INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Joint Governing Board
UAW-Ford Voluntary Employees Beneficiary
Association Trust Fund
Detroit, MI

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of UAW-Ford Voluntary Employees Beneficiary Association Trust Fund (the "Trust"), an employee benefit plan subject to the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA), which comprise the statement of net assets available for benefits as of December 31, 2025 and 2024, and the related statement of changes in net assets available for benefits for the years then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the net assets available for benefits of the Trust as of December 31, 2025 and 2024, and the changes in its net assets available for benefits for the years then ended, in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of the Trust and to meet our other ethical responsibilities, in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audits. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Trust's ability to continue as a going concern for one year after the date the financial statements are available to be issued.

Management is also responsible for maintaining a current plan instrument, including all plan amendments, administering the Trust, and determining that the Trust's transactions that are presented and disclosed in the financial statements are in conformity with the Trust's provisions, including maintaining sufficient records with respect to each of the participants, to determine the benefits due or which may become due to such participants.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, we:

- Exercise professional judgement and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Trust's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Trust's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control-related matters that we identified during the audit.

Supplemental Schedules Required by ERISA

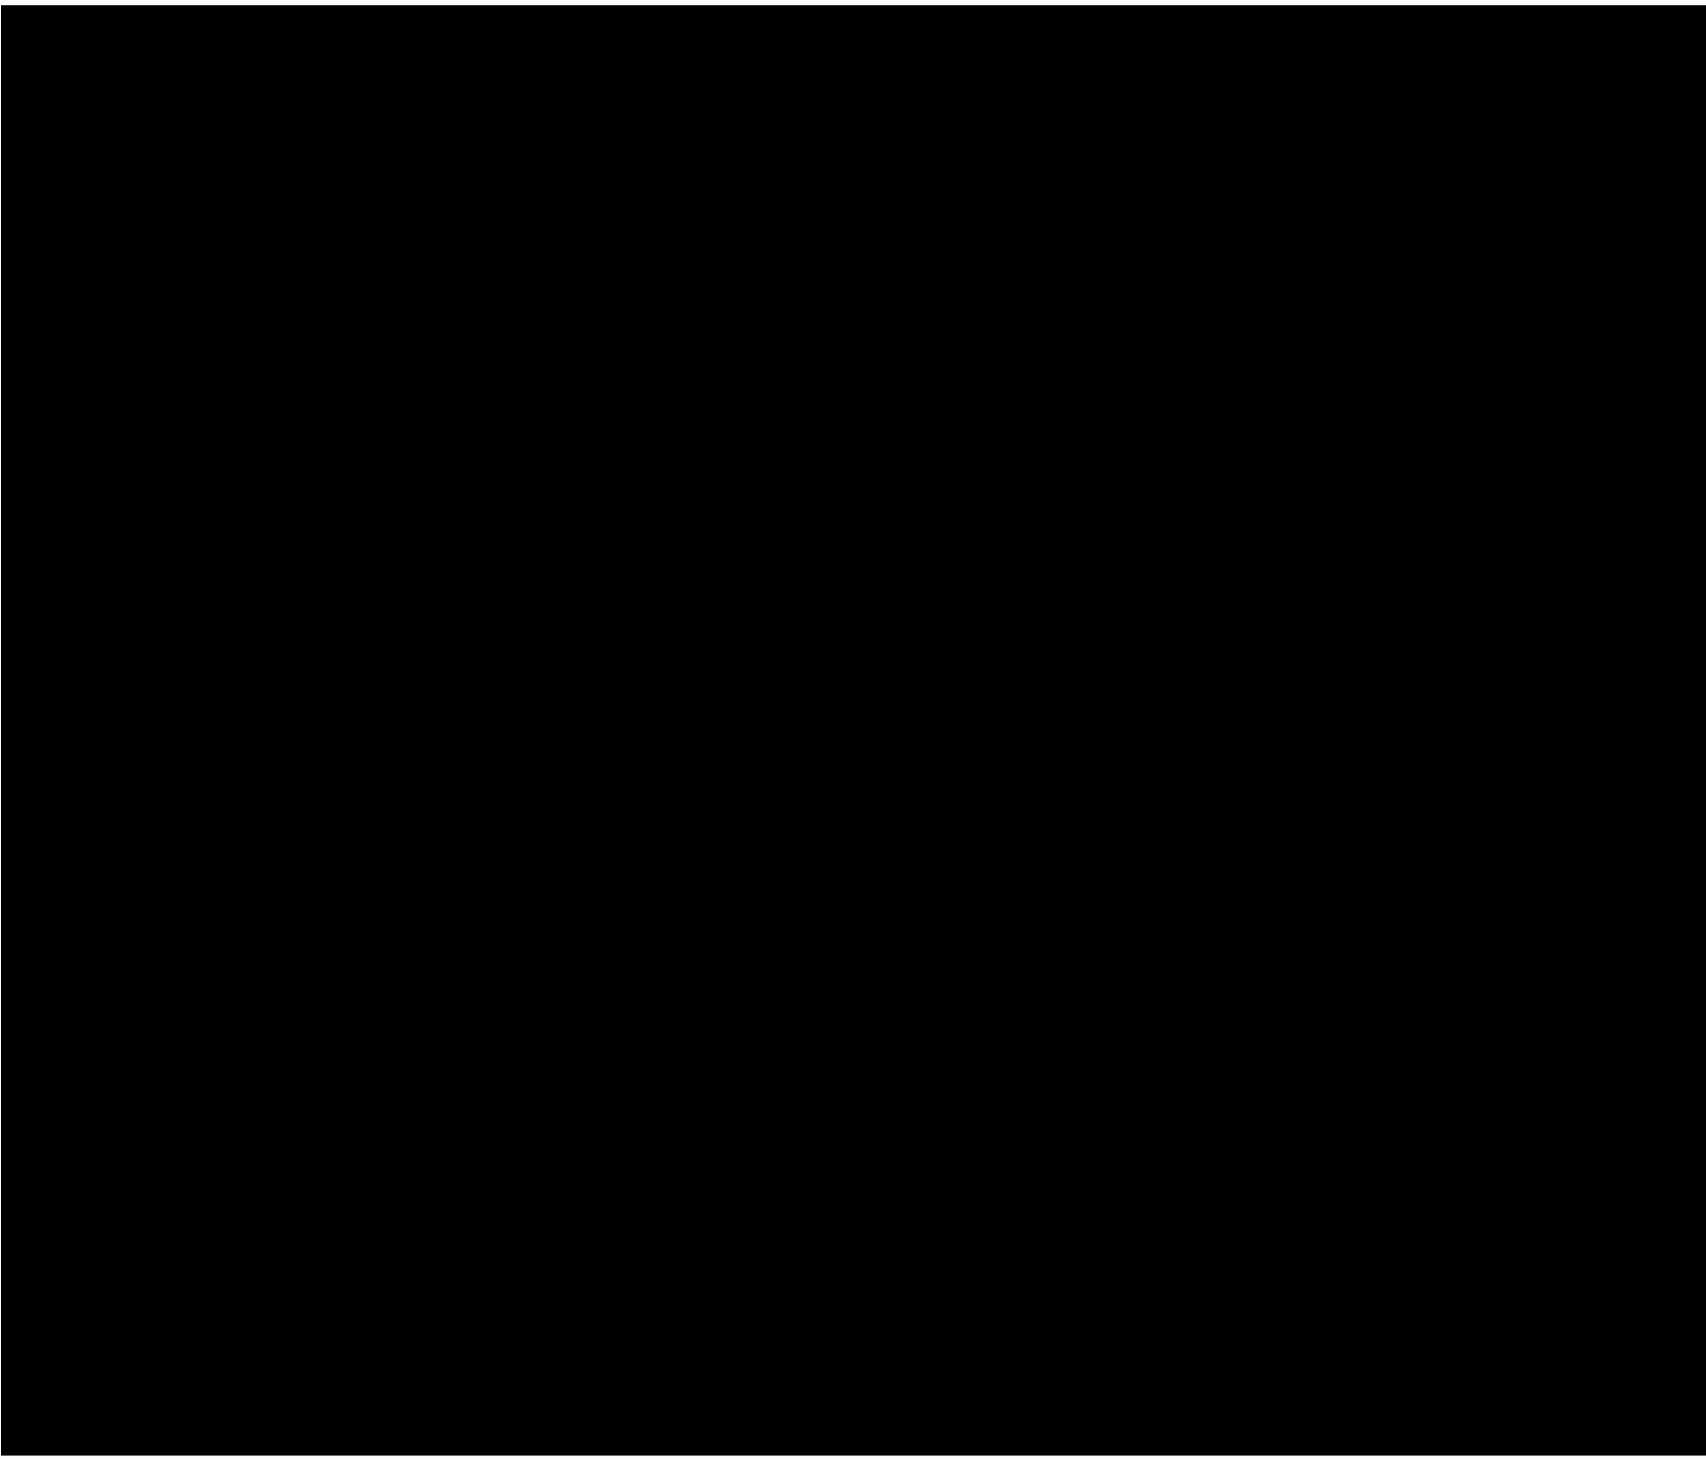

Our audit was conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the financial statements as a whole. The supplemental schedules of Benefit and Administrative Expenses and Reportable Transactions are presented for the purpose of additional analysis and are not a required part of the financial statements but are supplementary information required by the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA. Such information is the responsibility of the Trust's management and was derived from and relates directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements. The information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the financial statements and certain additional procedures, including comparing and reconciling such information directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements or to the financial statements themselves, and other additional procedures in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards.

In forming our opinion on the supplemental schedules, we evaluated whether the supplemental schedules, including their form and content, are presented in conformity with the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA.

In our opinion, the information in the accompanying schedules is fairly stated, in all material respects, in relation to the financial statements as a whole, and the form and content are presented in conformity with the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Joint Governing Board
UAW-Ford Voluntary Employees Beneficiary
Association Trust Fund

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of UAW-Ford Voluntary Employees Beneficiary Association Trust Fund (the "Trust"), an employee benefit plan subject to the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA), which comprise the statement of net assets available for benefits as of December 31, 2025 and 2024, and the related statement of changes in net assets available for benefits for the years then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the net assets available for benefits of the Trust as of December 31, 2025 and 2024, and the changes in its net assets available for benefits for the years then ended, in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of the Trust and to meet our other ethical responsibilities, in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audits. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Trust's ability to continue as a going concern for one year after the date the financial statements are available to be issued.

Management is also responsible for maintaining a current plan instrument, including all plan amendments, administering the Trust, and determining that the Trust's transactions that are presented and disclosed in the financial statements are in conformity with the Trust's provisions, including maintaining sufficient records with respect to each of the participants, to determine the benefits due or which may become due to such participants.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, we:

- Exercise professional judgement and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Trust's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Trust's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control-related matters that we identified during the audit.

Supplemental Schedules Required by ERISA

Our audit was conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the financial statements as a whole. The supplemental schedules of Benefit and Administrative Expenses and Reportable Transactions are presented for the purpose of additional analysis and are not a required part of the financial statements but are supplementary information required by the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA. Such information is the responsibility of the Trust's management and was derived from and relates directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements. The information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the financial statements and certain additional procedures, including comparing and reconciling such information directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements or to the financial statements themselves, and other additional procedures in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards.

In forming our opinion on the supplemental schedules, we evaluated whether the supplemental schedules, including their form and content, are presented in conformity with the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA.

In our opinion, the information in the accompanying schedules is fairly stated, in all material respects, in relation to the financial statements as a whole, and the form and content are presented in conformity with the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA.

Note A – Description of the Plan

The following brief description of UAW-Ford Voluntary Employees Beneficiary Association Trust Fund (the "Trust") is provided for general purposes only. For more complete information, refer to the Summary Plan Description.

General

The Trust was established effective December 16, 2020 by a collective bargaining agreement between the International Union, United Automobile, Aerospace and Agricultural Implement Workers of America, AFL-CIO, and its affiliates ("UAW") and Ford Motor Company ("Ford"). The Trust is a Voluntary Employee Beneficiary Association ("VEBA") that covers eligible members of Ford Motor Company and the union with benefits to three programs, the UAW-Ford Joint Apprenticeship and Training Program, the UAW-Ford Tuition Assistance Program, and the UAW-Ford Employee Support Services Program. The Trust is subject to the provisions of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 ("ERISA"), as amended.

Benefits

The Trust provides apprentice and training classes, tuition assistance, and employee support services to its current employees. Retired employees are entitled to similar benefits.

Contributions

The Trust provides funding for costs attributable to the provisions of benefits and related administrative expenses. Contributions are obtained directly from Ford, which are based on the collective bargaining agreement between UAW and Ford.

Eligibility

Any current employee of Ford, who is covered by the collective bargaining agreement between UAW and Ford, is considered eligible under the Trust. Retired employees who have separated from service with Ford are eligible under the Trust if: 1) they were eligible for benefits under the UAW-Ford Retirement Plan, 2) at the time of their date of separation they were age fifty-five or older with ten or more years of service with Ford, or 3) they have thirty or more years of service with Ford.

Vesting and Payment of Benefits

The Trust provides joint apprenticeship and training, tuition assistance, and employee support services to eligible participants and to eligible dependents or spouse as specified in the Trust. Once initial eligibility is achieved (first day of employment), eligibility is maintained by continuing to be employed by Ford. The Board of Trustees has the right to modify the benefits provided to eligible participants at any time.

Note B – Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

The following are significant accounting policies followed by the Trust:

Basis of Accounting

The financial statements of the Trust have been prepared on the accrual basis of accounting in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Grant Receivable

During the plan year ended December 31, 2025, the Plan was awarded a grant of $164,000.00 from the Michigan State AFL-CIO to fund benefits for eligible participants. The grant is a nonreciprocal transfer to the Trust and is accounted for as a contribution in accordance with FASB ASC 958-605, Not-for-Profit Entities — Revenue Recognition, with the resulting receivable presented in accordance with FASB ASC 965-310, Plan Accounting — Health and Welfare Benefit Plans — Receivables.

Management has determined the grant is an unconditional promise to give. Because the grant agreement imposes no donor-imposed barrier that must be overcome before the Trust is entitled to the funds, the Trust recognized the full award of $164,000.00 as a contribution and recorded a grant receivable in the same amount as of December 31, 2025.

The grant receivable is reported as a separate line item in the statement of net assets available for benefits and management considers the full amount collectible. The grant is unrestricted by the grantor.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Trust considers cash and cash equivalents to include all monies held by financial institutions in checking accounts, savings accounts, and money market accounts including highly liquid investments with a maturity of three months or less, and short-term cash deposits. The carrying value of cash and cash equivalents approximates fair value based on their short-term maturities.

Concentrations of Credit Risk

Financial instruments that potentially subject the Trust to concentrations of credit risk consist principally of cash. Accounts at each institution are insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (“FDIC”) up to $250,000. It is the opinion of management that the solvency of the referenced financial institution is not of particular concern at this time.

Property and Equipment

Acquisitions of property and equipment in excess of $5,000 are capitalized. Property and equipment are carried at cost. Major renewals and improvements are charged to the property accounts, while repairs, which do not materially extend the life of these assets, are expensed as incurred. The Organization writes off fully depreciated assets other than building improvements and vehicles. Depreciation is computed primarily using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the assets, which range as follows:

Building and improvements	36 years
Furniture, fixtures, and equipment	12.5 years
Computer equipment	10 years
Vehicles	9 years

Payment of Benefits

Benefit expenses are recognized during the period in which claims are incurred.

Administrative Expenses

All expenses of maintaining the Trust are paid by the Trust. Administrative expenses are recorded during the period in which the Trust receives the benefit of goods or services.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, benefit obligations, and changes therein, and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities. Accordingly, actual results could differ from those estimates.

Actuarial Present Value of Postretirement Benefits

The amount disclosed as the accumulated postretirement benefit obligation, under the UAW-Ford Joint Trust Retiree Tuition Reimbursement Program, represents the actuarial present value of those estimated future benefits that are attributed by the terms of the Trust to employees' service rendered to the date of the financial statements, reduced by the actuarial present value of contributions expected to be received in the future from current plan participants. Postretirement benefits include future benefits expected to be paid to or for (1) currently retired or terminated employees and their beneficiaries and dependents and (2) active employees and their beneficiaries and dependents after retirement from service with participating employers.

The postretirement benefit obligation represents the amount that is to be funded by contributions from the Trust's participating employer and from existing Trust assets. Prior to an active employee's full eligibility date, the postretirement benefit obligation is the portion of the expected postretirement benefit obligation that is attributed to that employee's service in the industry rendered to the valuation date.

The actuarial present value of the accumulated postretirement benefit obligation is determined by an actuary and is the amount that results from applying actuarial assumptions to historical claims-cost data to estimated future annual incurred claims costs per participant and to adjust such estimates for the time value of money (through discounts for interest) and the probability of payment (by means of decrements such as those for death, disability, withdrawal, or retirement) between the valuation date and the expected date of payment.

The following are significant actuarial assumptions used in the valuations at December 31, 2025 and 2024:

Discount rate	5.12 percent for 2025 and 5.46 percent for 2024
Retirement rates	Under age 55, 0.0 percent; age 55-59, 10.0 percent; age 60-61, 2.5 percent; age 62-64, 5.0 percent; age 65-74, 12.0 percent; age 75 and above, 100.0 percent.
Mortality table	PRI-2012 healthy tables, with blue collar adjustment, projected forward from 2012 using MP-2021 mortality improvement scale was used for 2025 and 2024.
Participation rates	1 percent of eligible future retirees; 1 percent of retirees within the past 5 years; 0 percent of retirees more than 5 years ago.
Course reimbursements	Average cost per course: $435.60; average number of courses per year: 1.33 for new participants and based on individual history for returning retirees for 2025. Average cost per course: $393.40; average number of courses per year: 1.40 for new participants and based on individual history for returning retirees for 2024.

The foregoing actuarial assumptions are based on the presumption that the Trust will continue. Were the Trust to terminate, different actuarial assumptions and other factors might be applicable in determining the actuarial present value of the accumulated postretirement benefit obligations.

There is no provision for funding the postretirement benefit obligation in the current collective bargaining agreements. The calculation of the obligation does not imply that there is any legal liability to provide the valued benefits, nor do the participants have any vested rights in the postretirement benefit obligations.

Subsequent Events

The Trust has evaluated subsequent events through October 5, 2026, the date the financial statements were available to be issued, and no issues have come to our attention that would require recognition.

Note C – Benefit Obligations

Note D – Plan Termination

The Trust may be terminated at any time by the action of the Board of Trustees, subject to the provisions of ERISA. In the event of termination, the Trustees shall direct the Trust to pay any and all obligations to the extent possible and distribute and apply any remaining surplus in such manner as will, in their opinion, best effectuate the purposes of the trust. A full description of the Trust's termination priorities is available in the Plan Document, as amended.

Note E – Tax Status

The Trust obtained a favorable determination letter on July 25, 2022, in which the Internal Revenue Service stated that the Trust and related trust, as then designed, was in compliance with applicable requirements of the Internal Revenue Code.

Accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America require plan management to evaluate tax positions taken by the Trust and recognize a tax liability if the Trust has taken an uncertain tax position that more likely than not would not be sustained upon examination by the Internal Revenue Service. The Trust is subject to routine audits by taxing jurisdictions; however, there are currently no audits for any tax periods in progress. The plan administrator believes it is no longer subject to income tax examinations for years prior to 2022.

Note F – Related Party Transactions

The Trust is governed by representatives of both the UAW and Ford. The Trust's expenses include allocated costs for the years ended December 31, 2025 and 2024, of Ford expense reimbursements totaling $3,223,186.34 and $1,357.404.37, respectively. UAW chargebacks totaled $326,696.41 and $385,953.51 for the years ended December 31, 2025 and 2024, respectively. At December 31,2025 and 2024, reimbursements owed to Ford from the Trust totaled $28,230.00 and $40,346.43, respectively.

The Trust and its affiliated organization – UAW-Ford Labor Management Committees Trust Fund ("LMC") – are governed by the same individuals, comprising the joint governing board. Also, the Trust and LMC have the same employees and have common general and administrative expenses. These common general and administrative expenses, which include wages, fringe benefits, and other payroll-related expenses, originating in the Trust. The Trust is reimbursed quarterly for these expenses. At December 31, 2025 and 2024, reimbursements owed from LMC to the Trust totaled $1,802,806.08 and $1,183,398.63, respectively. At December 31, 2025 and 2024, reimbursements owed to LMC from the Trust totaled $688,609.37 and $533,333.00, respectively.

The total due from related party was $1,802,806.08 and $1,183,398.63 at December 31, 2025 and 2024, respectively. The total due to related party was $716,839.37 and $573,679.43 at December 31, 2025 and 2024, respectively.

Note G – Defined Contribution Plan

The Trust maintains a 401(k) investment plan available to all employees. Employees who elect to participate may make pre-tax deferrals of at least 1 percent of eligible wages, up to applicable federal limits. The Trust pays all administrative costs of the plan.

The Trust provides an employer non-elective contribution equal to 10 percent of each eligible employee's eligible compensation. For this purpose, eligible compensation is defined as base hourly, straight-time pay for up to 40 compensated hours in a weekly pay period. The contribution begins as of the first pay period administratively practicable after an employee is first eligible to receive retirement contributions, and no later than required under ERISA timing requirements.

The Trust also provides an additional employer non-elective contribution of $1.00 per hour credited to an eligible employee's 401(k) account for up to 40 hours of base wages per week, limited to 2,080 hours annually. Employees who are out of service due to disability are treated as in service until they have not worked for 501 continuous hours; after that point, the employee no longer accrues the $1.00 per hour contribution until returning to work.

Eligibility, vesting, and all other matters relating to the plan are addressed in the Summary Plan Description distributed by Human Resources. For the years ended December 31, 2025 and 2024, the Trust matched total contributions of $15,022.02 and $44,351.61, respectively.
