Dear Plan Administrator:

Thank you for using Bonadio & Co., LLP as your independent auditor.

We have completed an Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA) Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit, pursuant to 29 CFR 2520.103-8 of the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA, of the financial statements of Century Linen & Uniform, Inc. 401(k) Plan (the Plan) as of and for the year ended December 31, 2025, and have issued our report thereon the date of this letter. This letter presents communications required by our professional standards.

Our Responsibility under Auditing Standards Generally Accepted in the United States of America

As communicated in our engagement letter dated June 15, 2026, our responsibility, as described by professional standards, is to conduct our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAS). As permitted by ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) pursuant to 29 CFR 2520.103-8 of the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA, our audit did not extend to the certified investment information, except for obtaining and reading the certification, comparing the certified investment information with the related information presented and disclosed in the financial statements, and reading the disclosures relating to the certified investment information to assess whether they are in accordance with the presentation and disclosure requirements of accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Other than for the certified investment information, the financial statements and supplemental schedules were audited by us in accordance with GAAS and were subjected to tests of your accounting records and other procedures as we considered necessary to enable us to express an opinion as to whether they are presented in compliance with the DOL's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA. Our audit of the financial statements does not relieve you or management of its respective responsibilities.

Significant Findings

Qualitative Aspect of Accounting Policies

Management is responsible for the selection and use of appropriate accounting policies. In accordance with the terms of our engagement letter, we will advise management about the appropriateness of accounting policies and their application. The significant accounting policies used by Century Linen & Uniform, Inc. 401(k) Plan are described in Note 2 to the financial statements. No new accounting policies were adopted and the application of existing policies was not changed during the year ended December 31, 2025.

We noted no transactions entered into by the Plan during the year that were both significant and unusual, and of which, under professional standards, we are required to inform you, or transactions for which there is a lack of authoritative guidance or consensus. In addition, we did not identify any significant findings or issues during the audit in connection with the Plan's related parties.

Accounting estimates are an integral part of the financial statements prepared by management and are based on management's knowledge and experience about past and current events and assumptions about future events. Certain accounting estimates are particularly sensitive because of their significance to the financial statements and because of the possibility that future events affecting them may differ significantly from those expected.

The most sensitive estimate affecting the financial statements was management’s estimate of the fair value measurements of Plan investments. We evaluated the key factors and assumptions used to develop the fair value of Plan investments in determining that it is reasonable in relation to the financial statements taken as a whole.

The disclosures in the financial statements are neutral, consistent, and clear.

Difficulties Encountered in Performing the Audit

We encountered no significant difficulties in dealing with management in performing and completing our audit.

Significant Unusual Transactions Identified During the Audit

We identified no significant unusual transactions during the audit.

Difficult, Contentious or Other Matters Encountered During the Audit

We encountered no difficult, contentious, or other matters for which we consulted outside the engagement team that were, in our professional judgment, significant and relevant to those charged with governance regarding the responsibility to oversee the financial reporting process.

Corrected and Uncorrected Misstatements

Professional standards require us to accumulate all known and likely misstatements identified during the audit, other than those that are trivial, and communicate them to the appropriate level of management. Management has corrected all such misstatements.

Reportable Findings

For purposes of this letter, a reportable finding is a matter that includes one or more of the following: (1) noncompliance or suspected noncompliance with laws and regulations, (2) a finding that in our professional judgment is significant and relevant to you regarding your responsibility to oversee the financial reporting process, and (3) an indication of internal control deficiencies identified during the audit that have not been previously communicated to management by other parties and that we determined are sufficiently important to merit management's attention. We identified the following reportable findings:

Meeting Minutes - During our audit, we noted that minutes are not kept of regular meetings regarding the Plan. The Employee Retirement Income Security Act (ERISA) defines numerous fiduciary duties trustees have in relation to the Plan. Among the fiduciary duties, trustees should hold timely, periodic meetings with minutes which document the activities of the fiduciary. Although investment reports are regularly provided to Plan management, we recommend meetings with the investment managers to discuss investment performance, and the discussions be formally documented in minutes. The minutes should record that the trustees have regularly reviewed agreements with third party administrators and investment managers, compliance with 408(b)(2) service provider notices and also investment policies. In addition, reasons for changes in third party administrator, investment managers, and investment policies should be documented. The minutes should also record the trustees' review of the list of parties in interest and prohibited transactions; approval of benefit payments; employer contributions; and review of annual financial statements/Form 5500.

Census Information - During our audit, we noted that the compensation per the payroll reports did not agree with the census. This was primarily due to the census only including the employees that were eligible to participate in the Plan. Failure to keep a complete and accurate census might result in eligibility status of employees being incorrectly determined. We recommend that the census include the complete list of employees, both eligible and not eligible to participate in the Plan. Total compensation and plan contributions per the census should agree to the annual payroll reports and should be reviewed by plan management.

Timely Remittance and Investment of Employee Contributions - During our audit, we noted that certain participant contributions were not remitted to the Plan on the earliest date on which they could reasonably be segregated from the Company's general assets, as required by Department of Labor (DOL) Regulation 29 CFR 2510.3-102. As a result, these remittances constitute prohibited transactions that are reportable on Form 5500 and may require the calculation and contribution of lost earnings to affected participant accounts. The late remittances noted during our testing indicate that controls were not operating effectively to ensure participant contributions are remitted to the Plan in a timely and consistent manner. We recommend management strengthen its procedures and monitoring controls over the remittance process to ensure participant contributions are deposited to the Plan trust as soon as administratively feasible following each payroll cycle.

Disagreements with Management

For purposes of this letter, professional standards define a disagreement with management as a matter, whether or not resolved to our satisfaction, concerning a financial accounting, reporting, or auditing matter that could be significant to the financial statements or the auditor's report. We are pleased to report no such disagreements arose over the course of the audit.

Circumstance Affecting the Form and Content of the Auditor's Report

We encountered no circumstances that affect the form and content of the auditor's report.

Consultations with Other Independent Accountants

In some cases, management may decide to consult with other accountants about auditing and accounting matters. If a consultation involves application of an accounting principle to the Plan's financial statements, or a determination of the type of auditors' opinion that may be expressed on those statements, our professional standards require the consulting accountant to check with us to determine that the consultant has all the relevant facts. To our knowledge, there were no such consultations with other accountants.

Management Representations

We have requested certain representations from management that are included in the management representation letter. This letter has been provided to you.

Form 5500

In performing our audit, in accordance with GAAS, we are responsible for obtaining and reading the draft Form 5500 in order to identify material inconsistencies, if any, with the audited ERISA plan financial statements. During our audit we obtained and read the draft Form 5500 from management and did not identify any material inconsistencies.

Other Audit Findings or Issues

We generally discuss a variety of matters, including the application of accounting principles and auditing standards, with management each year prior to retention as the Plan's auditors. However, these discussions occurred in the normal course of our professional relationship and our responses were not a condition to our retention.

This information is intended solely for the use of the Plan Administrator and, if appropriate, and management of Century Linen & Uniform, Inc. 401(k) Plan and is not intended to be and should not be used by anyone other than these specified parties.

Very truly yours,

BONADIO & CO., LLP
