SILICON VALLEY ACCOUNTANCY CORPORATION
3150 Almaden Expressway, Suite 105
San Jose, CA 95118

Dear Silicon Valley Accountancy Corporation:

This representation letter is provided in connection with your audit of the financial statements and supplemental schedule of the Immersive Labs 401(k) Plan ("the Plan"), an employee benefit plan subject to the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 ("ERISA"), which comprise the statement of net assets available for benefits as of December 31, 2024, and the related statement of changes in net assets available for benefits for the year then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

We elected to have the audit of the Plan's financial statements performed in accordance with ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) pursuant to 29 CFR 2520.103-8 of the Department of Labor's ("DOL")–Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA. We acknowledge that the audit did not extend to any statements or information related to assets held for investment of the Plan (investment information) by a bank or similar institution or insurance carrier, that is regulated, supervised and subject to periodic examination by a state or federal agency, a qualified institution, that prepared and certified the investment information in accordance with 29 CFR 2520.103-5 of the DOL's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA. We have determined that an ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit is permissible under the circumstances. We have also determined that the investment information is prepared and certified by a qualified institution as described by 29 CFR 2520.103-8, that the certification meets the requirements in 29 CFR 2520.103-5 and, that the certified investment information is appropriately measured, presented, and disclosed in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("U.S. GAAP"). The purpose of an ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit is to express an opinion on whether the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements, other than those agreed to or derived from the certified investment information, are presented fairly, in all material respects, in accordance with U.S. GAAP and that the assets held by and certified to by a qualified institution agrees to, or is derived from, in all material respects, the certified investment information.

Certain representations in this letter are described as being limited to misstatements that are material. Misstatements, including omissions, are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgement made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

We confirm that, to the best of our knowledge and belief, having made such inquiries as we considered necessary for the purpose of appropriately informing ourselves as of December 23, 2025.

Financial Statements

- We have fulfilled our responsibilities, as set out in the terms of the audit engagement letter dated August 15, 2025, for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements (including disclosures) in accordance with U.S. GAAP.

- We acknowledge our responsibility for administering the Plan and determining that the Plan's transactions that are presented and disclosed in the ERISA plan financial statements are in conformity with the Plan's provisions, including maintaining sufficient records with respect to each of the participants to determine the benefits due or which may become due to such participants.

- We acknowledge our responsibility for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

- We acknowledge our responsibility for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control to prevent and detect fraud.

- Significant assumptions used by us in making accounting estimates, including those measured at fair value, are reasonable. The methods and significant assumptions used to estimate fair values of financial instruments are as described in the related notes to the financial statements. The methods and significant assumptions used result in a measure of fair value appropriate for financial measurement and disclosure purposes.

- We are responsible for the estimation methods and assumptions used in measuring assets and liabilities reported or disclosed at fair value, including information obtained from brokers, pricing services, or other third parties. Our valuation methodologies have been consistently applied from period to period. The fair value measurements reported or disclosed represent our best estimate of fair value as of the measurement date in accordance with the requirements of Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) 820, Fair value Measurement. In addition, our disclosures related to fair value measurements are consistent with the objectives outlined in FASB ASC 820.

- Related party relationships and transactions have been appropriately accounted for and disclosed in accordance with the requirements of U.S. GAAP.
- Transactions with parties-in-interest, as defined in Section 3(14) of the ERISA and regulations thereunder, including sales, purchases, loans, transfers, leasing arrangements, and guarantees, and amounts receivable from, or payable to, related parties have been appropriately disclosed.
- All events subsequent to the date of the financial statements and for which U.S. GAAP requires adjustment or disclosure have been adjusted or disclosed.
- The effects of all known actual or possible litigation and claims have been accounted for and disclosed in accordance with U.S. GAAP.
- We have no intentions to terminate the Plan.
- Guarantees, whether written or oral, under which the Plan is contingently liable to a bank or another lending institution have been properly recorded or disclosed in the financial statements.
- We have properly reported and disclosed amendments to the Plan instrument, if any.
- We acknowledge our responsibility for the presentation of the ERISA required supplemental schedule in conformity with the DOL's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA. We believe that the ERISA required supplemental schedule, including the form and content, are presented in conformity with the DOL's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA.

Information Provided

- We have provided you with:
    - Access to all information, of which we are aware that is relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements such as records, documentation, and other matters.
    - The most current plan instrument for the audit period, including all plan amendments.
    - A draft of the Form 5500 that is substantially complete.

  - Additional information that you have requested from us for the purpose of the audit.
  - Unrestricted access to persons within the Plan from whom you determined if necessary to obtain audit evidence.
  - All minutes of the plan administrative committee or trustee meetings or summaries of actions of recent meetings for which minutes have not yet been prepared.

- All transactions have been recorded in the accounting records and are reflected in the financial statements.
- Financial instruments with off-balance-sheet risk and financial instruments with concentrations of credit risk have been properly recorded or disclosed in the financial statements.
- The Plan or trust has satisfactory title to all owned assets that are recorded at fair value, and all liens, encumbrances, or security interest requiring disclosure in the financial statements have been properly disclosed.
- We have disclosed to you the results of our assessment of the risk that the financial statements may be materially misstated as a result of fraud.
- We have no knowledge of any fraud or suspected fraud that affects the Plan and involves:
  - Management,
  - Employees who have significant roles in internal control, or
  - Others where the fraud could have a material effect on the financial statements.
- We have no knowledge of any allegations of fraud or suspected fraud, affecting the Plan's financial statements communicated by employees, former employees, participants, regulators, beneficiaries, service providers, third-party administrators, or others.
- There have been no communications from regulatory agencies concerning noncompliance with, or deficiencies in, financial reporting practices that could have a material effect on the financial statements in the event of noncompliance.

  · We are not aware of any pending or threatened litigation, claims, or assessments or unasserted claims or assessments that are required to be accrued or disclosed in the financial statements in accordance with U.S.

GAAP, and we have not consulted a lawyer concerning litigation, claims, or assessments for the period January 1, 2024 until December 23, 2025.

- There are no other matters (for example, breach of fiduciary responsibilities, nonexempt transactions, loans or loans in default, or events that may jeopardize the tax status) that legal counsel have advised us must be disclosed.
- We have disclosed to you the identity of the Plan's related parties and parties in interest and all the related-party and party-in-interest relationships and transactions of which we are aware.
- We have apprised you of all communications, whether written or oral, with regulatory agencies concerning the operation of the Plan.
- There are no debt and other contractual agreements that would have a material effect on the financial statements in the event of noncompliance.
- All required filings with the appropriate agencies have been made.
- The Plan (and the trust established under the Plan) is qualified under the appropriate section of the Internal Revenue Code and intends to continue as a qualified plan (and trust). The Plan Sponsor has operated the Plan and trust in a manner that did not jeopardize this tax status.
- There are no:
    - Nonexempt party in interest transactions (as defined in ERISA Section 406-408 and regulations thereunder) that were not disclosed in the supplemental schedule or financial statements.
    - Investments in default or considered to be uncollectible that were not disclosed in the supplemental schedule.
    - Reportable transactions (as defined in ERISA Section 13(b)(3)(H) and regulations under that section) that were not disclosed in the supplemental schedule.

  The Plan has complied with DOL regulations concerning the timely remittance of participants' contributions to trusts containing assets for the Plan.
- The Plan has complied with the fidelity bonding requirements of ERISA. The Company does not have fiduciary insurance which covers the Plan.
- The Company contracted with Reliance Trust Company and ADP Retirement Services and Melita Group to provide vendor services to the Plan for the year ended December 31, 2024. We have authorized you to work directly with them to complete the audits of the Plan. We have also reviewed our contract with them and are satisfied that they are in compliance with the terms of the contract.

- There have been no material participant complaints regarding the Plan.
- We have reviewed plan and investment fees (asset management fees, 12b-1, load fees, sales charges, operational expenses, etc.) associated with our funds and are satisfied that they are in compliance with the terms of the contract with our custodian. Additionally, we have reviewed revenue-sharing arrangements associated with our Plan vendors. We have obtained appropriate fee disclosures from covered service providers. The Plan is in compliance with DOL regulations regarding ERISA Section 408(b)(2).
- During the course of your audit, you may have accumulated records containing data which should be reflected in our books and records. All such data has been so reflected. Accordingly, copies of such records in your possession are no longer needed by us and you have our permission to dispose of and destroy these documents as necessary.
- The Payroll department has used the correct definition of Compensation consistent with Plan documents in computing contributions. In addition, we have reviewed the calculations used to determine contributions for each participant and believe our calculations are correct.
- We have reviewed our Plan census information and all eligible employees were allowed to participate in the Plan and all ineligible employees were excluded from the Plan. In addition, we believe all employees (full and part-time) and independent contractors have been correctly classified within their respective categories and we take full responsibility for the accuracy of our census information and correct employee classifications and hold you harmless for any errors in our census information.
- The Plan has auto enrollment. We understand the general risks with auto enrollment as listed below. General risks of auto enrollment:

    o Participants should be auto-enrolled in the plan but are not being enrolled.

    o Participants should NOT be auto-enrolled because they are not eligible but are being auto-enrolled.

    o Participants are auto-enrolled but at the wrong deferral rates or the wrong entry date.

- Participants are eligible to be enrolled but decline and subsequently claim they should have been auto-enrolled but there is no proof that they initially declined or elected a different deferral rate.

After evaluating the above general risks and our review of procedures in place to avoid errors in auto-enrollment, we believe all eligible employees were allowed to participate in the Plan and all ineligible employees were excluded from the Plan. Specifically we understand the risks of auto enrollment which is a feature in the Plan and have taken steps to address those issues.

The provisions of SECURE 2.0 Act of 2022 continue the themes and reforms that began with the 2019 SECURE Act. Certain provisions of both Acts have been implemented by the Plan and the Plan Administrator will continue to determine provisions which will impact the operation of the Plan.

You have informed us that as Plan Sponsor, Immersive Labs, Inc. is ultimately responsible for the accurate processing of all 401(k) transactions at Reliance Trust Company and ADP Retirement Services. We understand that although Immersive Labs, Inc. has contracted with Reliance Trust Company and ADP Retirement Services to provide services to the Plan, it is Immersive Labs, Inc. responsibility to approve all 401(k) transactions and maintain proper documentation for contributions, distributions, rollovers, participant loans, etc. We understand these transactions have to be approved and processed in accordance with ERISA and IRS guidelines and Immersive Labs Inc. cannot contract out this Plan Sponsor responsibility to Reliance Trust Company and ADP Retirement Services.
