INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

September 28, 2026

To the Administrative Committee of the Tiara Yachts, Inc. Health and Welfare Benefit Plan
Holland, Michigan

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of Tiara Yachts, Inc. Health and Welfare Benefit Plan, an employee benefit plan subject to the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA), which comprise the statements of assets available for benefits – cash basis as of December 31, 2025 and 2024, and the related statements of changes in assets available for benefits – cash basis for the years then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the assets available for benefits – cash basis of Tiara Yachts, Inc. Health and Welfare Benefit Plan as of December 31, 2025 and 2024, and the changes in its assets available for benefits – cash basis for the years then ended in accordance with the cash basis of accounting described in Note B.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of Tiara Yachts, Inc. Health and Welfare Benefit Plan and to meet our other ethical responsibilities, in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audits. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Emphasis of Matter – Basis of Accounting

We draw attention to Note B to the financial statements, which describes the basis of accounting. The financial statements are prepared on the cash basis of accounting, which is a basis of accounting other than accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Our opinion is not modified with respect to this matter.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with the cash basis of accounting described in Note B; and for determining that the cash basis of accounting is an acceptable basis for the preparation of the financial statements in the circumstances. Management is also responsible for the design, implementation and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Management is also responsible for maintaining a current plan instrument, including all plan amendments, administering the plan, and determining the plan's transactions are presented and disclosed in the financial statements are in conformity with the plan's provisions, including maintaining sufficient records with respect to each of the participants, to determine the benefits due or which may become due to such participants.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements, as a whole, are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.

- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of Tiara Yachts, Inc. Health and Welfare Benefit Plan's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.

- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.

- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about Tiara Yachts, Inc. Health and Welfare Benefit Plan's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control-related matters that we identified during the audit.

General

The Plan is a health benefit plan that covers substantially all employees of Tiara Yachts, Inc. (Company) and their dependents. The Plan also provides continuation of certain benefits upon termination of employment through the Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act (COBRA). The Company serves as plan sponsor and plan administrator.

Plan assets are health in a voluntary employees' beneficiary associate (VEBA) trust managed by the Company. The Plan is subject to the provisions of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA).

Eligibility

Employees of the Company who are not classified as temporary or seasonal are eligible to participate in the Plan after completion of a waiting period as defined by the Plan.

Contributions

The Company contributes amounts necessary to provide assets sufficient to pay the benefits for which plan members are eligible. In addition, participants contribute specific amounts per employee and family member to the Plan through payroll deductions based on their elected coverage. The Plan receives contributions from participants under the provisions of COBRA which provides that participants can elect to continue, for specified periods of time, their health care benefits which otherwise, due to certain events, would have been lost.

Funding

Some benefits under the plan are insured, meaning the benefits provided under a policy of insurance issued by an insurer. Other benefits under the plan are self-funded, meaning that they are paid from the trust or the assets of the Company. The Company has secured excess loss insurance coverage to protect the fund from catastrophic claims. The Plan received $179,189 and $299,516 in excess loss reimbursements, which has been netted against benefit payments in the accompanying financial statements, for the years ended December 31, 2025 and 2024, respectively.

Benefits

The plan provides medical, prescription, and dental benefits, which are self-insured. The claims for self-insured benefits are processed by the Plan's third party claims processers under administrative services only arrangements. The claims processors pay claims directly to or on behalf of participants and are then reimbursed by the Plan's VEBA trust account. The Company also makes voluntary, fully insured vision, life, disability insurance and other benefits available.

Note B – Summary of Accounting Policies

Plan Expenses

Plan administrative expenses represent fees for third party administration and other professional services and are based on reasonable and customary rates. Certain other costs and expenses attributable to Plan operations are absorbed by the plan sponsor.

Basis of Accounting

The accompanying financial statements are prepared using the cash basis of accounting. Under this basis of accounting, revenues are recorded when cash is received, and expenses are recorded when cash is disbursed. Liabilities for benefit claims incurred but not reported or paid, other benefit claims, and administrative costs currently payable are not reflected in the accompanying financial statements. However, in accordance with Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) 965, Health and Welfare Benefit Plans, the benefit obligations and changes in benefit obligations have been disclosed in Note E. The cash basis of accounting is a comprehensive basis of accounting other than accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with cash basis accounting requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, and changes therein, and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Cash Deposits

The Plan occasionally maintains deposits in excess of federally insured limits. This risk is managed by maintaining all deposits in high quality financial institutions.

Subsequent Events

Management evaluates events occurring subsequent to the date of the financial statements in determining the accounting for and disclosure of transactions and events that affect the financial statements. Subsequent events have been evaluated through September 28, 2026, which is the date the financial statements were available to be issued.

Note C – Party-In-Interest Transactions

The Plan pays administrative fees for claims processing and other services provided to the Plan. Fees incurred for legal, accounting and other services rendered by parties-in-interest are based on customary and reasonable rates and are paid by either the employer or the Plan.

Note D – Tax Status

The trust established under the Plan to hold the Plan's assets is intended to qualify for tax-exempt status, pursuant to the Internal Revenue Code (IRC) Section 501(c)(9). The trust has obtained a favorable determination letter from the IRS and the plan sponsor believes that the trust, as amended, continues to qualify, and operate in accordance with the applicable provisions of the IRC.

The cash basis of accounting requires plan management to evaluate tax positions taken by the Plan and recognize a tax liability (or asset) if the Plan has taken an uncertain position that more likely than not would not be sustained upon examination by the Internal Revenue Service. The plan administrator has analyzed the tax positions taken by the Plan, and has concluded that as of December 31, 2025, there are no uncertain positions taken or expected to be taken that would require recognition of a liability (or asset) or disclosure in the financial statements. The Plan is subject to audits by taxing jurisdictions; however, there are currently no audits for any tax period in progress. The plan administrator believes it is no longer subject to income tax examinations for years prior to 2022.

Note E – Benefit Obligations

The following table presents the Plan's statements of benefit obligations:

Total benefit obligations at end of period	$ 753,286	$ 744,003

Note F – Risks and Uncertainties

Benefit obligations for claims incurred but not reported are estimates based on expected activity in the Plan. Due to uncertainties inherent in the estimation process, it is at least reasonably possible that changes in these estimates in the near-term would be material to the financial statements.

Note G – Plan Termination

Although it has not expressed any intent to do so, the Company has the right to terminate or amend the Plan at any time. In the event of termination, all previous contributions to the Plan will continue to be used for the purpose of paying benefits incurred prior to termination.
