Independent Auditor's Report

To the Trustee
Fringe Benefit Plan For Davis-Bacon and Related Acts (DBRA) Employees of ServiceSource, Inc.

Opinion

We have audited the financial statements of Fringe Benefit Plan For Davis-Bacon and Related Acts (DBRA) Employees of ServiceSource, Inc., an employee benefit plan subject to the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA), which comprise the statements of net assets available for benefits as of December 31, 2025 and 2024, and the related statement of changes in net assets available for benefits for the year ended December 31, 2025, and the related notes to the financial statements.

In our opinion, the accompanying financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the net assets available for benefits of Fringe Benefit Plan For Davis-Bacon and Related Acts (DBRA) Employees of ServiceSource, Inc. as of December 31, 2025 and 2024, and the changes in its net assets available for benefits for the year ended December 31, 2025, in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAS). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of Fringe Benefit Plan For Davis-Bacon and Related Acts (DBRA) Employees of ServiceSource, Inc. and to meet our other ethical responsibilities, in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audits. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

"Citrin Cooperman" is the brand under which Citrin Cooperman & Company, LLP, a licensed independent CPA firm, and Citrin Cooperman Advisors LLC serve clients' business needs. The two firms operate as separate legal entities in an alternative practice structure. The entities of Citrin Cooperman & Company, LLP and Citrin Cooperman Advisors LLC are independent member firms of the Moore North America, Inc. (MNA) Association, which is itself a regional member of Moore Global Network Limited (MGNL). All the firms associated with MNA are independently owned and managed entities. Their membership in, or association with, MNA should not be construed as constituting or implying any partnership between them.

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about Fringe Benefit Plan For Davis-Bacon and Related Acts (DBRA) Employees of ServiceSource, Inc.'s ability to continue as a going concern for one year following the date that the financial statements are available to be issued.

Management is also responsible for maintaining a current plan instrument, including all plan amendments, administering the plan, and determining that the plan's transactions that are presented and disclosed in the financial statements are in conformity with the plan's provisions, including maintaining sufficient records with respect to each of the participants, to determine the benefits due or which may become due to such participants.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with GAAS will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with GAAS, we:

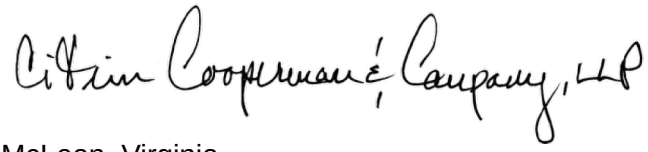

- exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
- obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of Fringe Benefit Plan For Davis-Bacon and Related Acts (DBRA) Employees of ServiceSource, Inc.'s internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.

Their membership in, or association with, MNA should not be construed as constituting or implying any partnership between them.

- evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.

- conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about Fringe Benefit Plan For Davis-Bacon and Related Acts (DBRA) Employees of ServiceSource, Inc.'s ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control-related matters that we identified during the audit.

Notes to the Financial Statements

December 31, 2025 and 2024

1. DESCRIPTION OF PLAN

The following description of the Fringe Benefit Plan For Davis-Bacon and Related Acts (DBRA) Employees of ServiceSource, Inc. (the Plan) provides only general information. Participants should refer to the plan agreement for a more complete description of the Plan's provisions.

General - The Plan is a contributory defined contribution health and welfare plan established by ServiceSource, Inc. on January 1, 2011. ServiceSource, Inc. is herein referred to as the Company or the Plan sponsor. The Plan sponsor established a voluntary employees' beneficiary association (VEBA) Trust to serve as a funding vehicle for the Plan. The Plan is subject to the provisions of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA).

Benefits - The Plan provides medical, dental and prescription drug benefits to all employees of the Company for whom fringe benefits are required to be made under the federal Davis-Bacon and Related Acts (DBRA), or any other federal, state or local prevailing wage law. Benefits are generally reserved for employee coverage, but employees may purchase additional coverage for their spouse and dependents through pre-tax and after-tax deductions as allowable under Internal Revenue Service (IRS) and ERISA rules and regulations. DBRA employees do not include leased employees or employees employed in an executive, administrative or professional capacity. A DBRA employee shall be a participant in the Plan for work performed that is not covered under the fringe benefit provisions of the DBRA in an amount determined by the Plan sponsor and at the Plan sponsor’s discretion. A participant who terminates employment, or while continuing in employment ceases to be a DBRA employee, will continue to be a participant until the balance of the individual’s account under the Plan has been fully exhausted or the participant dies.

Contributions - The Plan is funded by employer and employee contributions. In addition to deductibles and copayments, participants contribute specified amounts, determined annually, for coverage of themselves and their dependents. This determination is based on a review of the Plan's payment trends and an estimation of expected costs for the following year, as recommended by an independent third-party specialist.

Employer contribution rates are established annually by the Plan in accordance with prevailing wage rates and health and welfare rates for employees covered under the DBRA. The Plan sponsor adjusts the health and welfare contribution rates annually upon renewal or modification of the contract by the federal government. The Plan sponsor provides qualified fringe benefits for each employee covered by DBRA up to the statutory limitations. For the year ended December 31, 2025, the health and welfare contribution rates ranged from $4.93 to $5.55 per hour based upon the date of the contract renewal.

The Plan sponsor may also elect to take premium rebate credits against the required health and welfare contributions for qualified fringe benefits provided by the Company outside of the Plan in meeting the health and welfare contribution rate requirement under the DBRA and as required for the Plan to meet its obligations to Plan participants and service providers. The Company also contributes excess funds in participant premium reserve accounts, as defined and maintained by the Plan, to a qualified retirement plan established for the benefit of the Plan participants.

Insured benefits - The Plan fully insures its medical, dental and prescription drug benefits. The Company purchases annual insurance contracts for these insured benefits. Premiums are paid to the insurance company from the assets of the VEBA Trust.

Plan administration and expenses - Under the DBRA, employers are required to ensure compliance with the prevailing wage and health and welfare requirements. Accordingly, many employers establish separate trusts or other funded arrangements that receive and administer the health and welfare contributions. If such contributions are paid to a trust, the trust must preclude the federal contractor from recapturing any of the contributions paid into the trust in meeting the minimum prevailing wage requirement and from diverting any of the funds of the trust for its own benefit or use. The Plan is managed by a trustee, who is a primary representative of the Company. The trustee retained the services of a third-party administrator, Government Service Administrations (GSA), that specializes in providing administrative and accounting services for employee benefit plans.

2. SUMMARY OF ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of accounting - The financial statements of the Plan are prepared on the accrual basis of accounting, in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (U.S. GAAP).

Use of estimates - The preparation of financial statements in accordance with U.S. GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, net assets and changes therein, and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Contributions receivable - Employer contributions due but not paid to the VEBA Trust at year end are recorded as contributions receivable. There was no allowance for doubtful accounts at December 31, 2025 and 2024.

Contributions received in advance - Employer contributions that have been paid to the VEBA Trust before year end but not due are recorded as contributions received in advance.

Payment of benefits - Premiums paid by either the Company or the VEBA Trust are recorded as insurance premium payments in the accompanying Statement of Changes in Net Assets Available for Benefits.

Subsequent events - The Plan has evaluated subsequent events through August 24, 2026, the date on which these financial statements were available to be issued, and has determined that there are no subsequent events that require recognition or disclosure in these financial statements.

3. TAX STATUS

The VEBA Trust established under the Plan to hold the Plan's assets obtained its tax exemption letter dated May 5, 2014, in which the IRS determined that the VEBA Trust was in compliance with the applicable requirements of the Internal Revenue Code (IRC); therefore, the VEBA Trust is exempt from federal income taxes under Section 501(c)(9) of the IRC. Plan management believes that the Plan is currently designed and being operated in compliance with the applicable requirements of the IRC. Therefore, they believe that the Plan is qualified, and the related VEBA Trust is tax-exempt, and no provision for income taxes has been included in the Plan's financial statements.

Plan management is required to evaluate tax positions taken by the Plan and recognize a tax liability if the Plan has taken an uncertain position that more likely than not would not be sustained upon examination by the IRS. The Plan sponsor has analyzed the tax positions taken by the Plan, and has concluded that as of December 31, 2025 and 2024, there are no uncertain tax positions taken that would require recognition of a liability (or asset) or disclosure in the financial statements. The Plan is subject to routine audits by taxing jurisdictions; however, there are currently no audits for any tax periods in progress.

4. RISKS AND UNCERTAINTIES

The Plan holds cash in a bank deposit account with a financial institution, which, at times may exceed federally insured limits. Plan management periodically evaluates the balance and believes this account does not pose a financial risk to the Plan.

All of the plan participants are employees of the Company working under contracts with the federal government, many of which are subject to the DBRA. As such, federal contracts are subject to termination clauses whereby the government may terminate contracts for cause or convenience. Any contract termination or funding delays caused by political, budgetary, or other administrative matters may affect employees participating in the Plan and the ability and necessity of the Plan sponsor to fund and maintain the Plan.

5. PRIORITIES UPON TERMINATION

Although it has not expressed any intention to do so, the Plan sponsor has the right under the Plan to modify or discontinue any terms, conditions, or benefits of the Plan at any time and terminate the Plan subject to the provisions of ERISA, the insurer's contract, and the contract administration agreement. Expenses incurred prior to a termination, modification, or amendment of the Plan would be paid as provided under the terms of the Plan prior to its termination, modification, or amendment. In the event of termination, the Plan sponsor shall first satisfy or make provisions to satisfy the obligations of the Plan.

6. ACCRUED PREMIUM REBATES AND RESERVE

The accrued premium reserve payable represents the unexpended balance in the participant accounts from contributions made at the prevailing health and welfare contribution rates established under the DBRA, less the benefit premiums, retirement plan allocations, and other benefit payments made on behalf of the participants. Amounts remaining in the participant premium reserve accounts at termination of employment are generally used to fund benefits or are contributed by the Company to a qualified retirement plan for the benefit of the participants. Any premium rebate credits unpaid as of the end of the reporting period are reflected as an accrued premium rebate liability. As of December 31, 2025 and 2024, the Plan reported accrued premium rebate liabilities of $24,595 and $23,507, respectively, which are included in Accounts payable in the accompanying Statements of Net Assets Available for Benefits. The Plan also reported an accrued premium reserve payable of $56,290 and $78,319 as of December 31, 2025 and 2024, respectively.

7. RELATED-PARTY AND PARTY IN INTEREST TRANSACTIONS

GSA is the Plan's third-party administrator. Therefore, transactions with this party qualify as party in interest transactions. The Plan paid fees to GSA for administrative services rendered for the year ended December 31, 2025, totaling $156,891.

Certain administrative functions of the Plan are performed by officers or employees of the Plan sponsor. No such officer or employee receives compensation from the Plan.
