Pension Assurance LLP
5126 Clareton Drive, Suite 110
Agoura Hills, CA 91301

This representation letter is provided in connection with your audits of the financial statements of Room to Read 401(k) Profit Sharing Plan and Trust (the Plan), an employee benefit plan subject to the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA), which comprise the Statements of Net Assets Available for Benefits as of December 31, 2025 and 2024, the Statement of Changes in Net Assets Available for Benefits for the Year Ended December 31, 2025, and the related notes to the financial statements.

We elected to have the audits of the Plan's financial statements performed in accordance with ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) pursuant to 29 CFR 2520.103-8 of the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA. We acknowledge that the audits did not extend to any statements or information related to assets held for investment of the plan (investment information) by a bank or similar institution or insurance carrier, that is regulated, supervised and subject to periodic examination by a state or federal agency, a qualified institution, that prepared and certified the investment information in accordance with 29 CFR 2520.103-5 of the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA. We have determined that an ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit is permissible under the circumstances. We have also determined that the investment information is prepared and certified by a qualified institution as described by 29 CFR 2520.103-8, that the certification meets the requirements in 29 CFR 2520.103-5 and, that the certified investment information is appropriately measured, presented, and disclosed in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

The purpose of an ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit is to express an opinion on whether the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements, other than those agreed to or derived from the certified investment information, are presented fairly, in all material respects, in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America and that the assets held by and certified to by a qualified institution agrees to, or is derived from, in all material respects, the certified investment information.

Certain representations in this letter are described as being limited to misstatements that are material. Misstatements, including omissions, are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

To the best of our knowledge and belief, having made such inquiries as we considered necessary for the purpose of appropriately informing ourselves as of the date of this letter, we confirm that:

Financial Statements

1. We have fulfilled our responsibilities, as set out in the terms of the audit engagement, for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements (including disclosures) in accordance with U.S. GAAP.
2. We acknowledge our responsibility for administering the plan and determining that the plan's transactions that are presented and disclosed in the ERISA plan financial statements are in conformity with the plan's provisions, including maintaining sufficient records with respect to each of the participants to determine the benefits due or which may become due to such participants.
3. We acknowledge our responsibility for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.
4. We acknowledge our responsibility for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control to prevent and detect fraud.
5. Significant assumptions used by us in making accounting estimates, including those measured at fair value, are reasonable. The methodology and significant assumptions used result in a measure of fair value appropriate for financial measurement and disclosure purposes.
6. We are responsible for the estimation methods and assumptions used in measuring assets and liabilities reported or disclosed at fair value. Our valuation methodologies have been consistently applied from period to period. The fair value measurements reported or disclosed represent our best estimate of fair value as of the measurement date in accordance with the requirements of Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) 820, Fair Value Measurement. In addition, our disclosures related to the fair value measurements are consistent with the objectives outlined in FASB ASC 820.
7. Related party relationships and transactions have been appropriately accounted for and disclosed in accordance with the requirements of U.S. GAAP.

8. Transactions with parties in interest, as defined in Section 3(14) of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA) and regulations thereunder, including sales, purchases, loans, transfers, leasing arrangements, and guarantees, and amounts receivable from, or payable to, related parties have been appropriately disclosed.
9. All events subsequent to the date of the financial statements and for which U.S. GAAP requires adjustment or disclosure have been adjusted or disclosed.
10. The effects of uncorrected misstatements are immaterial, both individually and in aggregate, to the financial statements as a whole. We have not identified any uncorrected misstatements.
11. The effects of all known actual or possible litigation and claims have been accounted for and disclosed in accordance with U.S. GAAP.
12. We have no intentions to terminate the Plan.
13. There is not substantial doubt about the plan sponsor's ability to continue as a going concern.
14. Guarantees, whether written or oral, under which the Plan is contingently liable to a bank or another lending institution have been properly recorded or disclosed in the financial statements.
15. Receivables recorded in the financial statements represent valid claims against debtors for transactions arising on or before the date of the statement of net assets available for benefits and have been reduced to their estimated net realizable value.
16. We have properly reported and disclosed amendments to the Plan instrument, if any.

17. We acknowledge our responsibility to oversee the non-attest services identified within the terms of the audit engagement. We have assigned an individual who possesses the suitable skill, knowledge, and/or experience to oversee such non-attest services.

ERISA-Required Supplemental Schedules

18. We acknowledge our responsibility for the presentation of the ERISA-required supplemental schedule(s) in accordance with DOL's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA. We believe that the ERISA-required supplemental schedules, including their form and content, are presented in conformity with the DOL's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA.

Information Provided

19. We have provided you with
 - a. access to all information, of which we are aware that is relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements such as records, documentation, and other matters;
 - b. the most current plan instrument for the audit period, including all plan amendments;
 - c. a draft of the Form 5500 that is substantially completed;
 - d. additional information that you have requested from us for the purpose of the audit;
 - e. unrestricted access to persons within the Plan from whom you determined it necessary to obtain audit evidence;
 - f. all meeting minutes or summaries of actions of recent meetings for which minutes have not yet been prepared.
20. All transactions have been recorded in the accounting records and are reflected in the financial statements.

21. Financial instruments with off-balance-sheet risk and financial instruments with concentrations of credit risk, if any, have been properly recorded or disclosed in the financial statements.
22. The Plan or trust has satisfactory title to all owned assets that are recorded at fair value and contract value (if any), and all liens, encumbrances, or security interest requiring disclosure in the financial statements have been properly disclosed.
23. We have disclosed to you the results of our assessment of the risk that the financial statements may be materially misstated as a result of fraud.
24. We have no knowledge of any fraud or suspected fraud that affects the Plan and involves
 - a. management,
 - b. employees who have significant roles in internal control, or
 - c. others when the fraud could have a material effect on the financial statements.
25. We have no knowledge of any allegations of fraud, or suspected fraud, affecting the Plan's financial statements communicated by employees, former employees, participants, regulators, beneficiaries, service providers, third-party administrators, or others.
26. There have been no communications from regulatory agencies concerning noncompliance with, or deficiencies in, financial reporting practices that could have a material effect on the financial statements in the event of noncompliance. We have disclosed to you all known instances of noncompliance or suspected noncompliance with laws and regulations whose effects should be considered when preparing financial statements.
27. We have not consulted legal counsel for any litigation claims or matters against the Plan. Any legal consultations, if any, were limited to administrative discussions.

28. We are not aware of any pending or threatened litigation, claims, and assessments whose effects should be considered when preparing the financial statements.
29. There are no other matters that legal counsel have advised us must be disclosed.
30. We have disclosed to you the identity of the Plan's related parties and parties in interest and all the related party and party in interest relationships and transactions of which we are aware.
31. We have apprised you of all communications, whether written or oral, with regulatory agencies concerning the operation of the Plan.
32. There are no debt and other contractual agreements that would have a material effect on the financial statements in the event of noncompliance.
33. All required filings with the appropriate agencies have been made.
34. We are responsible for compliance with all applicable ERISA and Internal Revenue Code (IRC) requirements. The Plan (and the trust established under the Plan) is qualified under the appropriate section of the IRC and intends to continue as a qualified plan (and trust). The plan sponsor has operated the Plan and trust or insurance contract in a manner that did not jeopardize this tax status.
35. The Plan has complied with the Department of Labor's regulations concerning the timely remittance of participants' contributions to trusts containing assets for the Plan.
36. The Plan has complied with the fidelity bonding requirements of ERISA.
37. There are no

- a. nonexempt party-in-interest transactions (as defined in ERISA Section 406-408 and regulations thereunder) that were not disclosed in the supplemental schedule(s) or financial statements.
- b. investments in default or considered to be uncollectible that were not disclosed in the supplemental schedule(s).
- c. reportable transactions (as defined in ERISA Section 103[b][3][H] and regulations under that section) that were not disclosed in the supplemental schedule(s).

38. We understand that one participant received matching contributions on compensation in excess of the IRS limit for the 2025 plan year. We intend to work with our service provider to have the ineligible matching amounts forfeited as soon as administratively feasible.
