Opinion

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of Fringe Benefit Plan for Service Contract Act Employees of Maximus Services, LLC, an employee benefit plan subject to the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA), which comprise the Statements of Benefit Obligations and Net Assets Available for Benefits as of December 31, 2025 and 2024, and the related Statement of Changes in Benefit Obligations and Net Assets Available for Benefits for the year ended December 31 2025, and the related notes to the financial statements.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the benefit obligations and net assets available for benefits of Fringe Benefit Plan for Service Contract Act Employees of Maximus Services, LLC as of December 31, 2025 and 2024, and the changes in its benefit obligations and net assets available for benefits for the year ended December 31, 2025, in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditors' Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of Fringe Benefit Plan for Service Contract Act Employees of Maximus Services, LLC and to meet our other ethical responsibilities, in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audits. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about Fringe Benefit Plan for Service Contract Act Employees of Maximus Services, LLC's ability to continue as a going concern for one year after the date the financial statements are available to be issued.

Management is also responsible for maintaining a current plan instrument, including all plan amendments; administering the plan; and determining that the plan's transactions that are presented and disclosed in the financial statements are in conformity with the plan's provisions, including maintaining sufficient records with respect to each of the participants, to determine the benefits due or which may become due to such participants.

Auditors' Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditors' report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.

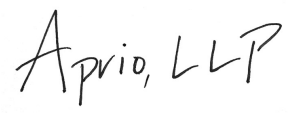

- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of Fringe Benefit Plan for Service Contract Act Employees of Maximus Services, LLC's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.

- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.

- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about Fringe Benefit Plan for Service Contract Act Employees of Maximus Services, LLC's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control-related matters that we identified during the audit.

1. Description of the Plan

The following description of the Fringe Benefit Plan for Service Contract Act Employees of Maximus Services, LLC (the Plan) provides only general information. Participants should refer to the Plan document for a complete description of the Plan's provisions.

General: The Plan provides health and other benefits to full-time and part-time Service Contract Act ("SCA") employees of Maximus Services, LLC and Maximus Federal Service, Inc. (collectively the "Company"). Part-time SCA employees and their dependents are eligible for certain programs. The assets of the Plan are held in a trust. The Plan is subject to the provisions of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended (ERISA).

Employees become eligible the first day of the month coincident with or next following the completion of 30 days of employment.

Benefits: The Plan provides health benefits (medical, vision, dental, and prescription drug), life insurance, short-term and long-term disability benefits, critical illness, hospital indemnity, accident, legal, dependent care assistance, and an employee assistance program. Effective January 1, 2025, the Plan provides for basic and voluntary accidental death and dismemberment insurance. The Plan also provides continuation of certain benefits upon termination of employment through the Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act (COBRA).

Insured benefits: The Plan offers two vision programs from which participants can choose. The Plan fully insures basic and supplemental life insurance benefits, accident insurance, legal, critical illness, hospital indemnity, short-term disability benefits, and long-term disability benefits. Effective January 1, 2025, the Plan fully insures basic and voluntary accidental death and dismemberment benefits. In addition, the medical coverage for certain participants is provided under a fully-insured health maintenance organization (HMO) contract.

Self-insured benefits: Medical benefits other than those covered by the HMO contract, dental benefits, and prescription drug benefits are self-insured. The claims for self-insured benefits are processed by the Plan's third-party claims processors under administrative services only (ASO) arrangements. The claims processors pay claims directly to or on behalf of participants and are then reimbursed by the Plan. Despite the Plan's utilization of third-party claims processors, ultimate responsibility for payments to providers and participants is retained by the Plan.

The Plan utilizes a pharmacy benefit manager (PBM) which periodically makes refunds to the Plan based on the Plan's actual utilization pattern of specific drugs.

Stop loss coverage: The Plan has entered into a stop loss arrangement in an effort to limit its exposure for self-insured benefits (individual participant claims over a specific dollar amount).

Contributions: Participants contribute specified amounts to the Plan based on applicable monthly premium equivalents established for their respective benefit elections.

The Company makes contributions on behalf of employees in amounts required to satisfy the fringe benefit contribution obligations under the SCA. The Company also makes contributions to the Plan as needed to fund premiums and claims in excess of participant contributions.

Participant accounts: A separate Premium Reserve Account is maintained for each participant. The account is credited monthly with the employee and employer contributions for the month and reduced by the premiums paid and administrative expenses incurred on behalf of each participant. Any net contribution in excess of a six month premium reserve is paid to the Company's qualified retirement plan on the participant's behalf.

The Plan includes a Health Reimbursement program. Participants receive a contribution from the Company up to $500 upon completion of wellbeing activities.

2. Significant accounting policies

Basis of accounting: The accompanying financial statements have been prepared using the accrual basis of accounting.

The Plan's benefit obligations as of December 31, 2025 and 2024 and changes in benefit obligations for the year ended December 31, 2025 have been presented on the same statements as the Plan's net assets available for benefits and changes in net assets available for benefits.

Concentration of credit risk arising from cash deposits in excess of insured limits: The Plan maintains a cash balance at one commercial bank which can exceed the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) insured deposit limit of $250,000 per financial institution. At December 31, 2025 and 2024, the Plan's cash balance held at a commercial bank exceeded the FDIC limit by approximately $6,236,000 and $14,717,000, respectively. The Plan has not experienced any losses through the date when the financial statements were available to be issued.

Contributions receivable: Contributions receivable represent amounts due from the participants for premium equivalents and from the Company for SCA contributions and any additional amounts necessary to cover claims.

Payment of benefits: Claim payments are recorded when paid by the third-party claims processors. Amounts due to the claims processors that have yet to be reimbursed by the Plan are recorded as due to claims administrators in the accompanying Statements of Benefit Obligations and Net Assets Available for Benefits. Amounts paid to claims processors in advance of the processor's payment to providers is recorded as advance to claims administrator in the accompanying Statements of Benefit Obligations and Net Assets Available for Benefits. Premium payments are recorded as expense in the period of insurance coverage.

Stop loss: Premiums for stop loss insurance are included in premiums paid in the accompanying Statement of Changes in Benefit Obligations and Net Assets Available for Benefits. Stop loss refunds totaling $1,701,264 for 2025 have been netted with claims paid in the accompanying Statement of Changes in Benefit Obligations and Net Assets Available for Benefits. Refunds due at December 31, 2025 and 2024 are reported in accounts receivable and other assets in the accompanying Statements of Benefit Obligations and Net Assets Available for Benefits, and include approximately $1,515,000 that was paid by the insurance company to the Company and is due to the Plan.

Refunds: Refunds from the Plan's PBM and other rebates are recorded when earned under the contract, and when the amounts can be reasonably estimated. Pharmacy rebates totaling $14,848,866 for 2025 have been netted with claims paid in the accompanying Statement of Changes in Benefit Obligations and Net Assets Available for Benefits.

Use of estimates: The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, benefit obligations and changes therein, and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Subsequent events: Management has evaluated subsequent events for disclosure in these financial statements through October 13, 2026, which is the date the financial statements were available to be issued.

3. Claims incurred but not reported

Plan obligations for claims incurred but not reported are estimated based on claims data provided by the Plan's third-party claims administrators. These amounts are paid by the Plan only if claims are submitted and approved for payment.

4. Administrative expenses

The Plan pays administrative expenses that consist primarily of fees paid to third-party claims administrators, as well as other professional service fees to administrative service providers. These payments qualify as exempt party-in-interest transactions.

5. Tax status

The trust received a favorable exemption letter from the Internal Revenue Service on August 29, 2008, under the provisions of Section 501(c) (9) of the Internal Revenue Code (IRC) indicating that the trust is exempt from income taxes.

The Plan and the trust are required to operate in conformity with the IRC to maintain the tax-exempt status of the trust. The Plan administrator believes the Plan is being operated in compliance with the applicable requirements of the IRC, and, therefore believes that the related trust is tax-exempt.

Accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America require Plan management to evaluate tax positions taken by the Plan and recognize a tax liability (or asset) if it has taken an uncertain position that more likely than not would not be sustained upon examination. The Plan is subject to routine audits by taxing jurisdictions; however, there are currently no audits for any tax periods in progress.

6. Plan termination

Although it has not expressed any intention to do so, the Company has the right under the Plan to modify the benefits provided to, and contributions required of, participants, to discontinue its contributions at any time and to terminate the Plan subject to the provisions of ERISA. In the event of termination of the Plan, remaining assets will be applied in a uniform and nondiscriminatory manner toward the provision of benefits for or on account of the participants.
