Exhibit A

Application of PTE 79-60

Plan Name: Marsh & McLennan Companies, Inc. Group Benefits Plan

EIN: 36-2668272

Plan Number: 503

To the extent that any affiliate of the Company that is a disqualified person or party in interest with respect to plans maintained by the Company effects the sale for a plan of one or more insurance contracts and receives sales commissions for doing so, the transactions are not deemed prohibited party-in-interest transactions, because they are covered by statutory or administrative exemptions from the IRC and ERISA's rules on prohibited transactions (ERISA Sections 406(a) and 406(b) and IRC Section 4975(c)(1)), including PTE 79-60. The Plans rely on PTE 79-60, which exempts sales of insurance or annuity contracts for an employee benefit plan maintained by an insurance agent or broker and the receipt of sales commissions in connection with such sales if certain conditions are met. As applicable here, these conditions include: (a) the insurance agent or broker effecting the sale and/or receiving commissions is an employer any of whose employees are covered by the plan or is otherwise a disqualified person or party in interest with respect to the plan by reason of an affiliation with the employer establishing or maintaining the plan; (b) the plan pays no more than adequate consideration for the insurance contracts; and (c) the total commissions received by the agent or broker for effecting such transactions do not exceed five percent of the total annual insurance commissions received by the agent or broker.

Factors supporting application of PTE 79-60 include: analysis conducted by the Benefits Administration Committee (the Plan Administrator), its advisers, the Company and its affiliates; the knowledge and expertise of the Plan Administrator's advisers and the Company related to benefit offerings in the marketplace; data included in public filings, such as Forms 5500, identifying Company affiliates as insurance brokers for Company plans and unrelated plans; and applicable portions of the Benefits Handbook for Company employees and other ancillary materials which disclose, among other things, the plan costs and benefit coverages sufficiently to allow electing participants to make informed decisions. Company affiliates are industry-leading brokers and consultants in these areas with a vast client base which provides a basis to benchmark premiums and confirm those premiums are "at market" and demonstrate that the plan pays no more than adequate consideration for the insurance contracts. Form 5500 data demonstrates that the total commissions received by the Company for sales of insurance contracts for Company plans does not account for more than five percent of the amount received by the Company for sales of insurance contracts for unrelated plans which is only a subset of the total annual insurance commissions received by the Company.
