INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Board of Trustees of
Bio-Rad Laboratories Health and Welfare Plan

Opinion

We have audited the financial statements of Bio-Rad Laboratories Health and Welfare Plan (the "Plan"), an employee benefit plan subject to the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 ("ERISA"), which comprise the statements of net assets available for benefits arising from cash transactions as of December 31, 2025 and 2024, and the related statement of changes in net assets available for benefits arising from cash transactions for the year ended December 31, 2025, and the related notes to the financial statements.

In our opinion, the accompanying financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the net assets available for benefits arising from cash transactions of the Plan as of December 31, 2025 and 2024, and the changes in net assets available for benefits arising from cash transactions for the year ended December 31, 2025 in accordance with the cash basis of accounting described in Note 2.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America ("U.S. GAAS"). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditors' Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of the Plan and to meet our other ethical responsibilities, in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audits. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Emphasis of Matter – Basis of Accounting

We draw attention to Note 2 of the financial statements, which describes the basis of accounting. The financial statements are prepared on the cash basis of accounting, which is a basis of accounting other than accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Our opinion is not modified with respect to this matter.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with the cash basis of accounting described in Note 2, and for determining that the cash basis of accounting is an acceptable basis for the preparation of the financial statements in the circumstances. Management is also responsible for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Management is also responsible for maintaining a current Plan instrument, including all Plan amendments, administering the Plan, and determining that the Plan's transactions that are presented and disclosed in the financial statements are in conformity with the Plan's provisions, including maintaining sufficient records with respect to each of the participants, to determine the benefits due or which may become due to such participants.

Auditors' Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditors' report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with U.S. GAAS will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with U.S. GAAS, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Plan's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Plan's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control-related matters that we identified during the audit.

1. Description of the Plan

The following description of the Bio-Rad Laboratories Health and Welfare Plan (the "Plan") provides only general information. Participants should refer to the Plan agreement for a more complete description of the Plan's provisions.

General

The Plan was established by Bio-Rad Laboratories, Inc. (the "Company") on May 1, 1978, to provide health and welfare benefits to employees of the Company. In updating certain provisions of the Plan document and ensuring continued compliance with applicable law, the Plan was most recently restated effective September 1, 2014. The Plan, as restated, is intended to comply with Sections 79, 105, 106, 125, and 129 of the Internal Revenue Code ("IRC") and Section 3(1) of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 ("ERISA").

Plan Administration

The Company is the administrator of the Plan. As administrator, the Company has exclusive authority and responsibility for all matters in connection with the operation and administration of the Plan. The Company pays for all necessary and proper expenses incurred in the administration of the Plan by making additional contributions to the Plan or paying directly to vendors. Such expenses primarily comprise consulting fees, auditing fees, and expenses relating to the maintenance of the Plan's records.

Administrative Expenses

Some administrative expenses are paid from Plan assets, provided that such expenses meet the laws and regulations relating to the Plan. For the year ended December 31, 2025, the amount of $1,269,980 was paid in administrative, consulting, and auditing fees to the Plan's third-party service providers.

Eligibility and Enrollment

All active, regular-status employees working at least 20 hours per week are eligible to participate in the Plan. The following individuals are ineligible for coverage: leased and temporary employees, independent contractors, and dependents who are full-time members of the armed forces. Employees classified as "casual" are eligible for medical insurance only. Dependent family members are eligible for medical, dental, vision, employee assistance program ("EAP"), additional life insurance, additional accidental death and dismemberment ("AD&D") insurance, disability insurance, voluntary hospital indemnity insurance, and critical illness insurance. Eligible dependents are a legal spouse or qualified domestic partner and children to age 26. Newly hired employees must make their benefit elections within 31 days of their hire date. Coverage begins on the hire date.

The Plan provides medical (both insured and self-insured), dental (both insured and self-insured), vision insurance, EAP, family planning, legal insurance, life insurance, AD&D insurance, disability insurance, business travel accident ("BTA") insurance, voluntary hospital indemnity insurance, critical illness insurance, and accident insurance.

1. Description of the Plan, continued

Benefits

Premiums for insured benefits are paid to the insurance company by the Plan from the general assets of the Company. Claims for self-insured benefits are processed by the Plan's third-party claims processors under administrative service-only arrangements. The claims processors pay claims directly to or on behalf of participants and are then reimbursed by the Plan. Despite the Plan's utilization of third-party claims processors, ultimate responsibility for payment to providers and participants is retained by the Plan.

The Plan also provides for the continuation of certain benefits upon termination of employment through the Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act ("COBRA").

Contributions

The Plan funding is provided by both the Company and its eligible employees, depending upon the coverage requested.

Employee contributions toward the cost of health care coverage are determined from a schedule of deductions from payroll depending on the participant's coverage elections. Employees make their coverage elections from a variety of options detailed in the benefits handbook. Currently, the Company offers four medical plans in most locations: the Anthem $750 Preferred Provider Organization ("PPO") Plan, the $2,000 Anthem Health Savings Account ("HSA") Plan, the $2,000 Kaiser HSA Plan, the Kaiser Deductible Health Maintenance Organization ("DHMO"), and the Kaiser Health Maintenance Organization ("HMO") Plan. Effective January 1, 2025, the Kaiser DHMO medical plan in California was terminated. In addition, employee contributions include their cost for dental and vision coverage.

The $2,000 Anthem HSA Plan and the $2,000 Kaiser HSA Plan are high-deductible plans paired with an HSA. HSA contributions are used to pay medical expenses. These accounts are employee owned, roll over each year, and never expire.

Medical insurance, dental insurance, vision insurance, legal insurance, additional life insurance, voluntary AD&D insurance, hospital indemnity insurance, critical illness insurance, and accident insurance are available to eligible participants.

The Company pays the entire cost for EAP, family planning, basic life insurance, AD&D insurance, disability insurance, and BTA insurance. Legal insurance, hospital indemnity insurance, critical illness insurance, and accident insurance are paid by employees.

The Company offers a before tax health flexible spending account and a dependent care flexible spending account. under the scope of an IRC Section 125 cafeteria plan. These are fully funded by participant pre-tax contributions. Funds not used by the participant within 90 days of the Plan year end are forfeited to the Company. Forfeitures totaling $57,665 were returned to the Company for the year-ended December 31, 2025.

Stop-Loss Coverage

The Plan has entered into a stop-loss insurance arrangement in an effort to limit its exposure for self-insured medical benefits (individual participant claims over a specific dollar amount, as well as its aggregate exposure for all claims).

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of Accounting

The Plan maintains its books and records on the cash basis of accounting, which is a comprehensive basis of accounting other than accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. The Plan reports additions to net assets when cash is received and deductions from net assets when cash is expended.

The Plan remits weekly lump-sum payments to Anthem, which assumes responsibility for issuing individual claim disbursements.

Investment Valuation and Income Recognition

The Plan has no investments as of December 31, 2025 and 2024.

Interest income is recorded and added to the cash balance as earned. No interest income was earned for the year ended December 31, 2025.

3. Related-Party Transactions and Party-in-Interest Transactions

During the normal course of the Plan's activity, hundreds of transactions take place on a monthly basis. These transactions are related to claims submission, payment, reimbursements, employee and Company contributions, and transfers of funds between certain bank accounts, among others. During this process, various third-party administrators participate in the Plan's functions and transactions execution. Such transactions, while considered party-in-interest transactions under ERISA regulations, are permitted under the provisions of the Plan and are specifically exempt from the prohibition of party-in-interest transactions under ERISA.

4. Benefits Paid and Insurance Premiums

The Company's PPO option is partially self-insured up to a predetermined stop-loss amount. Benefits paid in excess of the stop-loss amount are subject to insurance reimbursement to the Plan by the insurer. Reimbursements in the amount of $4,103,347 were received for the year ended December 31, 2025.

In addition to the PPO plans, employees in certain locations have other medical coverage options which include DHMO and HMO. The DHMO has a low out-of-pocket cost after satisfying the deductible, and most eligible services are covered at 100% after co-pay. The HMO has a low out-of-pocket cost, and most eligible services are covered at 100% after co-pay.

Medical, dental, and flexible spending account claims incurred but not reported and claims reported but not paid were approximately $8.3 million as of December 31, 2025.

5. Tax Status

The voluntary employees' beneficiary association ("VEBA") trust of the Plan received an exemption letter from the Internal Revenue Service dated February 25, 1980, stating that the VEBA trust is tax-exempt under the provisions of Section 501(c)(9) of the IRC. However, as a result of the Plan's funding policy, from time to time the trust may be subject to income taxes. No federal or state income taxes have been recorded for the years ended December 31, 2025 and 2024 for unrelated business taxable income.

5. Tax Status, continued

In addition, the Plan and trust are required to operate in conformity with the IRC to maintain the tax-exempt status of the trust. The Plan's administrator believes that the Plan is being operated in compliance with the applicable requirements of the IRC and, therefore, believes that the related trust is tax-exempt.

The Plan is subject to routine audits by taxing jurisdictions; however, there are no audits for any tax year in progress.

6. Plan Termination

The Company has established the Plan with the intention and expectation that the Plan will continue indefinitely. However, the Company reserves the right at any time to terminate the Plan subject to the provisions of ERISA. In the event the Plan is terminated, all assets, if any, remaining in the Plan after payment of all its obligations will be paid or used for the continuance of one or more of the benefits offered by the Plan until such assets are exhausted.

7. Risks and Uncertainties

All Plan contributions are based on certain cost assumptions pertaining to interest rates, health care inflation, and the health care system regulatory environment and employee demographics. Due to uncertainties inherent in the estimations and assumptions process, it is at least reasonably possible that changes in these costs and assumptions in the near term would be material to the Plan's financial statements.

8. Subsequent Events

The Plan evaluated subsequent events for recognition and disclosure through October 14, 2026, the date these financial statements were available to be issued. Management concluded that no material subsequent events have occurred since December 31, 2025 that require recognition or disclosure in these financial statements.
