Independent Auditor's Report

Plan Administrator
American United Life Insurance Company
Welfare Benefits Plan for Post-65 Emeritus Agents
Indianapolis, Indiana

We have audited the financial statements of American United Life Insurance Company Welfare Benefits Plan for Post-65 Emeritus Agents, an employee benefit plan subject to the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA), which comprise the statements of net assets available for benefits and of plan benefit obligations as of December 31, 2025 and 2024, and the related statements of changes in net assets available for benefits and of changes in benefit obligations for the years then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

In our opinion, the accompanying financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the net assets available for benefits and plan benefit obligations of American United Life Insurance Company Welfare Benefits Plan for Post-65 Emeritus Agents as of December 31, 2025 and 2024, and the changes in its net assets available for benefits and plan benefit obligations for the years then ended, in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAS). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of American United Life Insurance Company Welfare Benefits Plan for Post-65 Emeritus Agents and to meet our other ethical responsibilities, in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audits. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about American United Life Insurance Company Welfare Benefits Plan for Post-65 Emeritus Agents' ability to continue as a going concern within one year after the date that these financial statements are available to be issued.

Management is also responsible for maintaining a current plan instrument, including all plan amendments, administering the plan, and determining that the plan's transactions that are presented and disclosed in the financial statements are in conformity with the plan's provisions, including maintaining sufficient records with respect to each of the participants, to determine the benefits due or which may become due to such participants.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with GAAS will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if, there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with GAAS, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of American United Life Insurance Company Welfare Benefits Plan for Post-65 Emeritus Agents' internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about American United Life Insurance Company Welfare Benefits Plan for Post-65 Emeritus Agents' ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control-related matters that we identified during the audit.

Independent Auditor's Report

Plan Administrator
American United Life Insurance Company
Welfare Benefits Plan for Post-65 Emeritus Agents

We have audited the financial statements of American United Life Insurance Company Welfare Benefits Plan for Post-65 Emeritus Agents, an employee benefit plan subject to the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA), which comprise the statements of net assets available for benefits and of plan benefit obligations as of December 31, 2025 and 2024, and the related statements of changes in net assets available for benefits and of changes in benefit obligations for the years then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

In our opinion, the accompanying financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the net assets available for benefits and plan benefit obligations of American United Life Insurance Company Welfare Benefits Plan for Post-65 Emeritus Agents as of December 31, 2025 and 2024, and the changes in its net assets available for benefits and plan benefit obligations for the years then ended, in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAS). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of American United Life Insurance Company Welfare Benefits Plan for Post-65 Emeritus Agents and to meet our other ethical responsibilities, in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audits. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Management is also responsible for maintaining a current plan instrument, including all plan amendments, administering the plan, and determining that the plan's transactions that are presented and disclosed in the financial statements are in conformity with the plan's provisions, including maintaining sufficient records with respect to each of the participants, to determine the benefits due or which may become due to such participants.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with GAAS will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if, there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with GAAS, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.

Note 1. Description of the Plan

The following description of the American United Life Insurance Company Welfare Benefits Plan for Post-65 Emeritus Agents (Plan) provides only general information. Participants should refer to the Plan Document and Summary Plan Description for a more complete description of the Plan's provisions, which are available from the Plan Administrator.

General

The Plan was established on March 1, 2008 and provides health and other benefits covering eligible agents of American United Life Insurance Company (Company or Plan Sponsor) and its affiliates. In connection with the Plan, the Company established the American United Life Insurance Company Welfare Benefits Trust Agreement for Agents (Trust). It is subject to the provisions of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA), as amended. Members of the Company's management serve as Plan trustees. Fifth Third Securities, Inc. serves as the Plan custodian.

Effective April 1, 2019, benefits for the active agents and their eligible dependents transferred to the newly created "OneAmerica Agents' Association Welfare Benefits Plan."

Benefits

The Plan provides medical, dental, vision, and life benefits to Emeritus Agents, as defined, who are over the age of 65. An Emeritus Agent hired prior to April 1, 2011 and who has completed 10 years consecutive service is eligible to participate in the Plan. Participants must be eligible for Medicare to receive benefits under this Plan. Emeritus Agents who are under the age of 65 and their spouse and dependent children are eligible to participate in the dental and vision benefit. Retirees and spouses under the Plan are covered for their lifetime. As of April 1, 2019, all benefits covered by the Plan are fully insured. The Plan continues to pay any claims incurred prior to April 1, 2019.

Life insurance benefits are no longer available for participants who retire after April 1, 2018.

Contributions

Participants are required to make monthly contributions to the Plan based on established rates for elected coverages. The Company makes monthly premium contributions (Company subsidy) to the Plan and additional contributions necessary to fund claims and expenses not covered by the Company and participant contributions.

The Company subsidy is a percentage of a fixed health care premium. The percentage varies from 50% to 0%, depending upon the age at retirement and 5-year average production levels of the retiree. The health care premium to which the contributions percentage applies is fixed at the prevailing levels in the year of retirement. The retiree contributes the difference between the fixed Company subsidy and the current year's total health care premium.

Plan Termination

Although it has not expressed intention to do so, the Company has the right under the Plan to discontinue its contributions at any time and to terminate the Plan, subject to the provisions of ERISA.

Note 2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Method of Accounting

The accompanying financial statements were prepared on the accrual method of accounting.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, benefit obligations and changes therein, claims incurred but not reported (IBNR), claims payable and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Cash

At December 31, 2025, the Plan's cash accounts did not exceed federally insured limits.

Benefit Obligations

The postretirement benefit obligation represents the actuarial present value of those estimated future benefits that are attributed to agents' service rendered to December 31, 2025 and 2024, reduced by the actuarial present value of contributions expected to be received in the future from current Plan participants. Postretirement benefits include future benefits expected to be paid to or for (1) currently retired or terminated agents and their beneficiaries and dependents and (2) active agents and their beneficiaries and dependents after retirement from service. Prior to an active agent's full eligibility date, the postretirement benefit obligation is the portion of the expected postretirement benefit obligation that is attributed to that agent's service rendered to the valuation date.

The actuarial present value of the expected postretirement benefit obligation is determined by an actuary and is the amount that results from applying actuarial assumptions to historical claims-cost data to estimate future annual incurred claims costs per participant and to adjust such estimates for the time value of money and the probability of payment between the valuation date and the expected date of payment.

For measurement purposes, a 7.50% and 7.00% annual rate of increase in the per capita cost of covered health care benefits was assumed for 2025 and 2024, respectively. For 2025 and 2024, the rates are assumed to decrease gradually to 5.00% through 2036 and 2033, respectively, and remain at that level thereafter.

The following were other significant assumptions used in the valuations as of December 31, 2025 and 2024:

	2025	2024
Equivalent single discount rate	5.19%	5.62%
Average retirement age	Sliding scale between 61-70	Sliding scale between 61-70
Mortality	Pri-2012 mortality tables (no collar) with fully generational projections on the MP-2021 projection scales	Pri-2012 mortality tables (no collar) with fully generational projections on the MP-2021 projection scales

The foregoing assumptions are based on the presumption that the Plan will continue. Were the Plan to terminate, different actuarial assumptions and other factors might be applicable in determining the actuarial present value of postretirement benefit obligations.

Other Plan Benefits

Plan obligations for accumulated eligibility of participants and for future disability payments to members considered permanently disabled are estimated by the Plan's actuary in accordance with accepted actuarial principles. Such estimated amounts are reported in the accompanying statements of the Plan's benefit obligations at present value, based on a 5.19% and 5.62% discount rate for December 31, 2025 and 2024, respectively. Health claims incurred by retired participants but not reported at year end are included in the postretirement benefit obligation.

Plan liabilities for health claims incurred but not reported are estimated based upon historic claims experience and actual claims reported subsequent to the Plan year end. Additional accruals are included for the estimated ultimate cost of future claims only if such claims are covered as of the Plan's fiscal year end and the Plan is obligated to pay for the care regardless of continued participation in the Plan.

Plan Tax Status

The Trust is intended to constitute a voluntary employees' beneficiary association under Section 501(c)(9) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986. The Plan obtained its latest determination letter on December 22, 2009, in which the Internal Revenue Service stated that the Plan, as designed, is in compliance with the applicable requirements of the Internal Revenue Code and therefore not subject to tax. The Plan has been amended since receiving the determination letter. However, the Plan Administrator believes that the Plan and related trust are currently designed and being operated in compliance with the applicable requirements of the Internal Revenue Code.

Administrative Expenses

Administrative expenses may be paid by the Company or the Plan, at the Company's discretion.

Note 3. Benefit Obligations

The Plan's deficiency of net assets compared to benefit obligations at December 31, 2025 and 2024, relates primarily to the postretirement benefit obligation, the funding of which is not covered by the current contribution rate. It is expected that the deficiency will be funded through future increases in the contribution rates.

The Company's subsidy for retired agent premiums is a percentage of the health care premiums, which are fixed in the year of retirement. By fixing its subsidy levels, the Company intends to allocate future cost increases to the Plan participants through future premium increases. If the future premium increases are not adequate to cover future benefit costs, the Company will provide for any shortfall.

The weighted-average health care cost-trend rate assumption (see Note 2) has a significant effect on the amounts reported in the accompanying financial statements. If the assumed rates increased by one percentage point, it would increase the obligations as of December 31, 2025 and 2024, by $14,767 and $14,547, respectively.

Note 4. Party-in-Interest Transactions

Party-in-interest transactions include those with fiduciaries or employees of the Plan, any person who provides services to the Plan, an employer whose employees are covered by the Plan, an employee organization whose members are covered by the Plan, a person who owns 50% or more of such an employer or employee association, or relatives of such persons.

The Plan incurs expenses related to general administration and recordkeeping. Life benefits are fully insured by the Company. Dental, vision and certain health benefits are fully insured by other providers. For the years ended December 31, 2025 and 2024, the Plan paid expenses as follows:

	2025	2024
Insurance Premiums
Plan Sponsor	$ 40,600	$ 42,036
Other providers	132,062	129,389
	172,662	171,425
Administrative Expenses	88,993	90,793
	$ 261,655	$ 262,218

As of December 31, 2025 and 2024, the Plan had recorded $10,100 and $9,491, respectively, payable to the Plan Sponsor for the December insurance premiums due.

Note 5. Risks and Uncertainties

The postretirement benefit obligation and claims payable and incurred but not paid or reported are reported based on certain assumptions pertaining to interest rates, inflation rates, demographics and historical claims-cost data. It is at least reasonably possible that changes in risks in the near term could materially affect amounts reported in the statements of benefit obligations and changes therein.

Note 6. Subsequent Events

Subsequent events have been evaluated through October 9, 2026, which is the date the financial statements were available to be issued.
