Dublin, OH 43016

This representation letter is provided in connection with your audit of the financial statements of Immediate Health Employee Stock Ownership Plan (the Plan), an employee benefit plan subject to the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA), which comprise the statements of net assets available for benefits as of December 31, 2025 and 2024, the related statement of changes in net assets available for benefits for the year ended December 31, 2025, and the related notes to the financial statements.

The purpose of an ERISA audit is to express an opinion on whether the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements, other than those agreed to or derived from the certified investment information, are presented fairly, in all material respects, in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (U.S. GAAP) and that the assets held by and certified to by a qualified institution agrees to, or is derived from, in all material respects, the certified investment information.

Certain representations in this letter are described as being limited to matters that are material. Items are considered to be material, regardless of size, if they involve an omission or misstatement of accounting information that, in light of surrounding circumstances, makes it probable that the judgment of a reasonable person relying on the information would be changed or influenced by the omission or misstatement.

We confirm that, to the best of our knowledge and belief, having made such inquiries as we considered necessary for the purpose of appropriately informing ourselves as of the date of this letter:

Financial Statements

1. We have fulfilled our responsibilities, as set out in the terms of the engagement letter for the audit and report on the financial statements mentioned above, for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements (including disclosures) in accordance with U.S. GAAP.
2. We acknowledge our responsibility for administering the Plan and determining that the Plan's transactions that are presented and disclosed in the ERISA plan financial statements are in conformity with the Plan's provisions, including maintaining sufficient records with respect to each of the participants to determine the benefits due or which may become due to such participants.
3. We acknowledge our responsibility for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.
4. We acknowledge our responsibility for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control to prevent and detect fraud.
5. Significant assumptions used by us in making accounting estimates, including those measured at fair value, are reasonable. The methods and significant assumptions used to estimate fair values of financial instruments are disclosed in Note 4 to the financial statements. The methods and significant assumptions used result in a measure of fair value appropriate for financial measurement and disclosure purposes.

6. We are responsible for the estimation methods and assumptions used in measuring assets and liabilities reported or disclosed at fair value, including information obtained from brokers, pricing services, or other third parties. Our valuation methodologies have been consistently applied from period to period. The fair value measurements reported or disclosed represent our best estimate of fair value as of the measurement date in accordance with the requirements of Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) 820, Fair Value Measurement. In addition, our disclosures related to fair value measurements are consistent with the objectives outlined in FASB ASC 820.
7. Related party relationships and transactions have been appropriately accounted for and disclosed in accordance with the requirements of U.S. GAAP.
8. Transactions with parties in interest, as defined in Section 3(14) of ERISA and regulations thereunder, including sales, purchases, loans, transfers, leasing arrangements, and guarantees, and amounts receivable from, or payable to, related parties have been appropriately disclosed.
9. All events subsequent to the date of the financial statements and for which U.S. GAAP requires adjustment or disclosure have been adjusted or disclosed.
10. The effects of all known actual or possible litigation and claims have been accounted for and disclosed in accordance with U.S. GAAP.
11. We have no intentions to terminate the plan.
12. We have properly reported and disclosed amendments to the plan instrument, if any.
13. We agree with the findings of the specialist in evaluating the fair market value of the common stock of Immediate Health Associates, Inc., held by the Plan and have adequately considered the qualifications of the specialist in determining the amounts and disclosures used in the financial statements and underlying accounting records. We did not give instructions, or cause any instructions to be given, to the specialist with respect to the values or amounts derived in an attempt to bias their work, and we are not otherwise aware of any matters that have had an impact on the independence or objectivity of the specialist.
14. With respect to the nonattest services your firm has provided, we have performed the following:
    a. Assumed all management responsibilities including making all management decisions;
    b. Assigned a competent individual with the skill, knowledge, and expertise to oversee the nonattest services;
    c. Evaluated the adequacy of the services performed;
    d. Evaluated and accepted responsibility for the result of the service performed; and
    e. Established and maintained internal controls, including monitoring ongoing activities.
15. We have no knowledge of any uncorrected misstatements in the financial statements.
16. We have requested an unsecured electronic copy of the auditor's report and financial statements and agree that the auditor's report and financial statements will not be modified in any manner. We will notify you in advance of our intent to include your report, in whole or in part, in any document other than the Form 5500 filed with regulatory agency or printed, in whole or in part, for any reason, and you will have the opportunity to review such matter before its filing or issuance.

ERISA-Required Supplemental Schedules

17. We acknowledge our responsibility for the presentation of the ERISA-required supplemental schedules in conformity with the Department of Labor's (DOL) Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA.
18. We believe that the ERISA-required supplemental schedules, including their form and content, are presented in conformity with the DOL's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA.

Information Provided

19. We have provided you with
    a. access to all information, of which we are aware that is relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements, such as records, documentation, and other matters;
    b. additional information that you have requested from us for the purpose of the audit;
    c. unrestricted access to persons within the Plan from whom you determined it necessary to obtain audit evidence;
    d. the currently effective version of the Plan document, the trust agreement or insurance contracts, and all related amendments. The Plan was most recently amended on December 21, 2023 and effective as of January 1, 2023;
    e. a draft of the Form 5500 that is substantially complete;
    f. all correspondence, filings, reports and determinations with the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) and the DOL relating to the Plan's compliance with ERISA and maintenance of its tax-exempt status;
    g. all plan financial records and related data. In that regard, the payroll information we provided you covered all employees that were eligible to participate in the Plan; and
    h. all minutes of the plan administrative committee meetings or summaries of actions of recent meetings for which minutes have not yet been prepared, if any.
    i. We certify that for the period from January 1, 2025 to the date of this letter, there has/have been no:
        i. Mergers related to the Plan.
        ii. Mergers, reorganizations, business acquisitions or disposals, or formation or dissolutions of any business entities.
        iii. Adoption or amendment of any employee benefit plans.
        iv. Partial Plan termination.
        v. Changes in Plan trustees or Plan Administrator.
        vi. Changes in service providers.
        vii. Additional company contributions attributable to the Plan year.
        viii. Changes to the contribution policy.
        ix. Stock dividends, splits, or dividends declared but unpaid.

20. All transactions have been recorded in the accounting records and are reflected in the financial statements.
21. The Plan Sponsor's management designated an individual with sufficient skills, knowledge and experience to oversee the financial statement preparation process and take responsibility for the results of the financial statement preparation services. This individual performed a detailed review of the financial statements, consisting of the following procedures:
    a. Reconciliation of the trust activity and participant statements to the financial statements.
    b. Review and approval of all journal entries proposed by you, including review of supporting documentation and explanations.
    c. Review of the adequacy of financial statement disclosures by review and approval of the disclosure checklist completed by you.
    d. Review and approval of schedules and calculations supporting the amounts included in the notes to the financial statements.
    e. Applying analytical procedures to financial statements.
22. We have disclosed to you the results of our assessment of the risk that the financial statements may be materially misstated as a result of fraud.
23. We have no knowledge of any fraud or suspected fraud that affects the plan and involves
    a. management,
    b. employees who have significant roles in internal control, or
    c. others when the fraud could have a material effect on the financial statements.
24. We have no knowledge of any allegations of fraud, or suspected fraud, affecting the plan's financial statements communicated by employees, former employees, participants, regulators, beneficiaries, service providers, third-party administrators, or others.
25. We have disclosed to you all known instances of noncompliance or suspected noncompliance with laws and regulations whose effects should be considered when preparing financial statements, if any.
26. We are not aware of any pending or threatened litigation, claims, and assessments whose effects should be considered when preparing the financial statements and we have not consulted legal counsel concerning litigation, claims, or assessments.
27. There are no other matters (for example, breach of fiduciary responsibilities, nonexempt transactions, loans or loans in default, or events that may jeopardize the tax status) that legal counsel has advised us must be disclosed.
28. We have disclosed to you the identity of the plan's related parties and parties in interest and all the related party and party in interest relationships and transactions of which we are aware.
29. We are aware of no deficiencies in internal control over financial reporting, including significant deficiencies or material weaknesses, in the design of operations of internal controls that could adversely affect the Plans ability to record, process, summarize and report financial data.
30. We have no plans or intentions that may materially affect the carrying value or classification of assets or liabilities.
31. The Plan or trust has satisfactory title to all owned assets that are recorded at fair value and all liens, encumbrances or security interests have been properly disclosed.
32. Concentration of credit risk have been properly disclosed.

33. We have obtained and reviewed all applicable third-party Service Organization Control (SOC) reports and have considered and implemented applicable complimentary user entity controls.
34. There have been no communication, whether written or oral, from regulatory agencies concerning noncompliance with, or deficiencies in, the operation of the Plan.
35. There are no debt and other contractual agreements that would have a material effect on the financial statements in the event of noncompliance.
36. All required filings with the appropriate agencies have been made.
37. We have complied with (a) all aspects of debt and other contractual agreements, including provisions of the Plan, that would have a material effect on the financial statements in the event of noncompliance, including the release of unallocated shares held, (b) the fidelity bonding requirements of ERISA, (c) all participant eligibility and coverage requirements of the Plan, ERISA and the Internal Revenue Code (IRC), and (d) the filing requirements of appropriate agencies.
38. We have no knowledge of noncompliance or suspected noncompliance with laws and regulations.
39. The Plan (and the trust established under the Plan) is qualified under the appropriate section of the IRC and intends to continue as a qualified plan (and trust). The plan sponsor(s) has operated the Plan and trust or insurance contract, if applicable, in a manner that did not jeopardize this tax status.

40. We have reviewed the complementary user entity control considerations of the Service Organization Controls (SOC 1) Report for:
    a. Paychex, Inc. Payroll Processing System dated November 1, 2024 for the period ended September 30, 2025, with the gap letter through February 27, 2026;
    b. Paychex, Inc. Information Technology Services System dated November 1, 2024 for the period ended September 30, 2025, with the gap letter through March 12, 2026;
41. There are no:
    a. nonexempt party in interest transactions (as defined in ERISA Section 406-408 and regulations thereunder) that were not disclosed in the supplemental schedules or financial statements.
    b. investments in default or considered to be uncollectible that were not disclosed in the supplemental schedules.
    c. reportable transactions (as defined in ERISA Section 103(b)(3)(H) and regulations under that section) that were not disclosed in the supplemental schedules.
42. During the course of your audit, you may have accumulated records containing data that should be reflected in our books and records. All such data have been so reflected. Accordingly, copies of such records in your possession are no longer needed by us.
43. We have obtained appropriate fee disclosures from covered service providers and have concluded the fees are reasonable. The Plan is in compliance with DOL regulations regarding ERISA Section 408(b)(2).
