Independent Auditor's Report

To the Benefits and Insurance Committee
Wisconsin Bankers Association Insurance Trust Fund
Madison, Wisconsin

Opinion

We have audited the financial statements of Wisconsin Bankers Association Insurance Trust Fund (the Plan), an employee benefit plan subject to the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA), which comprise the statements of net assets available for benefits as of December 31, 2025 and 2024, and the related statement of changes in net assets available for benefits for the year ended December 31, 2025, and the related notes to the financial statements.

In our opinion, the accompanying financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the net assets available for benefits of Wisconsin Bankers Association Insurance Trust Fund as of December 31, 2025 and 2024, and the changes in its net assets available for benefits for the year ended December 31, 2025, in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAS). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of Wisconsin Bankers Association Insurance Trust Fund and to meet our other ethical responsibilities, in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audits. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about Wisconsin Bankers Association Insurance Trust Fund's ability to continue as a going concern for at least one year following the date that the financial statements are available to be issued.

Management is also responsible for maintaining a current plan instrument, including all plan amendments, administering the Plan, and determining that the Plan's transactions that are presented and disclosed in the financial statements are in conformity with the Plan's provisions, including maintaining sufficient records with respect to each of the participants, to determine the benefits due or which may become due to such participants.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with GAAS will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

Wipfli LLP is a licensed independent CPA firm that provides attest services to its clients, and Wipfli Advisory LLC provides tax and business consulting services to its clients. Wipfli Advisory LLC and its subsidiary entities are not licensed CPA firms.

In performing an audit in accordance with GAAS, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of Wisconsin Bankers Association Insurance Trust Fund's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about Wisconsin Bankers Association Insurance Trust Fund's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control-related matters that we identified during the audit.

Supplemental Schedule Required by ERISA

Our audits were conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the financial statements as a whole. The supplemental schedule of Schedule H, line 4i - Schedule of Assets (Held at End of Year), as of December 31, 2025 is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the financial statements but is supplementary information required by the Department of Labor's (DOL) Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA. Such information is the responsibility of management and was derived from and relates directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements. The information has been subjected to auditing procedures applied in the audits of the financial statements and certain additional procedures, including comparing and reconciling such information directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements or to the financial statements themselves, and other additional procedures in accordance with GAAS.

In our opinion, the information in the accompanying supplemental schedule is fairly stated, in all material respects, in relation to the financial statements as a whole, and the form and content are presented in conformity with the DOL's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA.

Notes to Financial Statements

1. Description of Plan

The following description of the Wisconsin Bankers Association Insurance Trust Fund (the "Group Insurance Arrangement" or "GIA") provides only general information. The GIA allows for employer-specific provisions that each participating employer can select. Participants should refer to their respective plan documents for a more complete description of the GIA's provisions.

General

The GIA and related trust were established for the benefit of multiple employers and their employees. The GIA consists of individual health and welfare benefit plans of the respective employers. The GIA files a single Form 5500 on behalf of all participating employers as provided by the Department of Labor's (DOL) regulations, thus relieving these participating employers of their separate Form 5500 filing obligations. The GIA provides group insurance to Wisconsin Bankers Association (WBA), member banks of the WBA and other banks and federally insured depository institutions and their member associations located in the geographic area consisting of three contiguous states, one of which is Wisconsin, and its affiliates who wish to participate. Any eligible employer may participate in the GIA as an employer for the purpose of funding benefits under a welfare plan within the meaning of Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA), sponsored by the employer for the welfare of its eligible employees.

Benefits

The GIA provides medical, dental, vision, life, dependent life, accidental death and dismemberment, and long-term and short-term disability insurance for employees of the WBA and participating employees as described above. The benefits to be provided to the participants under the GIA are provided exclusively by fully insured policies issued to the GIA.

Contributions

Each participating employer acts as the plan administrator for its employees. The GIA agreement provides that the employers make contributions to the GIA for participants in their plans. The employers' contribution rate is determined annually by the insurance carrier's actuary. Each employer must pay the funding requirements for its plan or share such cost with its employees.

Notes to Financial Statements

2. Summary of Accounting Policies

Basis of Accounting

The financial statements of the GIA are prepared on the accrual basis of accounting.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, benefit obligations and changes therein, and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Premiums Paid and Due to Insurance Company

Premiums paid to the various providers are recorded as premiums paid in the statement of changes in net assets. Premiums due to insurance company are those premiums incurred and payable prior to December 31 but not yet paid, if applicable. Contributions received by the GIA prior to the month for which they apply are reflected as "excess employer contributions" in the accompanying financial statements, if applicable.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The GIA considers all highly liquid investments with original maturities of three months or less, including money market fund investments, to be cash equivalents.

The GIA may, at times, have cash balances on deposit that exceed the Federal Deposit Insurance limitation.

Participating Employers' Contributions

Participating employers are billed monthly for contributions due to the GIA based on premium levels established by the Wisconsin Bankers Association Benefits and Insurance Committee (BIC) and the Insurers. Any adjustments to coverage provided after the monthly invoice for the period is generated are generally adjusted in the subsequent month.

2. Summary of Accounting Policies (Continued)

Subsequent Events

Subsequent events were evaluated through July 28, 2026, the date the financial statements were available to be issued.

3. Related-Party and Party In Interest Transactions

The Bank of Sun Prairie Plan Department (BOSP), Sun Prairie, Wisconsin, is the Trustee and a fiduciary of the GIA. The trustee is an affiliate member of the WBA. The trustee's fees were $6,000 for 2025. The trustee has custody over the assets of the GIA. In addition, cash and cash equivalents are managed by BOSP. These transactions qualify as party-in-interest transactions.

On behalf of the GIA, BOSP has contracted with Wisconsin Bankers Association Employee Benefits Corporation (EBC), a wholly owned subsidiary of the WBA, to provide administrative services to the GIA. Administrative service fees under this agreement were $180,000 for the year ended December 31, 2025.

WBA, EBC and FIPCO (another subsidiary of the WBA), are participating employers of the Plan and have contributed approximately $64,000 of employer contributions during the year ended December 31, 2025.

The GIA is related by overlapping management to the Wisconsin Bankers Association Insurance Trust - Association Health Plan (AHP). The GIA handles certain administrative functions on behalf of the AHP. As part of their arrangement, the GIA collected contributions from AHP member banks of approximately $19,396,000, which were used to pay premiums of approximately $19,201,000 to the insurance carrier as well as administrative fees to insurance providers of approximately $192,000. The GIA collected management fees amounting to approximately $192,000 for 2025 for these services and is included in other revenue.

In 2024, EBC, on behalf of the GIA, funded an additional cash account to track AHP transactions separately from those of the ITF. The intent of both EBC and the GIA was for those funds to be paid back to EBC. Amounts due back to EBC were $100,000 and $0 as of December 31, 2025 and 2024, respectively. During 2025, the GIA paid back $100,000 to EBC.

The Board of Directors are officers of various financial institutions which are participating members of the GIA. Member contributions collected from these financial institutions amounted to approximately $121,000 for 2025.

December 31,	2025
Administrative fees	$ 180,000
Administrative fees to insurers	192,463

Professional fees	30,909
Miscellaneous expense	8,241
Total administrative expenses	$ 417,613

5. Payments of Premiums to Insurance Entities

Notes to Financial Statements

7. Plan Termination

In the event there are no employers making further contributions to the GIA at any point in time or if the BIC, with the approval of the Trustee (as defined in Note 3), should decide to terminate the GIA, then, except as otherwise provided in Regulations of the Secretary of Labor, the trustee shall apply the GIA to the stated purpose of funding benefits under a welfare plan within the meaning of ERISA, and any balance which cannot be so applied shall be utilized for such purposes as, in the opinion of the BIC, will best fulfill the general purposes thereof.

8. Tax Status

The underlying trust has qualified as a tax-exempt organization under Internal Revenue Code Section 501(c)(9) in accordance with a determination letter from the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) dated April 8, 1977. Amendments were made to the trust document and the exempt status was reconfirmed in a letter from the IRS dated November 27, 1996. The GIA intends to continue to comply with all requirements necessary to maintain its tax-exempt status. The GIA is also generally exempt from state income taxes by virtue of its ongoing exemption from federal income taxes. The GIA is subject to Federal and state income taxes on its investment income, unless certain exceptions apply, or any other unrelated business income.

The GIA's management evaluates tax positions taken by the GIA and recognizes a tax liability if the GIA has taken an uncertain position that more likely than not would not be sustained upon examination by applicable tax authorities. The GIA's management has analyzed the tax positions taken by the GIA and has concluded that as of December 31, 2025 there are no significant uncertain positions taken or expected to be taken that would require recognition of a liability or disclosure in the financial statements.
