ability to continue as a going concern for one year after the date the financial statements are available to be issued.

Grant Thornton LLP is a U.S. member firm of Grant Thornton International Ltd (GTIL). GTIL and each of its member firms are separate legal entities and are not a worldwide partnership.

Auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the financial statements
Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with US GAAS will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with US GAAS, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Trust's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Trust's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control-related matters that we identified during the audit.

NOTE 1 - BACKGROUND AND ORGANIZATION

The American Association of Advertising Agencies (AAAA) established the AAAA Group Insurance Trust (the Trust) for the purpose of providing group insurance benefits to member agencies. The accompanying financial statements reflect the financial position and operating results of the Trust.

AAAA Benefits, Inc., a wholly owned subsidiary of AAAA, manages the Trust for the benefit of participating member agencies. The general purpose of the Trust is to provide participating AAAA member agencies' employees and retirees life, accidental death, long-term and short-term disability and other similar insurance benefits through insurance policies issued by licensed insurance carriers.

NOTE 2 - SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of Accounting

The accompanying financial statements are prepared on the accrual basis of accounting in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (U.S. GAAP).

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with U.S. GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of changes in fund balance during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

As of December 31, 2025 and 2024, $85,669 and $107,797, cash deposits (not including transactions that have not cleared) exceed federally insured limits, respectively. However, the cash and cash equivalents are held by Bank of America, a reputable financial institution.

Due From Member Agencies

The Trust regularly evaluates its accounts receivable due from member agencies for collectability and establishes an allowance for credit losses for those accounts, or portions thereof that management deems to be uncollectible. Management considers each member's payment history and other relevant information that is available. Accounts are written off when collection efforts have terminated. The Trust requires no collateral or other security from member agencies. No allowance for credit losses exists at December 31, 2025 and 2024.

Concentrations

Amounts due from two controlled groups comprised greater than 10% of the total accounts receivable due from member agencies as of December 31, 2025 and 2024, respectively. One of the groups is a related-party as disclosed in the related-party footnote.

Billings to three and two controlled groups comprised greater than 10% of total billings to advertising agencies for the years ended December 31, 2025 and 2024, respectively. One of the groups is a related party as disclosed in the related-party footnote.

Insurance premiums to one insurance carrier for life, accidental death, long-term and short-term disability insurance, dental and vision represented 89% and 88% of total insurance premiums paid for December 31, 2025 and 2024, respectively.

Billings to Advertising Agencies and Insurance Premiums Ceded

The Trust is a funding vehicle to provide insurance to members of the AAAA. The inflows and outflows from the Trust include billings to advertising agencies (inflows) and insurance premiums ceded (outflows). The net amount retained is used to pay accounting fees, management fees, and income taxes. Billings to advertising agencies are administered monthly based upon the employee base of each participating agency, the insurance coverage volume of each participating agency and the coverage rate established by AAAA Benefits, Inc. Premiums paid to insurance carriers are remitted monthly or quarterly based on negotiated coverage rates established by AAAA Benefits, Inc.

Income Taxes

The Trust accounts for income taxes under the asset and liability method whereby deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured using enacted tax laws and rates expected to apply to taxable income in the years in which the assets and liabilities are expected to be recovered or settled. The effects on deferred tax assets and liabilities of subsequent changes in the tax laws and rates are recognized in income during the year the changes are enacted.

In assessing the realizability of deferred tax assets, management considers whether it is more likely than not that some portion or all of the deferred tax assets will not be realized. The ultimate realization of deferred tax assets is dependent upon the generation of future taxable income during the periods in which those temporary differences become deductible. Management considers the scheduled reversal of deferred tax liabilities, projected future taxable income, carryback and carryforward periods and tax planning strategies in making this assessment.

Recent Accounting Pronouncements

In December 2023, the Financial Accounting Standards Board issued Accounting Standards Update 2023-09, which improves income tax disclosures, requiring entities to provide more detailed information about income tax expense, income tax paid, deferred tax assets and liabilities, and the effective tax rate reconciliation. The goal is to enhance transparency and provide users of financial statements with better insights into an entity’s tax positions and the potential impacts on future cash flows. For non-public entities, the standard is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2025. Early adoption is permitted for annual financial statements that have not yet been issued or made available for issuance. The Trust expects the adoption of the standard to result in additional disaggregation in the income tax footnote disclosures.

NOTE 3 - RELATED-PARTY TRANSACTIONS

AAAA Benefits, Inc. provides administrative, accounting and other services in connection with the administration of the Trust. A management fee is determined annually based on estimated costs to be incurred by AAAA Benefits, Inc. For the years ended December 31, 2025 and 2024, management fees amounted to $252,651 and $253,749, of which $231,618 and $232,118 had been paid as of December 31, 2025 and 2024, respectively.

During the years ended December 31, 2025 and 2024, insurance billings received from entities related to AAAA Benefits, Inc. totaled $240,167 and $232,104, of which $226,791 and $222,231 had been paid as of December 31, 2025 and 2024, respectively. The remaining amounts due from AAAAs were $13,376 and $9,873 as of December 31, 2025 and 2024, respectively.

NOTE 4 - INCOME TAXES

The income tax provision consists of the following for the years ended December 31:

	2025	2024
Current provision:
Federal	$ 8,437	$ 5,553
State	1,658	1,474
Income tax expense	$ 10,095	$ 7,027

There were no deferred taxes for the year ended December 31, 2025 or 2024. The Trust is maintained for the receipt of billings from member agencies, the payment of insurance premiums to the insurance companies and the payment of management fees to AAAA Benefits, Inc. The Trust is a taxable trust; however, the operations are intended to break-even on an annual basis.

The reported income tax expense approximates the tax determined by applying the applicable U.S. federal and statutory income tax rates to the excess (deficit) from operations before income taxes. The Trust recognizes interest and penalties related to income taxes as a component of income tax expense.

The Trust files a tax return in the U.S. federal and New York state jurisdictions. With few exceptions, the Trust is not subject to U.S. federal, state and local or non-U.S. income tax examinations by tax authorities for years before 2021. The Trust does not have any open examinations by any taxing authorities.

NOTE 5 - TERMINATION

The Trust may be terminated at any time by the unanimous concurrence of the Trustees and the written approval of the AAAA, provided that written notice of termination is provided to the member agencies. The Trust may also be terminated by a majority of the member agencies. In the event of termination, the assets of the Trust shall first be used to pay administrative expenses and to satisfy liabilities to existing beneficiaries. Thereafter, all remaining funds shall be applied to benefits for the participants based on a uniform percentage of member agency contributions made on behalf of each participant at the time of Trust termination.

NOTE 6 - SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

The Trust evaluated subsequent events and transactions for potential recognition or disclosure in the financial statements through July 29, 2026, the date the financial statements were available to be issued. All subsequent events requiring recognition and disclosure have been incorporated into these financial statements.
